OUAY'S FRIENDSHIP

No Doubt That the Governor is the Choice for Cameron's Successor.

FORGIVEN FOR THE COMBINE AFFAIR

The Kindly Sentiment That Has Always Existed Between the Two Leaders Has Not Been Broken by the State Chairmanship Battle -- A Reference to Garman.

> Bureau of The Tribune. 501 14th st., S. W.,

Washington, Aug. 19. The report that Governor Hastings is a candidate for Don Cameron's seat in the United States senate "with Senator's Quay's consent and backing," is generally believed among Pennsylvania Republicans in Washington. The warmest friendship has existed between Senator Quay and Governor Hastings ever since the memorable state chairmanship campaign of a year ago, in which Quay won over the combine headed by the governor. In fact, Quay and Hastings have always been on good terms. Of course there was a slight estrangement between them during the fight, but Quay, who is ever ready to forgive a political enemy, forgave Hastings and took him into the fold. Since then the senator has had no warmer and more faithful friend than the governor. The fact that Governor Hastings made the speech placing Quay in nomination for president at St. Louis last June is pointed to as evidence of their close friendship, and the story that Governor Hastings is Senator Quay's choice for United States senator is not a surprise to the latter's friends here.

It is said that this deal was made at Harrisburg last last spring when Senator Quay visited Governor Hastings at the executive mansion. At the time it was given out that the senator and the governor met for the purpose of mapping out the latter's nominating speech of the former at St. Louis. Of all the candidates mentioned for Cameron's seat in the senate Governor Hastings is the most logical as far as Quay is concerned. It not only means that Quay will have a colleague in the who will be in perfect accord senate with him on all important questions, but that the governorship for the next two years will be in the hands of a man friendly to Quay. Mr. Lyon is such a man and it will be only natural for him to take the advice of the senator on all important matters.

It is well known that Senator Quay is anxious to get through the next legislature certain municipal reform legislation to which the combine leaders-Magee and Martin-are opposed. That, probably, is the principal reason for Magee's ambition to go to the state senate. He no doubt believes that if there is any chance of blocking Senator Quay's reform measures he (Magce) will be more able to do so if he is a member of the legislature through which they must pass. Once through the legislature, and with Mr. Lyon in the gubernatorial chair, there will be no doubt as to their becoming laws. The veto power of the governor is something so wary a politician as Senator Quay is does not want to have turned against him.

It is not believed that State Senator failure. He has antagonized the anti-Harrityltes to such an extent in the past that they will hardly feel like for-FOR HASTINGS giving him in such a short time. If Mr. Garman is successful in his chase for the congressional nomination . he will not be able to poll near his party's Frank A. Preble Objected to the Red vote in his district. DOUBLE TRAGEDY IS SUSPECTED.

Man and Woman Thought to Have Been Murdered Near Indianapolis. Indianapolis, Aug. 19 .- The village of Antrim, twelve miles south of this city, is much excited over a mysterious affair. Near by is a long covered bridge spanning White river. This bridge has been the scene of a number of desperate affairs in years past. A well dressed man and woman were observed last Friday evening driving through the village of West Newton, sime miles distant, and nothing has been heard from them since, while all indications point to foul play. Their horse was found Saturday evening hitched to the bridge, the phaeton in which they rode was overturned close at hand, while the interior of the vehicle showed signs of a struggle. Blose at hand was a cartridge freshly discharged, and near by the weatherboarding of the bridge had been kicked loose, giving passage way to the water, forty feet below, which at that point s deep and very swift. There are other evidences of a tragedy. The villagers speculated on the peculiar circumstances until today, when no claimant appeared for the horse and phaeton. oher developtments convinced them that there had been a murder at this point, if not both a murder and a suicide. The coroner and sheriff have been requested to investigate. The couple seen at West Newton were middle aged and aristocratic looking, and were strangers in the neighborhood. The horse is a fine roadster, and the vehicle and its equipments are first class.

DIED SUDDENLY WHILE BATHING.

