GLAZIER IN TROUBLE.

Is Defendant in Two Cases -- Assault and Battery and Trespass.

Adam Glazier, of Cottage street, is in trouble. In fact he has more trouble than he can possibly care for as he is defendant in two cases. The principal cause of the trouble is a horse which is owned by Glazier and which is inclined to be rather frisky. On last Saturday the horse ran through Mark Hart's fence on Cottage street and did considerable damage. Mr. Hart promptly ejected the animal from his grounds and it set off at a good pace.

Just after turning down Pike street, Bernard Killen and James Burke appeared on the scene, mounted on their bleyeles. A moment later Glazier also appeared in pursuit of his horse which was going down the road in front of the blevele riders. Glazier seeing the wheels concinded that they were the the animal's fright and so overtaking Killeen he knocked him off his bicycle and did some damage to it. Thus it is that Glazier finds himself in trouble.

Mr. Hart has had a warrant issued for damage and trespass and Killeen has also a warrant issued against Glazier for assault and battery and malicious mischief.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

A Little Boy Breaks Both of His Foreams.

A most painful accident occurred to John, the little son of Z. C. Bell, of the "Falls." The little fellow was playing Wednesd. near the house and at the time was climbing a tree. When near the top he saddenty slipped and fell headlong to the earth. In his fall he put his arms out before him so that he struck upon his our-stretched bands;

When he was picked up it was seen that he had sustained fractured bones as they protended nearly through the flesh. Dr. Nijes was summoned and ne found that four bones were broken. They were reduced and the little follow is now somewhat easier.

Opera Season Opens.

A first class production will be seen tonight at the opening of the Grand opera house. Manager Byrne has secured for the opening attraction, Chas. E. Blany's force comedy, "A Baggage Check." The play is not new in this city but there is no doubt that a large adlence will be present as the piece has always been well received. The cast is headed by Grepenin and Evans, who are artists in their line,

Loftus Released.

Alderman Atkinson has discharged Thomas Loftus, who was arrested charged with stealing lifty dollars from a boarding house on Gordon avenue. The prosecution had no witnesses at the hearing and as he could not furnish any evidence convicting Loftus the case was dismissed.
