LEAVES HOME SUDDENLY.

Thomas Nealon Starts Out to Seek His Fortune in a Mysterious Way. Thomas, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Nealon, of South Main street, left the city on Wednesday last week very quietly. Thursday his father received a postal card which was post-marked Stoughton, Mass., and the boy had obtained a good position there. Mr. Nealon went to Stoughton, and making inquiries was told that a strange boy had been seen about the station but nothing further could be learned. Some time before leaving the boy had told some of his companions that he intended going to New York state to pick hogs; to others he said he was going to Niagara Falls. His parents cannot understand why he should leave home in this manner. A letter has been received later by a friend of the boy dated Cooperstown, N. Y., in which the boy stated that he had obtained a position in a hotel and intended remaining there. This, however, is only intended to mislead those who are in search of him. His parents will make effort to find the boy and induce him to return home.

LAST SAD RITES.

Funeral of Mrs. Theodore Eimer is Largely Attended. The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Eimer took place Friday afternoon. After a short service at the house by Rev. Charles Lee the remains were taken to Archbold where services were conducted in the German Lutheran church in that place by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Loer.

The attendance was large and the many handsome floral offerings sent by the friends showed the esteem in which the deceased was held. The more prominent were a design representing "gates ajar," from the husband, and a handsome pillow from the sisters of the deceased. The floral bearers were James Nicholson, of Jersey; William Hadden and William Goodwin. The pall bearers were John E. Bone, Thomas Lewiston, Frank E. Tappen, George Kroff, Henry Steins and Jacob Oppenheimer.

A PLEASANT EVENING.

First of the Cross Country Club Societies is Given at Burke's Hall. Friday evening the first of the series of the Cross Country Club societies was given in Burke's hall. About twenty couples of young people enjoyed dancing to music furnished by Professor Firth. A reception room had been arranged in one corner of the hall and it looked very cosy and attractive. It was divided from the rest of the hall by screens and the interior was beautified by rugs, lamps, potted plants and easy chairs. Dancing was kept up till one o'clock.

Those present from out of town were: The Misses Hill, of Scranton; Tuttle, of Centre Falls, N. Y.; McKay, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Charlotte and Louise, Pendleton, of Stonington, Conn.; Stella Branch, Port Jervis; and Messrs. R. P. Van Kenmen, of Honesdale, and Thomas Ridgway, of Washington, D. C.

Among those registered at the Montrose house are: E. L. Kilmer, S. Kilmer, Binghamton; J. V. Raymond, N. G. Eshon, E. R. Cantwell, Hon. Linnus W. Moore and E. E. Moore, New Milford.

RALLY AT FOREST CITY.

E. Frank Carson, of Philadelphia, Delivers an Eloquent Address in the Interest of Sound Money.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Forest City, Pa., Aug. 23. Friday evening a most interesting demonstration in behalf of protection and sound money was held in Davis' opera house at this place. E. Frank Carson, esq., of Philadelphia, was the speaker of the evening. He arrived at the Ontario and Western station in this city yesterday at 4.20 p. m. The following Republicans formed his escort to the Davis house: T. C. Manger, Benjamin Maxey, P. J. Osgood, W. J. Maxey. It was intended that the addresses should be made from the Davis house porch but in accordance with the speakers' desire arrangements were made for holding the meeting in the Opera house.

The Vandling band furnished music for the occasion. At 8.20 P. J. Osgood called the meeting to order and announced that W. J. Maxey would act as chairman. The following were invited to take seats on the platform: Benjamin Maxey, William Bryden, William Anderson, John R. Hudd, George Maxey, Jr., C. E. Taylor, T. C. Manger, A. L. Morgan, E. F. Ames.