Willism Rutter of St. Louis Succumb to Heart Disease. Cleveland, Aug. 19.-A sad accident marred the social festivities which inaugurated the yachting regatta yesterday. William Rutter, of St. Louis, who came here with his wife to see the races, went in bathing. He had been walking about the island and was overheated. As soon as he donned his bathing clothes he started down the rocks. hutes. As he struck the water he sank like a log. Attendants seized him as he came to the surface, but he was dead when they got him ashore. Physicians who were summoned pronounced it heart disease. Mrs. Rutter, then he alleged a branded iron was apwho was sitting on the bluff watching plied twice to his breast. After that he her husband, fell into a faint into the water fifty feet below when she saw the accident, and, striking her head on a rock, was rendered unconscious. She lay in a critical state at the Hotel Victory all night.

KEPT HIS SECRET TO THE LAST.

Mysterious Stranger Passes Away in a Remote Indiana Hostelry.

Indianapolis, Aug. 19 .- Four months his clothing. ago a middle-aged and well-dressed stranger presented himself at Branchville, in Crawford county, stopping at the only hotel. He was pleasant in his intercourse, but studiously avoided reference to himself, paid all bills promptly, and made no effort to put himself on a familiar footing with any didate for Senator Cameron's scat. He is Quay's friend and is always ready to help him. The Wanamaker boom, as everybody knows, is being nursed by the political enemies of Senator Output To the very last he det. any particulars relative to himself, or why he had secluded himself in that village, which is fifteen miles distant from railroad or telegraphic communication with the outside world.

TORTURED IN AN ORANGE LODGE

Het Initiation

SEEKS SATISFACTION FROM COURTS Was Stripped of His Clothing, Tortured with Whips and Hot Irons and Otherwise Abused -- The Lodge Officers Fined -- An Appeal Will Be Taken.

Waltham, Mass., Aug. 19 .- The most inique case ever tried in the district court came up this morning before Judge Luce, when an alleged expose was made, under oath, upon the wit-ness stand, of the rites and ordeals through which a candidate must pass to become a full fledged Orangeman Frank A. Preble was the first witness. He was one of the candidates who thought the initiatory ceremony was cruel and was seeking legal satisfaction for his experience. It was on the evening of July 25 1896, that he received his initial honorary degree in Orange lodge of Waltham. He swore that his troubles began on the minute that he passed the mystic portals. He was compelled to discard raiment except his underwear, all which, the night being hot, was of gausy texture. One arm was stripped of his sleeve, his drawers were rolled above his knees and he was given a pair of overalls, which also were rolled lodge room by Brothers Daniel Tracey and William Mable, who acted as conductors.

There he was compelled to halt and get down upon his knees and repeat the Lord's prayer. Then he had to clamber over a lot of rough blocks, was struck severely with whips and finally posed upon what seemed to him a step ladder. An obligation was imposed, after which the ladder was suddenly pulled from under him, and he was pitched into a canvass blanket in which he was bounced around for a while. Then he was placed on his knees again and several people, he says, literally "gave it to him in the neck." Some more marching followed and he was made to carry what felt like a bag of

SERPENT FOUND HIM.

Finally Mable told him to raise his hand and try to find "the serpent." Brother Graham then cried: "You did not find hlm, but it has found you, and was seated and the rest was easy. He talked with Mr. Nicholson, another member, and both agreed that he had been cruelly treated. He alleged that one reason that he had received such harsh treatment was probably because some one had blackmailed him. The witness' breast was badly burned and the wounds were raw for ten days. His legs were discolored from the violence of some if the blows he received from the whips. The only time he protested was when they were removing

"d-d good reast." Arch had not interfered to protect Preble because he knew it would do no good. His own legs were whipped harder than Preble's had been, but his own back had escaped more lightly. No evidence was put in for the dehad been given that any departure had been made from the regular form of initiation sufficient to constitute an assault. Preble having applied for initiation and had been willing to abide by the consequences, no crime had been committed, and counsel asked that the lodge be discharged as "not guilty. Judge Luce, in his decision, fined six officers of the lodge $35 each. They were John G. Graham, G. O. Nickeron, Edward O'Brien, Daniel Tracy Alexander Wheaterbee and Wilfred Mable. All appealed and were held in $200 bonds each.

count of the extreme darkness were ompelled to give up the chase. Today the robbers were discovered in a shed near Potterville. Deputy Sheriff Fordham and Charles Barnes, president of the village, undertook to arrest them but were driven away. The officers returned to the village and organized a posse, which, armed with all kinds of weapons gave chase. Two of them surrendered after a short run, but the other two led the posse an exciting chase of about five miles through the woods and swamps. The posse was reinforced along the road by farmers, and when the robbers surrendered they were surrounded by a large crowd. All four were taken to Charlotte and locked up. They were well armed and some money was found in their pockets. They gave their names as Charles Wright, Ed. Marlow, James O'Donnell and Frank Edson, and are all about 21 years of age. The opinion is that they are tramps.

