A Well-known Couple United Yesterday Afternoon at St. Rose.

Yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, Miss Mary Smith, of 67 Hospital street, and Michael J. Kelly, of Vandling, were united in marriage at St. Rose church, Rev. Father Griffin performing the ceremony.

The bride was attired in white with lace to match. The gowns were trimmed with silk and chiffon. Miss Marie Duffy, who attended the bride, was similarly dressed. James Goring acted as best man.

The couple drove to Olyphant after the ceremony and on their return were presented a reception at the home of the bride's brother, P. J. Smith, on Hospital street. The newly married pair will at once begin housekeeping in a handsome home in Vandling.

LAIN AT REST.

The Remains of G. B. Porter Placed in the Tomb.

The funeral of George B. Porter, who died at his home on Buckner street Monday, occurred yesterday afternoon. The funeral services were very impressive and were conducted by Rev. E. J. Isidore, of Trinity church. The funeral cortege was very large this morning showing the esteem in which the deceased was held. The cortege consisted of the following: William H. Davis, John No. 157, Grand Army of the Republic, the Woman's Relief corps and the firing squad of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, were in attendance.

MURRAY SENT TO JAIL.

Broke Into Brennan & McNulty's Restaurant.

Joseph Murray, who was arrested for breaking into Brennan & McNulty's restaurant on South Main street, has been sent to the county jail on default of bail. During the hearing before Alderman Jones, Murray unwillingly let out that there were others in the affair besides himself.

He then undertook to shield them by making believe he was stupid and had not understood the question asked. This did not go with the alderman, however, and so Murray was sent down.

FACTORYVILLE.

When the poor directors searched the clothes on the tramp that was taken on the railroad just above town last Tuesday morning, they found sewed up in a false pocket inside of the vest twenty-seven dollars in bank notes, all of which upon being asked just before he died if he had any money, he emphatically said "No."

Our town has been well patronized for the past week with the many candidates asking for the nomination for the county offices that will be changed the coming year. Of course they are all sure of making the nomination, and we hope they all (Republicans) will.

Mrs. J. T. Farnsey, of Scranton, is spending a few days with her niece, Mrs. A. B. Brown.

Joe Wilson took in the Railroad excursion to Pleasant Beach last Saturday.

In the north end of town C. Winton Wrigley has been adding much to the looks and improvements of his property by laying a flag stone walk along Main street. It is one of the finest walks in town. There is now a continuous flag stone walk from the top of the old depot hill, with the exception of in front of the old depot cemetery. A few feet of bad walk at Mr. Prayton's and the northern approach to the iron bridge. The last two named places are in a bad condition, and are dangerous places for people to travel over after dark.

The cemetery's immediate action on such places would be appreciated by the people that have to travel over such bad places in the sidewalks, and the taxpayers, as the borough is liable to have to pay some one a large bill of damages.

Never before can we remember when apples were so plentiful in this section that they could not be sold or given away. Hundreds of bushels are rotting on the ground in this town alone.

L. D. Kemmerer, who was overcome with the heat some two weeks ago, we are sorry to say, suffered a relapse last Thursday.

Gardner's bus line to Lake Winola is being run to its full capacity these days, carrying some days as high as one hundred passengers each day.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Gardner spent last week camping at Windfall lake. How about the fish?

Stanley Simmel returned last Saturday evening from his bicycle tour to Niagara Falls. He says he enjoyed the trip all right, but he left a lot of pounds of his good flesh along the road between the river and the falls. He made the run, 204 miles, in thirty-six hours, as hot as it was.

George Trane and family returned to their winter home in Portville yesterday, after spending the summer here.

What's the matter with our cemeteries and the street lamps? It is a shame that our pretty little town has to be wrapped in total darkness every night, and it certainly is no advertisement for our town. Let us have light.

The soldiers' reunion in Weigley's grove, Lake Carey, commenced yesterday and will last three days.

Charles Rockwell, Arthur Wadsworth, Mr. and Mrs. George N. Doyle, and Arthur Burrows were visitors to this town yesterday.

The bride and her attendant, Miss Mary Gordon, wore newly designed gowns and carried bouquets. The groom was waited upon by Michael Quinn, a brother of the bride. After the ceremony a reception was tendered the bride and groom at the home of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan will begin housekeeping at once.

The death of Robert, the bright and interesting 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Bell, of South Main street, occurred yesterday afternoon after a few days' illness of diphtheria. Funeral services will be held at the home of the deceased on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Healey are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter. Mrs. Robert Healey has returned home after a few months' visit with friends in Waton.

In a store as expensive—expensive to the store-keeper, expensive to his customers. We've skipped that sort of expense—if we make it possible to supply your wants. We do some of the busy months' work in the months that used to be counted dull—and this is how we do it:

A hundred Banquet Lamps that were $4.50, $5, $6 and $7, without shade or globe, are those same prices today, with shade or globe. Choice of silk or empire shade or decorated globe. It means the saving of $2 to $3. One hundred can share the bargain.
