Scranton's Two Costly Errors Gave

Springfield the Game. Springfield, Aug. 28.—The last of the Seranton series was the most uninteresting of the season. Both sides made their runs by bunching hits. Buffalo, Aug. 30.—McFarland, Roches-ter's star twirler did nice work until the fifth inning, when the Buffalos trampled him to earth and secured six runs, more than enough to win the game. Herndon took his place and kept his old team mates guessing for the three remaining innings. The fielding of Ritchey and Lewee was brilliant, the "Fony" team participating in four double outs. Wadsworth pitched for Buffalo and did nice work. Dooley's home run hit and Shannon's sharp fielding were among the day's doings. DIAMOND DUST. Some of the Chicago players who re-turned from the South ahead of Umpire Jevne say that he distinguished himself in Montgomery, Ala., in great style. There was a bad man in Montgomery who had been running the town for many years and whom nobody had ever dared to trackle. One day the had man lost $5 an and whom nobody had ever dared to tackle. One day the bad man lost $5$ on the game and in his rage and disgust went to the hotel where Jevne and the players were stopping. He called Jevne some pet names, whereupon the umpire arose in his wrath and, being wholly innocent of the bad man's record and feroclous habits, hopped upon the terror, rode on his neck and broke his face amid loud plaudits from the multitude. The Montgomery police, gathering courage from the example of the umpire, then came forward and arrested the terror, who was fined $25$ the next morning, while his glory had departed for ever. who was need at the next morning, whils glory had departed for ever.

Baltimore rooters sang this verse:
Of all de umpires in dis land
Dere's none like dat guy, Lally:
I'd like to have a big stuffed club
An' meet him in our alley.
On tings he don't know 'bout dis gam
L never could keen tally. I never could keep tally: He is a darlin', I don't t'ink, Is de guy, Puggy Lally! The highest percentage ever held at the end of the season by a pennant winning club was 786, which was the record of the Chicago club under Anson in 1880. In that year the Colts lost but 17 out of 34

Springfield Union.

The Chicago club has been without the service of a regular catcher. Donohue had the bone of his little finger of his right hand so badly shattered that he will not be able to play again this season. Kitridge awoke recently to find his right sem swellen from wright to shouther and arm swellen from wrist to shoulder and of a purple color. He went to a physician, who made an examination, but could give no cause for the strange affliction.

The average age of National league players is 27 years. Those caricatures of Mark Hanna remind one of the sace that grows twixt the shoulders of Dad Clarke, though neither Mark nor Dad has any reason to feel complimented by this comparison. It is said no two players in the league can beat Kelley and Keeler of the Balti-mores at the hit-and-run trick. Keeler is

Weidon in the Cincinnati Enquirer says:
"Amos Rusie, the celebrated thunderbolt pitcher, will next season be a member of pitcher, will next season be a member of the Washington (D. C.) club. At least that is the story that is floating around the eastern base ball circuit. Ever since Scrappy Bill' Joyce joined the New Yorks he has been doing his utmost to patch up an amnesty between his president and the Hoosier pitcher. Failing in this he has decided to do the best he can in the

"HUGHEY" JENNINGS.

He Wanted as a Part Owner and Playing Manager of the Scranton Team?

The Baltimore and Philadelphia papers are authority for the statement that "Hughey Jennings, the Baltimore short stop, has received a proposition to become a part owner and playing manager of the Scrapton club. The Philaledphia Evening Bulletin scorns the matter in the following paragraph: Jennings has an offer to become a base ball manager. A long letter from the owners of the Scranton (Pa.) team endeavoring to prove to Hughey that Mr. Hanlon doesn't want him any more and incidentally he and McGraw car come up to Scranton to people who do want them. Jennings is offered a part oweership and barrels of money, it is pointed out to him, will flow into his pockets. The trouble arises from the fact that Mr. Hanlon disagrees with the Scranon owners' premises. It could not be learned last night from the Scranton owners whether the story is true or not, but it is known that early in the season such and effort was made. Jennings thought sufficiently well of the scheme at that time to try and get his release, but Hanlon wouldn't listen to it. At all events, Jennings s wrote the Scranton people..
