PENNSYLVANIANS GREET M'KINLEY

The Liveliest Scene in Canton Since the Nomination.

DEMONSTRATION BY LABORING MEN

More Than Two Thousand Pennsyl vanians Go to Canton .- Their Enthustasm Shown in Their Noise-Making Devices and Banners -- A Tariff and Money Speech.

Lawrence county, Pa., particularly of

New Castle and Elwood City, came to Canton yesterday to pay their respects to Major McKinley. The party numbered more than 2,000 men and was the largest that had visited here since the nomination in St. Louis. The visit was also notable for some of the most novel features ever introduced in a political demonstration is the visit was demonstration in this vicinity. Prominent among these was a fully equipped steam calliope, which brought up the rear of the procession to the McKinley house with a series of lively shricks. and a small cannon, drawn by a de-Bright, new stock that tell at a tachment of old soldiers and fired at glance their own story of indisput-able merit. They are absolutely ed in front of the McKinley home and at every railroad station along the road. The delegation also carried some peculiar banners, some of the inscripions being: "I6 to 1-16 Men Out of Work to One who has Employment. We Rully Around Our Standard Bearer for Sound Money and Protection," "We are Part of 200,000 Men Who Are Out of Work in the Keystone State," "Down with the Anarchists," 'Free People, but Never Free Silver.' Good-by, Bryan, Good-by," "All Who Voted for Abraham Lincoln in 1860 are Asked to Join Us," "No Ten-cent-aday Chinese Monetary System for Us." "We Want our Idle Furnaces, Factories, and Mills Started, and not to Make the Silver Miners Richer," "Give is the Prosperous Days of the McKinley Tarim."

The party included a delegation of tin makers and a sample of their product was a large tin horn twenty feet long with half a dozen mouthpieces and borne by as many men. They carried tin canes, wore tin caps and tin plumes.

The delegation was accompanied by three bands and two drum corps. They were met at the depot by the usual scort of Canton horsemen and footmen Oscar Jackson acted as spokesman of the party and said the people of the delegation regarded Major McKinley as a neighbor and friend.

The one in a modified form with disastrous results to every American home, and we are strongly opposed to making an experiment with the other. [Applause.]

My fellow citizens, the people bases a neighbor and friend. and an imposing parade was organneighbor and friend.

These visitors," he said, "represent all classes of citizens of our country, armers, merchants, students, professional men, workmen from mines, mills, that this system benefits all classes qually and we have enjoyed a fair thare of the prosperity that attends it. Under it our country has been developed, wealth has accumulated, and the plants at New Castle, Elwood, and othr towns have brought plenty to many thousands of homes."

MAJOR MCKINLEY'S SPEECH. When Major McKinley stepped upon he chair to respond there was tumulmous applause. When order was finalv restored he said:

Mr. Jackson and My Fellow Citizens of Lawrence county: It gives me a very great pleasure to welcome the citizens of neighboring state to my city and to my nome. I note with satisfaction the mesmage which your eloquent spokesman brings to me, that the people of Pennsyl-vania have lost none of their devotion to the great principles of the Republican party and that this year they will give to the Republican national ticket an unrivalled Republican majority. [Cries of "We will do that all right."] Nor am I surprised, my fellow citizens that this is so. We have had three years of bitter experience under a policy which the Republican party has always opposed, and there has been nothing in that experience to win us to that policy, but everything to increase our devotion to the old policy of protection which stands opposed to it. [Applause.]

I was glad to meet my distinguished friend Colonel Jackson, with whom served in the congress of the United States, and to again hear his eloquent tra wide and very fine make, as good voice, as I have often heard it in the halls as any sold hitherto at $5. loctrines of the Republican party, the uccess of which involves the highest prosperity and welfare of the American people. [Cheers.]

My fellow citizens, the earnest thought of the people this year is directed to the present condition of the country, and how best to improve it. Major McKinley was followed by F. L. Polster, who spoke briefly for the visitors from Elwood City and I. A. Todd, who presented the Major with a steel-tubed cane. Then there was a season of hand-shaking, and the visitors dispersed and spent the remainder of the day in looking about the city. A revolving flower stand of handsome de sign was also presented to Mrs. Mc-Kinley by the delegation.

