G. B. PORTER DEAD.

A Well Known Veteran of the War Passes Away.

After months of suffering George B. Porter passed quietly away at midnight on Monday. Last May Mr. Porter fell from an engine while engaged in his duties as a brakeman in the employ of the Delaware and Hudson company. Since that unfortunate he has been confined to his home though he seemed to improve for a time. About three weeks ago he suddenly became worse and died rapidly.

He was born in England 54 years ago. For twenty-one years he was employed as foreman of the coal pockets near this city. He was a member of William H. Davies Post, 187, Grand Army of the Republic, and during the war served over four years with Company 3, Sixth Pennsylvania reserves. He received an honorable discharge in 1865 having served all through the war.

As a well-known citizen he is mourned by many friends. His widow and one son, aged 14 years, mourn their great loss. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from Trinity church.

DULL TIMES. In a store are expensive--expensive to the store-keeper, expensive to his customers. We've skipped that sort of expense--if we make it possible to supply your wants. We do some of the busy months' work in the months that used to be counted dull--and this is how we do it: A Disheartened Chair Maker closed down his factory--his warehouse full--order book blank. We bought five hundred Rockers--but we cannot duplicate the lot.

BANQUET LAMPS. A hundred Banquet Lamps that were $4.50, $5, $6 and $7, without shade or globe, are those same prices today, with shade or globe. Choice of silk or empire shade or decorated globe. It means the saving of $2 to $3. One hundred can share the bargain.

A WORD. We've been making improvements, adding more space to our store--have not had a rebuilding sale, either, but will tell you of our new department later.