In an appropriate address W. J. Maxey then invited the speakers to the platform. The speaker stated in opening that he gave his consent to the state committee to enter their service during the campaign because he was impressed with a sense of public duty, and with the fact that national honor, credit, prosperity and the perpetuity of our institutions were at stake. He continued by discussing the platform of the Democratic party on the subject of finance, and gave a review of the history of the coinage of the United States. In discussing the so-called "crime of '73" he showed how those who drew the act and took part in the debate secured its passage and what they said and did, quoting especially Secretary Boutwell, and showing that it simply enacted to written law the unwritten law of forty years. He also quoted Congressmen Kelly and Hooper at different times during the discussion, the former being chairman of committee on coinage, weights and measures. Secretaries Manning and Windom, of the treasury, were also quoted. The quotations of Senators Sumner and Stewart, of Nevada, now prominent silverites, was added, proving that these gentlemen were among the most prominent of the gold standard advocates of '73. The speaker thus clearly demonstrated that it was not in '73 that silver was demonetized, but, instead, in the administration of Democratic Pierce and for the good purpose of keeping silver in the country, the same reason that induced Jefferson in 1806 to discontinue the coinage of silver dollars. In fact silver by its increased output demonetized itself.

The discussion then proceeded to the meaning of 16 to 1, showing that the silverites of today wish to establish now the same ratio as existed commercially in 1841, while the commercial ratio of today is 31 to 1. The injurious effects of this ratio was pointed out upon those who had savings in banks.

loan associations, etc., were then presented. The speaker declared that free coinage at 16 to 1 meant silver monometallism; that the present Democratic platform meant regulation, revolution and ruin to our institutions. He then showed that the present unfortunate conditions were due not so much to unwise silver legislation as to unwise legislation on tariff; that the Wilson bill, repealing the McKinley bill, brought ruin to manufacturers and employees and a deficit to the national treasury, not a surplus as under the McKinley tariff.

The government by the Republicans was then contrasted to that of the Democrats, showing that during the twenty-eight years of the former's rule, 1865 to 1893, there never existed a deficit and that three billions of dollars of war debt were paid, while during the three and one-half years of Democratic rule the national debt was increased $32,000,000, or a monthly deficit of $13,000,000 incurred. He then declared Baine's estimate of the Republican platform of '84 to be applicable to the Republican platform of '96, "peace the whole world," "commercial expansion of the United States," "protection to American Industries," "protection to every citizen, native or naturalized."

Mr. Carson closed with an appeal to all not to be citizens of a section but citizens of the whole country, to work together for common advancement.

An hour was consumed in the delivery of the address. Mr. Carson paid splendid tributes to those Republican fathers, Lincoln and Garfield, and eloquently denounced the present administration for allowing an ex-rebel general to haul down the American flag at Honolulu. Aside from the above the address was an able presentation of indisputable facts, followed by correct conclusions. It was an address such as is desired by the voters in this campaign. A few left the hall during the speech, thereby demonstrating they did not wish to be honestly shown the error of their ways. "Though you bray a little, yet will not his foolishness depart from him."

MRS. GOOLD'S GRATITUDE HOW SHE WAS RESTORED TO HEALTH.

Condition Before and After the Birth of Her Child.

From every city, town and hamlet on this vast continent, come letters from suffering women; from those whose physicians have been unable to assist them, or from that numberless class whose confidence in Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and the curative properties of her Vegetable Compound is unbounded. Every letter received from women is recorded, and hundreds of volumes of cases treated aid in furnishing practical information for the women of to-day. No letters are published without the request of the writer. The strictest confidence is observed. The following letter represents thousands: "I always enjoyed good health until six months before the birth of my babe. Then I was very weak; my back ached all the time. My physicians said I would be ill right after the birth of the child, but I was not, although at that time I had the best of care. The pains in my back were almost unbearable. I had leucorrhoea in its worst form; menstruations were painful. "Any work or care would entirely unnerve me. When my babe was 11 months old, friends persuaded me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I had taken one bottle I felt the effects. My back did not ache so badly, and I felt stronger. After taking four bottles I felt well. My ambition returned, menstruations were painless, leucorrhoea entirely cured, and I could take care of my babe and do my housework. I shall always recommend your Vegetable Compound for all women, especially for young mothers."--Mrs. H. L. GOOLD, Oregon, Wis.

If Mrs. Goold had been well before the birth of her child, subsequent suffering would have been avoided. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should always be taken before and after birth, in order that the system may withstand the shock.

Which would cost you elsewhere from $25 to $30. If these prices are above your means, we will make you a suit for $15 that will surprise you.