BAR ASSOCIATION MEETS.

Lord Russell and His Party Accorded Quite an Ovation.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 19.-The nineteenth annual session of the American Bar association was called to order to-day by President Moorefield Storey, of Boston. Lord Russell and his party were accorded quite an ovation. Mr. Storey delivered an address on "The most noteworthy changes in statute law on points of general interest made in the several states and by congress during the preceding year." The address of President Storey. which required an hour and a half in delivering, was frequently applauded. The regular business was then taken above his knees. Then, as he says, he was blindfolded and led into the larger committee eighty-eight new members from various states were elected. A recess of ten minutes was then taken. during which time Lord Russell, Hon. Frank Lockwood and Montague Crackanthorpe held an informal reception on the platform, where they greeted many members of the association." Reports of committees were read and the attention of the vice presidents and members of the local councils was again called to the resolution charging them with the duty of endeavoring to secure by legislation the appointment of commissioners of uniform state law. adjournment was then taken to 8 o'clock

Philadelphia Newsboy Dies from the Effects of Excessive Smoking.

Philadelphia, Aug. 19.-As the result f an attempt to see how many cigarettes he could smoke in half an hour, and to win a wager, 14-year-old George F. Ellwell, a newsboy, died today. Last evening a number of newsboys were talking of cigarette smoking and one of the crowd urged Ellwell to see how many he could smoke in half an hour. A small wager was made and two packs of cigarettes were purchased. The boy had lighted his twentieth cigarette when the half hour was up. He was taken sick during the night and died this morning. The coroner's officials who investigated the case said that death was due to excessive cigarette smoking and more directly to the large number which the boy had smoked yesterday.

The manager of Wanamaker's campaign is Frank Willing Leach, once a Quay supporter, but who fell out with the senator when he couldn't get the latter's backing for the state chairmanship a couple of months ago. Leach is now hand and glove with the combine but the combination is not strong enough to land Mr. Wanamaker in the senate. Senator Quay will control the next legislature, and if he has really decided upon Governor Hastings as the successor to Senator Cameron no other candidates need apply.

The statement made a couple of weeks ago that Senator Quay intended to retire from active politics at the expiration of his term in the Unite States | ond month, there are over 3,000 people, Senate, is not believed by many of his seventy business houses complete and friends in Washington. He may retire under construction, two sawmills, one from the senate, but as to quitting planing mill and five lumber yards, bepolitics for good is another question. It is said that if Senator Quay does wide area of country about it never be will be a candidate for governor in 1896. nor he will be sixty-nine years of age, and will no doubt then be anxious and willing to retire to the quiet of private life. He will then have held the largest offices within the gift of the state of Pennsylvania and can retire filled with honors. Congressman William A. Stone, of Allegheny, who is said to be slated for the gubernatorial nomination in 1898, would not doubt willingly stand aside four years to allow his political mentor to take the honors.

UMPIRE PREPARED FOR TROUBLE.

Six Boys Shot as the Result of a Close Decision.

Helena, Ark., Aug. 19 .- A game of base ball played at Poplar Grove yesterday between two colored teams for a stake of $5 broke up in a battle between the opposing nines in which two boys were fatally shot and four others more or less wounded. Negro boys from the Polk and the Lowdy plantations constituted the opposing teams. William Griffin, the umpire and an adherent of the Polk side, held the stakes. In the third inning Griffin gave the Lowdy team the hot end of a close decision, and the aggrieved team, led by Israel Tate, made a rush for the umpire and his son, who was acting as official scorer. The umpire was prepared for the attack, however. He opened a valise and passed pistols to the members of the Polk team and the battle began. Is-rael Tate was the only man on the Lowdy team that had a gun, but he did effective work. He emptied his pistol into the Polk team, reloaded and emptied it again. He is credited with having shot four men.
