Rochester's loss of a Sunday game to Syracuse and their inaility to do better than split even in the Scranton series makes the Blackbirds less a factor in the race. With Providence to wind up the season against Scranton and Wilkes-Barre it is hard to see how the Grays can miss the pennant, while Toronto has a good chance to attain sec-

THEY BROKE EVEN.

Scranton and Rochester Divide Honors in Two Pitchers' Battles--- Each a Close Score.

Rochester bagged one and Scranton the other of two pitchers' battles, Saturday, though, on the hitting and pitching we should have captured both. Two bases on balls and an error by Massey made possible all of the three runs scored by Rochester in the first inning of the first game which they

About 1,500 persons were in the audience which was kept in a fever-heat of excitement during the hour and thirty minutes occupied in playing the first game and the hour and thirty-five minutes of the second. The outcome of each was uncertain from the start to the end. Umpire Tim Keefe, as in the preceding game, performed his work very satisfactorily to the audience and the players. There was no deking" by the latter, and that, cer tainly, is a good criterion. Peter Eagan, Maguire and Mulvey were the fielding heroes of the day. Eagan's pick-up and throw to the plate prevented Rochester from tieing the score in the second contest. The steady work of Berger had much to do with

Gillon's and Lovett's good pitching. FIRST GAME.

All the scoring was done in the first inning. Rochester was first at bat, gave Bottenus and Johnson walks to first and Daly hit a grounder to Keister which was fielded successfully but which Massey muffed. The play filled the bases. Lynch forced Bottenus at the plate. Moss assisted Beard out at first and Johnson came home. Reard's out would have retired the side but for the error already made by Massey. Daly and Lynch scored on Dooley's single and Mulvey was thrown out at first. O'Brien's triple and Meaney's single in the last of the first developed Scranton's only run. Score: SCRANTON.

Ralph Gregory, of the Green Ridge Wheelmen, Scranton, was the star of the day. He won the one-mile open. two-mile handicap, and was second in the one-half-mile open, which event was won by John B. Corser. The result of the mile open was a decided victory for Scranton, the three Green Ridge Wheelmen riders of that city, Gregory, White and Keller, winning all three prizes in the order named. Keller also captured a diamond ring for finishing third in the two-mile handicap.

In the evening the Green Ridge Wheelmen, who came down with their racing team, were entertained by the West End Wheelmen, of this city, at their spacious club house.

THE SUMMARIES.

Following are the summaries. The track which is supposed to be a quarter-mile one, is 176 yards short of that distance, which accounts for the extremely low marks. Nevertheless, the riding was fast. Gregory's prizes were three unset diamonds to the value of $80. Keller received a dress suit case and a ring, value $25. White earned an unset diamond, value $20.

YALE'S FOOTBALL TEAM.

Summer Squad to Be Called Out Soon and Practice Will Begin.

A special to the Boston Herald from New Haven says that the management of the Yale foot ball team for the coming season will be as prompt as ever in getting the candidates out for an early drill. The plan proposed by Walter Camp, the Yale coach, of having practically no summer practice has given up, all the elevens are ordering out their candidates and Yale will not be the last to fall into line. This year,, however, the team will not practice at Traver's Island. There were a number of cases of malaria on the island last season whilet he players were summering there and the management has accepted invitations to practice at other

It is only a few days before the backs, the first of the summer squad, will be called out. They will go to Harrisburg, Pa., the home of ex-Captain Vance McCormick, '93, and will be coached by him in drop kicking and punting in general for about ten days. The main body of candidates will not report till the first week in September, when Captain Fred T. Murphy will meet them at Black Rock, in this state, and will drill on practice grounds near the no rough work will be done and it is doubtful if the team really lines up. The main discipline will be in the dropping on the ball, passing and tackling, and when the candidates appear at the Yale field about September 20 they will probably for the first time this year face an opposing eleven. The following candidates for the eleven have been ordered by Captain Murphy to train this summer. H. F. Benjmin, '98, back; C. Chawick, '97, tackle; L. Hinkey, '97, end; F. F. Squire, '99, half back; F. G. Beach, '99, back; C. M. Fincke, '97, back; M. U. Ely, '98, back; C. E. Goodman, '98, tackle; C. H. de Saulles, '99, back; J. M. Gerard, '98, back; E. B. King, '98, back; M. F. Rockwell, '98, tackle; A. C. Sherwood, '97, back; J. W. Walsh, '98, guard, and

T. Wright, '99, back, Captain Murphy has just heard adverse news in the announcement that Lang Murray, of Goshen, N. Y., will not return to college this fall, but will go into business. Murray would have been a senior in the scientific depart-ment had he returned. He has been substitute tackle and guard on the 'varsity eleven for two years, and this year, with so many veterans departed, he was reckoned as sure of a place on the regulars. Murray had two years' practice in the game before coming to Yale, having played on the Andover

KUNTZSCH-DOESCHER WANTED TO FIGHT

Separated by Friends and a Policeman Saturday Night.

