AWFUL CARNAGE AT CONSTANTINOPLE

Fully Two Thousand People Killed During the Recent Riots.

MISSION OF THE BATTLE SHIP

State Officials Will Not Say Whether the Bancroft Has Permission to Pass the Dardanelles...

Constantinople, Aug. 29.—The latest estimate of the number of persons killed during the rioting on Wednesday is 2,000.

The scenes in the harbor are of the liveliest description. Hundreds of persons are flocking to the water front and taking refuge on board foreign ships.

The Italian ambassador, who witnessed the killing of a number of Armenians by Turks, appealed to the officer of a passing patrol to interfere on behalf of the Armenians.

CRUISE OF THE BANCROFT.

Washington, Aug. 29.—The navy department has selected most of the officers for the Turkish cruise of the Bancroft...

It was practically decided this morning that the vessel would have to be fitted for sea at the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

The Bancroft now has three large masts, with considerable sail power, and, if possible, they will be taken out of her while she is in the dock...

It is likely she will go by way of Halifax, the Azores, and Gibraltar, involving a stretch of not more than 2,000 miles in any single voyage.

At the navy department a technical denial was promulgated to the extent of declaring that the mission of the Bancroft was devoid of sensational or offensive features.

LI AT GRANT'S TOMB.

The Chinese Ambassador Pays His Respects to the Memory of the Great General at Riverside.

New York, Aug. 30.—Li Hung Chang, despite the fact that he attended a dinner given in his honor Saturday night by the ex-ministers to China...

The great man breakfasted at 7:30 o'clock, after which he retired to his sitting room. At 10 o'clock a delegation of thirty Chinese merchants...

The hour for Li Hung's visit to Grant's tomb was 3 o'clock. Before that time the police stopped traffic and no body was admitted to the cemetery.

Colonel Frederick B. Grant accompanied by his son, Ulysses Grant, and his brother, General Horatio Porter...

A significant paragraph in Major Hoff's report is the following: "While studying the organization of the medical department to meet the current requirements of the division under present peace conditions, it is not in accordance with the recognized scheme of modern battle field sanitation, is not equal to the demands of war service and is, therefore, to a limited degree only, the model upon which the sanitary department must be organized."

A three-battalion organization for all infantry regiments. The formation of a cavalry squadron and an artillery battalion having no connection with the brigade organization.

The enlistment of privates be limited to not more than two terms of three years each. That the re-enlistment of privates be limited to two terms, and have worn chevrons for a year prior to the expiration of service.

That suitable field irons and camp irons for open air cooking be furnished each organization. That skirmish fence targets be secured and in all military team matches in target firing, firing at these targets be made a special feature.

FUNERAL FOR A DOG.

Dr. Amelia V. Fientje Pays Final Honors to a Sky Terrier.

Baltimore, Aug. 30.—Dr. Amelia V. Fientje lost her Sky's terrier Roy on Thursday, and as she was very much attached to the dog she decided that it should have a funeral.

After remaining standing for twenty minutes alongside of the casket Li uttered several words in Chinese and made a profound bow.

The entire party then entered carriages and were driven to the residence of Colonel Grant. At the door he was met by U. S. Grant, son of the late general.

Then the viceroys presented Mrs. Grant with several pieces of valuable jewelry, including a rare Chinese vase and a number of chests of tea.

REPORTS REGARDING NATIONAL GUARD

Observations by Regular Army Officers Who Were at Lewistown.

VARIOUS SUGGESTIONS ARE MADE An Additional Troop of Cavalry Is Needed—The Medical Department Not Equal to the Demands of War Service—A Signal Detachment of Skilled Bicyclists and Electricians Recommended.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 30.—Orders just issued from National Guard headquarters contain reports of the regular army officers who were present and took notes of the division encampment at Lewistown in July.

"It would seem advisable to have one additional troop of cavalry added to the guard. This would give that arm a permanent organization (squadron) with a complete equipment and equipment could be used either as a unit or by troop as occasion might demand.