FARMERS WILL BE RECEIVED. Major McKinley expects to be unommonly busy this week. He will make two speeches on Monday, one to a delegation of farmers from Knox county. Ohio, and the other to a number of Potters and other citizens of East Liverpool. There have been a great many farmers in several of the delegations which have come to Canton, but there has been no delegation composed exclusively of farmers, and the one coming tomorrow will be the first of that description. The farmers have not come in large delegations for the reason that they have been very busy since the nomination of Major Mc-Kinley. Upwards of a thousand are coming on one excursion, and a good many letters have been received here farming communities indicating that the desire to see Major McKinley is widespread. Major McKinley's speech to the farmers who call on him tomorrow will be scanned with unusual interest, for it will be his first direct talk in this campaign to the class which is said to be most generally and seriously in favor Between the first of this week and he third day of November Major Mc Kinley expects to make a great many speeches probably not fewer than fifty He has already made half a hundred since his nomination and they have been collected and printed in a neat paper booklet which will be ready for distribution here tomorrow. There will be another edition of his speeches about

CHAIRMAN JONES WANTS MONEY

An Appeal to Plain People for Cash for Campaign Purposes.

HE DESIRES TO EXPLODE FALLACIES

If America Cannot Have Its Own Financial Policy, He States, We Are Indeed the Playthings of Aliens and the Prey of Usurers -- Contributors May Be Upon the Roll of Honor.

Chicago, Aug. 23.-The following appeal for campaign funds has been made in an address "to the people of the United States":

The Democratic party in the present contest is engaged in the defense of the plain people against the encroachments of the favored classes. This is purely an economic issue. In its importance, how ever, it overshadows every question which has occuped public attention since the tragle campaign of 1850. It presents the alternative at once imperative and terrible. It is imperative because delay may take from us the possibility of choice, and terrible because of the dire consequences which must follow failure.

Is the American union big enough strong enough and patriotic enough to have its own financial policy? If not, then we are the serfs of the money changers of Europe and their agents in this country, and are doomed to a vassalage more ignominious and more degrading than that against which our fathers fought a century ago. Our manhood, our freedom, the fruits of our industry, integrity of our homes, evrything that en-lightened men hold dear-all these are the playthings of allens and the prey of surrender the libertles for which their forefathers shed their blood. We believe that liberty and self-government are destined to remain the heritage of this splendid nation; that we shall not be fated to become a living lie, a nation of slaves, callous and degraded enough to wear only he mask of freedom. We have allied against us in this contest not only the financial forces of Europe, but the subsidized press and all the monopolies and trust companies here at home, who are determined, if possible, to fix forever their relentless yoke on labor for all time

To oppose them we must rely upon the patriotism and herote manliness of the plain people-the toilers who create the wealth which speculators absorb. With un-limited money in their hands, our enemies are printing and distributing misleading and untruthful statements; hired speakers and emissaries are everywhere attempting to mislead and delude the peo-

AN AWFUL EXPERIENCE.

Peter Liko Is Carried Down with One Hundred Tons of Rock Into a Cavity and Remains Several Hours.

Hazleton, Pa., Aug. 23.-While a number of miners were engaged yesterday morning in timbering up the gangway of the Colleraine colliery to prevent a second cave-in, a further superge took place and before all the men could get out the collapse came, Michael Shigo was dragged from under the falling rocks with his legs broken A car was being dragged through the gangway at the time and C. Rority happened to grab the end and while the place was closing in about him was drawn out with no worse injuries than some bad bruises. Peter Liko, a laborer, missed the car and was left there. After the disturbance subsided somewhat rescuing parties attempted to go down after Liko, but could not go all the way. Like was 100 feet below but his cries could be distinctly heard. All the afternoon rescuers attempted to reach him, but it was midnight before they got to the man and took him out alive. His escape from death is marvelous, as he was carried down with 100 tons of rock into a cavity. He is now at the hospital in a critical condition, but may recover,

WILL SELECT A DEMOCRAT.

Chairman Bynum Says a Candidate Will Be Nominated at Indianapolis. Indianapolis, Aug. 23.-Chairman Bynum, of the national Democratic committee, yesterday said: "Any rumor to the effect that Mr Cleveland has written to me or has in any way indicated any indisposition toward the nomination of a ticket is utterly without foundation. Further, this convention will, without manner of doubt, nominate a Democratic candidate for president and vice president upon a Democratic platform."

SOUND MONEY DEMOCRATS.