BECAME VERY

Kuntzsch Hinted at Things and Doescher Wanted to Strike Him -- Down on the Base Ball Righto -- A Bit of Ancient History -- Lighter Gossip of the Diamond and Players.

Herman Doescher, the recently deposed Eastern league umpire, and George Kuntzsch, the owner-manager of the Syracuse Stars, wanted to thrash each other during the midnight hour Saturday night near the Scranton house but were prevented from exchanging blows by the interference of Patrolman Lowry and several members of the base ball party. In the group were Umpire Tim Keefe Manager Dan Shannon, of the Rochester club, Actor Tom Murphy and a few others. Doescher, since his dismissal had been very much wrought up over the affair and had been waiting to meet personally and express his opinion of several base ball men, who had complained of him to President Powers. Kuntzsch was one of these.

When the two met Doescher began in a very mild manner, but with plain words to tell the Syracuse manager what he thought of him. The umpirconcluded by saying that no club got fairer deal then did the Stars at his hands in Syracuse.

Kuntzsch replied that Doescher ought to be ashamed to say that after having given the Syracuse team the worst of it on the road, intimating that the umpire did his work according to conditions and circumstances. "You dirty, low ---," angrilly ex-claimed Doescher as he advanced toward the manager. But what would have been a pretty mix-up was prevented by Murphy, the actor, and Patrolman Lowry. The former held Doescher and the officer came between the two enraged men and compelled them to go in different directions. Doescher went into the Lackawanna depot, where he boarded a train for New York city, and the Kuntzsch party went to the St. Charles hotel.

"The m-u-d-way," as the late Mike Kelly always referred to Penn avenue in the vicinity of the St. Charles, was wrapped in a halo of base ball talk, base ball players, base ball managers, base ball diamonds and base ball followers Saturday night. The crowd included all that composes and goes with the Rochester, Scranton and Syracuse clubs, The latter aggregation reached here or an early evening train from Wilkes-Barre, and left with Shannon and his Blackbirds in a special Pullman sleep-ing car, attached to the 2.40 a. m. train, for Syracuse, where they played a Sunday game yesterday.

Once before the same two clubs left here in a special sleeper but under pecultar circumstances. Kuntzsch made his Syracuse players go early to the car and hypnotized all the lower births. leaving the hot and unhandy upper ones for Shannon and his Rochester chargers. To say that Daniel was angry when he discovered the condition of things is expressing it mildly He not only kicked and kicked vigor ously, but said he be blankety-blanked if he'd allow his club to keep its Sunday engagement unless Herr George tumbled his motley crew out of their couches and made them divvy up. The Blackbirds had been given the tip and when the Stars rolled out of their blankets, proceeded to get the best end of the division. When it was all over Daniel was slumbering peacefully in a lower birth while Kuntzsch, who sat en dishabifle and with his moccassins dangling from the birth over and not under Daniel, was chewing with his men concerning the great American pork. History doesn't tell which club got he worst of the last Saturday night's division, but if Kuntzsch was forced to lay his head in a second-story bunk it is awful to think of what happened before the car reached Syra-

The New Football Rules.

Spalding's official foot ball guide for 86, edited by Walter Camp, the noted authority on the game, and published by the American Sports Publishing company, forms the August number of Spalding's Athletic library. It contains the foot ball rules as recommended to the University Athletic club by the rules committee. omposed of J. H. Sears, Harvard: Alexander Moffat, Princeton; John C. Bell, University of Pennsylvania; L. M. Dennis, Cornell; P. J. Dashiell, Annapolis, and Walter Camp, Ylae, These rules were adopted in June for the season of % by the University Athletic club and Harvard Princeton, University of Pennsylvania Cornell and Yale, and will form the play ing rules for every college school and athletic team in the country. Among the leading articles embodied in the Guide are chapters for beginners by Walter Camp, as well as many letters from prominent ministers, physicians and ex players of note testifying to the good re-suits of foot ball in after life.