"In conclusion, I wish to say, that in my opinion the National Guard of Pennsylvania is a body of well-disciplined and efficient soldiers. Active service would, of course, rub off some awkwardness and peculiarities that must always exist in men unaccustomed to daily military life.

"Major John Van R. Huff, surgeon of the regular service, gave much attention to the medical department. He recommends many things, and recommends that all the medical officers and their appointments in the hospital corps be organized into a sanitary department, with a field marshal and ambulance.

Major John Van R. Huff, surgeon of the regular service, gave much attention to the medical department. He recommends many things, and recommends that all the medical officers and their appointments in the hospital corps be organized into a sanitary department, with a field marshal and ambulance.

"Captain James A. Leyden, of the Fourth infantry, says so far as he had opportunity to observe there was no hesitating obedience to orders on the part of the enlisted men. He recommends for purely military considerations:

"The enlistment of privates be limited to not more than two terms of three years each. That the re-enlistment of privates be limited to two terms, and have worn chevrons for a year prior to the expiration of service.

"That suitable field irons and camp irons for open air cooking be furnished each organization. That skirmish fence targets be secured and in all military team matches in target firing, firing at these targets be made a special feature.

HARRISON'S PATRIOTIC EPIGRAMS.

A party that cannot be split is a public menace. The Republican party fronts the destructionists and trumpets its defiance to the enemies of sound money.

The defense of the Constitution and of the integrity of the Supreme Court of the United States and of the President's power and duty to enforce all the laws of the United States, without awaiting the call or consent of the Governor of any State, is an important and living issue in this campaign.

When it becomes a rule that violence carries its end we have anarchy, a condition as destructive to honest labor and its rewards as death is to the tissue of the human body.

The courts are the defense of the weak. The rich and powerful have other resources, but the poor have none. The high-minded, independent judiciary that will hold the line in questions between wealth and labor, between the rich and the poor, is the defense and security of the defenseless.

When our business prosperity was like the strong current of a mighty river, now it is like a falling spring in an August drought. I am quite as much, however, opposed to cheapening the American working man and working woman as I am to cheapening our dollars.

As a Republican I am proud of many things, but I can sum up as the highest satisfaction I have had in the party and its career that the prospect of Republican success never did disturb business. It is not more dollars but cheaper dollars that are wanted. It is a lower standard of value that they are demanding.

If you have two things, either one of which will pay a debt, and one is not valuable as the other, you are sure to give the least valuable one. I have believed and I believe today that any system that maintains the price of labor in this country that brings hope into the life of every laboring man, that enables him to put by, that gives him a stake in good order, in the property of the country, is the policy that should be our American policy.

BIG GUNS WILL BE THERE

William F. Harity, Roswell P. Flower and Others Will Attend the Convention at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Aug. 30.—Members of the National Democratic executive committee are somewhat surprised to learn that one of the distinguished Democrats in Washington upon the convention next Wednesday will be no less a personage than William F. Harity, ex-chairman of the Democratic national committee.

Certified lists of delegates elected from the various states have begun to pour in this week's mail, and Secretary Wilson expects to have the temporary call of the convention completed by Monday morning with the exception of New York state, which does not elect until Monday.

UNCLE "HOD" BOIES ON THE STUMP

Iowa's Ex-Governor Recites the Usual Tale of Woe.

The price of corn is too low. Fifty-cent dollars would raise the price of farm products—silver has not depreciated, but gold has appreciated—Senator Stewart also talks—Handles Sherman, Harrison, McKinley and Reed without gloves.

Waterloo, Iowa, Aug. 30.—A large crowd gathered in the East Side park in this city last evening to listen to ex-governor Horace Boies open the campaign in behalf of the Democratic party. F. E. Pollard, Democratic candidate for county attorney, presided, and after making a short speech, presented the ex-governor. In opening his address Mr. Boies said that the subject which called the meeting together was one which overshadowed every one since the war.
