WEST MOUNTAIN OUTRAGE.

No Evidence to Connect It with Mawson, Who Was Released.

Edward Mawson, of Scranton street, who was arrested Saturday night on suspicion of having had something to do with the case of the abandoned infant found by berry pickers on the West Mountain, was given a hearing last night by Alderman Howe, and was discharged.

Recently Mrs. Cadden, a relative of Mawson, gave birth to a child that died soon afterward of convulsions. Mawson took the dead infant to Princeton without a burial permit and interred it in a cemetery there. Dr. Beckwith, of the West Side, who attended the woman, testified at the hearing that he was told the infant had died; and Detective Steve Joyce, who went to Princeton, found out that the child was buried by Mawson. Under these circumstances, it could not be possible that the infant found on the West Mountain was the one which Mawson was concerned about.

He feels very keenly his arrest on what he claims is flimsy foundation, and spoke of engaging an attorney to bring suit for false imprisonment and defamation of character.

CLEANING-UP NIGHT

IN SELECT COUNCIL

A Big Grist of Measures Was Passed Upon.

AN ATTEMPT AT RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Lansing Wanted to Have the New Assessment Resolution Exhausted and Passed, but Could Get No Second—Legislation Affecting Every Part of the City.

The recent political interruptions caused a large amount of business to accumulate in select council and in order to clear it up a special meeting was held last night. Every measure that was in shape for consideration was brought up and disposed of as a consequence, legislation affecting every section of the city was enacted. In the absence of Colonel Sanderson, who is attending the Williamsport convention, Mr. Manley presided.

On third reading the following ordinance passed: Providing for a lateral sewer on Wheeler avenue; providing for laying flag stone sidewalks and paved gutters on Tenth street, between Scranton and Luzerne streets, also on Quincy avenue, between Pine and Gibson streets; providing for ten electric lights in the Twentieth ward, one at the corner of Pittston avenue and Cherry street.

PASSED TWO READINGS.

The following ordinances passed first and second readings: Providing for lateral sewers on Columbia avenue and Kellum court; electric lights at the intersection of Adams avenue and Ash street, Capouse avenue and Woodlawn boulevard, Raymond court and Mulberry street, Keiser avenue and George street, one on the Linden street bridge, and three on the Spruce street bridge; also providing for grading Prescott avenue and laying flagstone sidewalks and paved gutters on Railroad avenue in the Eighteenth ward.

A resolution was introduced for an electric light on the corner of Fourteenth street and Elm street, and an ordinance establishing the grade of Beech street in the Eleventh ward.

Two paving contracts were reported from committee. Dunn Bros. got the Mahon court asphalt, their price being $2.25 per square yard. Nichols & Co. whose bid of $1.25 is the lowest, received in many years for stone block paving, received the contract for paving West Lackawanna avenue between Ninth street and Main avenue.

Mr. Lansing move a reconsideration of the resolution approving of the proposed new city assessment, which was killed at the last meeting, but he failed to get a second to his motion. Mr. McCann, Mr. Fellows, Mr. Manley and Mr. Kearney, each in turn offered himself as a seconder, but Mr. Chittenden raised the point of order that none of them had voted in the affirmative and they could not be accepted.

WEST SIDE SEWERS.

An ordinance providing for the construction of a sewer system on Robinson street, Longman place, Chestnut street, and Price street, and an ordinance providing for the laying of flagstone sidewalks and paved gutters on Bromley avenue and Lafayette street, were favorably reported from their respective committees.

THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTION OFFERED BY

Mr. Dunn was unanimously adopted: Whereas: An effort is being made by the firemen of the city to have the convention of the State Firemen's Association of 1897 held here, and whereas, we deem such action commendable, therefore, be it resolved by the select council of the city of Scranton, the common council concurring, that we heartily approve of the efforts of our firemen to bring about the holding of said convention in this city and we assure them that in the event of said convention being held here we will extend to the members such courtesy as will meet with their approval and we feel that we can safely say the visitors will have a good time.