New York Delegation Will Be Permitted to Name the Chairman. Indianarolis, Ind., Aug. 23 -Sound money Democrats from throughout the country who drop into headquarters of the national Democracy here to look over the ground and size up the prospects for the convention, declare that the first of October. The demand for the movement is gaining strength betrade heresy in the general election next November. [Applause and cries of "We can hardly wait till the election, Major."] If there was, therefore, but one question, that of protection against free trade, we then the first of October. The demand for the movement is gaining strength between them is so great, notwithstanding the fact that they are all published in the newspapers that it has been found they launched it. It is generally under necessary to print them in book form, them is so great, notwithstanding the youd their expectations and is developfact that they are all published in the ling a force they little hoped for when newspapers that it has been found they launched it. It is generally under-tional committee that the New York delegation shall be permitted to name the temporary chairman of the convention and it is the supposition that it will select Bourke Cockran, though this can hardly be determined until the delegation arirves on the ground the next day after the members are

For permanent chairman there has been much talk of Senator Vilas, of Wisconsin, but during the last few days Vitas has loomed up in large proportions as a possibility for the presidential nomination, and if this seems probable when the convention meets the permanent chairman will probably be taken from the South, and there is much talk of Senator Caffery, of Louislana, and ex-Governor Jones, of Alabama for the position. The corres pondence of the executive committee indicating a large attendance upon the convention is borne out by the hotel engagements that have been pouring in since Friday night in a manner that at first tickled the Bonifaces and now

GORDON REW ALIVE.

The Cornell Student Who Disappeared in 1894 Will Return in the Near Future.

Buffalo, Aug. 23.-Frederick Gordon Rew, the Cornell student who disappeared on October 2, 1894, and was supposed to have met with foul play, has been heard from. His father, E. B. Rew, of this city, received a letter from him yesterday dated in India, stating that he was in good health and bound for home. His reason for leaving college was that he found that his knowledge of French and German was limited and was confident he would be unable to keep up with his class, and rather than fail, he believed it would be better to go among the people and learn the language.
One afternoon while at the lower end of Cayuga lake, and out for a walk there came over him a desire to leave that was irresistible, and discouraged and tired, he followed this resistless force and left the country. After leaving Cornell he went to New York, engaging passage on a cattle ship and working his way to Bordeaux, France. At this place he secured employment with an electric firm that was about to erect an electric plant in Central America. He sailed from Honduras in the early part of 1895, visiting Jamaica, Martinique and Cuba, and then returned to France, where he contracted to look after the electric machinery of a tramp trading ship bound for the East Indies. His knowledge of mathematics, physics and Latin has kept him employed and enabled him to see much of the world.

The knowledge of his son's safety has brought great joy to the family of Mr. Rew. Almost from the very first Mr. Rew firmly believed that his son was dead. He said that he was certain the young man had been murdered and pointed to the finding of his watch to substantiate his theory. He declared that he had other evidence, but what it was he refused to divulge. Mrs. Rew was equally certain of her son's fate. On the night before he went away she had a dream that he had been killed. This she took as a presentiment. The shock of learning from his own son that he was still alive was almost too much for them, and neither the father or mother is inclined to speak on the subject of his peculiar actions or to express an opinion regarding his real motives for leaving Cornell and home.

PLATT IN CONTROL. The Anti-Organization Gets Into

Camp Again. Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 23.—The guber natorial situation is practically un changed, that is so far as the prob-able action of the 758 delegates to the Republican state convention is concerned. Everything depends absolutely upon the decision of Thomas C. Platt. The question of Mr. Platt's nomina tion was discussed with a renewed vigor today, and was the all absorbing topic, Mr. Platt, however, was firm and said that no friend of his would further agitate the matter. The anti-organization men have been familiar with this attitude of Mr. Platt, and it was to the surprise of everyone that they today joined the Plattites in taking up Mr. Platt as a candidate.

CYCLONE AT EFFINGHAM.

Effingham, Ills., Aug. 23.-The Intense heat yesterday ended with a cyclone at 5.30 o'clock last evening. The storm came up with unprecedented rapidity, at 5 o'clock there being no appearance of a storm. The path of the cyclone was in the south part of the city and was only a few hundred feet in width, but where it dipped down is scattered desolation and ruin. The new Methodist church, the power house of the electric house plant, Austin college, a furniture factory and a canning factory were in the way. The tower of the church was demolished, the damage to the building being large. The roofs and tops of the buildings of the electric light house, the college and the two factories were arried away. Streets were blockaded with shade trees and electric light and telephone poles that were torn up and scattered. The damage will foot up $15,000 to $20,
