It was le 15 when Sullivan and Sharkey were seen coming down from the dressing room. The big fellow almost hid the ex-sailor, who followed behind, obed in a grey bath robe. Sullivan was greeted with a terrific round of applause as usual. He was hog fat, his abdomen hanging in a fold over the waistband of his trunks. Sharkey was a decided contrast, when he threw off his bath robe and stood in bright green trunks, with a belt of the national colors, At 10.20 Charley Harvey introduced the men. John L. was again greeted with a salvo of cheers, while Sharkey was more moderately applauded. The crowd insisted on a speech, and John, whose voice was quite husky, said: "I am come here to spar an exhibition only. I have had my day, and this young man is ambitious and trying to reach the top of the ladder. I am only going to spar friendly. I am almost too a fair sized delegation of rooters, in- fat. I hope you won't say any harsh
