

THE POPULISTS ARE IN DEAD EARNEST

They Will Live Up to the Fusion Under Proper Conditions.

BUT WATSON MUST BE RECOGNIZED

The Democrats Must Work for the Southern Oratorical Cyclone or the Boy Orator Will Be Knit by the Whiskers Contingent—Mr. Butler's Opinion of Cockran.

Washington, Aug. 20.—"There appears to be an intimation of some of the newspapers that the decision of our committee with respect to fusion is not sincere and that we do not intend to live up to it," said Chairman Marlon Butler of the Populist committee today. "The statement of last night was made after a careful consideration of the whole subject and we mean exactly what it says. The national executive committee will not approve any fusion in any of the states that gives the Populists simply the state ticket and the Democrats the whole electoral ticket. There must be just as zealous work done for the candidacy of Mr. Watson as there is for Mr. Bryan and the efforts must be forth in behalf of Mr. Bryan must be as loyal as those exerted for Mr. Watson. There is no reason whatever why we cannot work in harmony with the Democratic party in this respect for we both have the same head to our ticket, and are both earnest in our efforts to secure the free and unlimited coinage of silver. Of course in those states where the two parties are pretty evenly divided, and where we can defeat the Republicans and carry the electoral vote for Bryan only by merging our interests, common sense suggests that we agree upon a division of the electors. But even in that case there is no trading of votes by the Populists. The statement has no hidden meaning. It is quite plain."

Senator Butler discussed the speech of Mr. Bourke Cockran at some length this morning and was quite caustic in some of his comments. That speech, he said, will be an invitation to the man and the gold Democrats are the allies of the Republicans and Mr. Hanna in this fight. Mr. Hanna is trying to switch the financial question and makes the tariff the issue. His efforts are as desperate and fanatical as those of Cockran and the gold Democrats. The intelligence of the masses is so great that both are doomed to fail. Cockran's speech is a good background for that of Mr. Bryan. It has only helped to emphasize Mr. Bryan's truths in the minds of the people.

Susquehanna, Aug. 20.—Susquehanna has had another lively racket with the marauding, plundering tramp, on Monday afternoon a young Syrian peddler, John Joseph by name, was lured to Canavan's Island, robbed of his entire stock and some cash and thrown into the river. He made his way to town and informed the authorities of his misadventure. Chief-of-Police McMahon, at the head of forty Erie boiler shop employees—the latter armed with pick handles—made a raid upon the island, and after a brief struggle captured six of the tramps and recovered the stolen property. In the melee two of the tramps were injured. On Tuesday afternoon the gang was brought before Justice Tiffany, charged with highway robbery and felonious assault, with intent to kill. They were held to await the action of the grand jury, and in default of bail were committed to the Montrose jail. The young Syrian will be held as a witness against the gang.

THE SNAKE AT SCHOOL.

A few mornings since a vicinity school teacher had a lively experience. Soon after the school was called to order she heard a low, rattling, buzzing noise, and upon opening the drawer to the desk she was horrified to see a large rattlesnake slithering out from under the top of the desk. The younger children screamed and ran out of doors, and several of the older boys hurriedly looked about for clubs with which to dispatch the intruder. The plucky little teacher at once grasped the hick pole, and with a well-directed blow killed the reptile. Then she swooned. The school was dismissed for the day. How the snake succeeded in getting into the desk is still an unanswered conundrum.