Mr. Wagner introduced a resolution instructing the city engineer to give grade on Mahon court, between Olive and Pine streets, where the abutting property holders intend to lay a cobblestone pavement. Council, however, feared future complications if the ordinance was allowed to give them a grade, which could not be official inasmuch as it was not to be established by ordinance, and it was consequently laid on the table.

CEMENT VS. ASPHALT.

The ordinance directing the street commissioner to cover cement sidewalks with asphalt was killed on third reading by a vote of five to five. The ordinance providing for the opening of Price street was called up but there being no available appropriation, it was laid over for the time being.

An ordinance appropriating $400 for the repair of the road roller was killed by a tie vote. Mr. McCann started the kick against the measure, complaining that the road roller is too expensive. The ordinance transferring to the judgments and incidentals found $11,800, the revenue from liquor licenses in excess of the controller's estimate was called up on third reading, but after some discussion was laid over, in order to give the councilmen a chance to study it. The money is needed for current expenses and it is feared that if it is placed in this fund it will be seized upon by some of the creditors from the city over about $40,000 secured in damage suits.

A DISGRACEFUL SCENE.

Women Stone a Shameless Couple on the South Side.

Mary Pugh, a familiar figure in police circles, with a man who could not be identified, were on the hill back of Crown avenue yesterday morning drinking and crouching in a most shameful manner. Women of the neighborhood stoned the shameless pair and drove the man away. The woman was too drunk or too stubborn to move and stood the attack of stones until the arrival of the patrol wagon, which carried her to jail.

She was committed for thirty days by Alderman Wright.

CONTESTED ELECTION HEARING.

A hearing in the Dickinson City contested election cases took place in O'Brien & Kelly's office yesterday before Commissioners Watkins and Mulholland. Attorney M. J. McAndrew took stenographic notes of the testimony. All the persons sworn were called on the part of the respondents.

RIDING 2,000 MILES.

Two Plucky Bicycle Riders, Traveling on a Wager, Pass Through This City.

S. E. Fairman and J. C. James, members of the Bay Side Athletic Club, of San Francisco, Cal., arrived in Scranton last evening on a novel trip. They left home last March to win a wager of $1,000.

The money was offered by T. Clark Polk, a western millionaire and honorary member of the club, provided they would travel 2,000 miles in one year and not to beg, borrow or steal, but to earn all their expenses while on the trip which they do by writing cards and giving elocution recitals. The young men have thus far been enabled to follow their itinerary and keep ahead of their schedule.

The trip was brought about in this way: Early in March there was a smoker being held in the club and there were a number who doubted that the trip said to have been made by the famous Paul Jones was legitimate. A number scoffed at the genuineness of the trip and among these was Mr. Polk, who voluntarily offered the $1,000 to any members then in the club who could make such a trip. The proposition was accepted by the two young men.

MUST FOLLOW RULES.

The articles of agreement expressly stipulate that the young men are to follow the rules laid down or otherwise forfeit the purse in which event the money will be paid by Mr. Polk into the treasury of the club. As stated above they must not beg, borrow or steal, but are to pay all their expenses. It was also obligatory upon them to mail a letter to the secretary of the club from each town laid for them to visit with the signature of some responsible citizen attached.

So far the riders have covered about 8,600 miles and are ahead of their trying schedule. Their route is as follows: From San Francisco through Los Angeles, San Diego, Yuma, Phoenix, Tucson, El Paso, Juarez, Chihuahua, City of Mexico, Larado, San Antonio, Houston, Galveston, New Orleans, Mobile, Montgomery, Macon, Savannah, Augusta, Atlanta, Chattanooga, Knoxville, Lexington, Cincinnati, Columbus, Pittsburgh, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Toronto, Montreal, St. Johns, N. B. The West India Islands, Jamaica, Kingston, Barbadoes and Port of Spain, Trinidad, back to New York, Detroit, Chicago, Omaha, Des Moines, Kansas City, Denver, Leadville, Salt Lake City, Carson City, Sacramento, and San Francisco.

MANY HANDSHIPS.

The young men report that they have been treated with every courtesy while in their trip but underwent a great many hardships while crossing the great American Desert and in Mexico.
