MARKETS AND STOCKS HILL HAS NO FAITH

Wall Street Review

New York, Sept. 1.—The stock market after scoring fractional declines at the opening in conscuence of the receipt of lower quotations from London soon developed strength on the news that cer-tain firms here had ordered over $2,000,000 additional gold from abroad making the total engagements up to date over twenty million dollars. The shorts lost no time in reducing their contracts and an advance of 3 to 1 per cent. ensued, while speculation showed a good deal of strength but lacked the relicincency which char-acterized the dealings for several days past. In other words the buying power lacked force and the changed conditions were reflected in a sharp decline later on. Louisville and Nashville yielded 1%, Sugar and Tobacco P4. Burlington and Quines

Louisville and Nashville was unfavorably affected by the heavy falling off in the net earnings of the company for the month of July. Speculation continued feverish until the close when it again de-veloped firmness on the decline in the call money rates from 8 to 2 per cent, and more

Senator Gorman Is Also Afraid to Take a hand in the Fight.

Republican Ticket in New York. ature -- Silver Dickey Bland Builds Air Castles.

> Bureau of The Tribune. 501 14th St., N. W., Washington, Sept. 1.

Senator Gorman is still afraid to com-into the open and fight for Bryan. So also is Hill. Both these gentlemen are old political weather cocks, and the Bryan breeze has not taken them from money rates from $10 a per cent, and more prevalent in the exchange that the Vermont election would give a heavy Republican majority.

The volume of transactions was much smaller than on yesterday, amounting to only 127,025. Net changes show gains of 1/2 a 1 there was even a chance of Bryan carrythere was even a chance of Bryan carrylost 5g and Ballimore and Ohot 24.

The range of today's prices for the active stocks of the New York Stock markets are given below. The quotations are for Hyvan in suite of the large growth had Open'g, Clos'g. for Bryan in spite of the large crowds he attracted in that state. In fact, Senator Hill has told Bryan's managers and probably told Bryan himself, that New York will go by an immense majority for McKinley. Bryan has not taken Hill's opinion of the matter. He has judged curiosity to be enthusiasm, and has convinced himself that New York is yet doubtful. He has told this to his friends and has told the national committee that he intends to make desperate efforts to carry that state. That is the reason that Senator Jones is coming east and is begging Gorman to help him out. It remains to be seen whether Jones can seduce Gorman to nut aside his foxy ways long enough to enter sincerely in the fight in behalf of Bryan. Jones has written to Richardson and his fellow managers here that Illinois and Indiana are no more important nor more debatable ground than New York, and that the greatest fight in the campaign must be waged in the Empire State. To this end a glamour is being thrown around Gorman. From all sides come hints from Bryan's managers that Gorman is deep in the silver councils. They are trying to blindfold Gorman and lead him to the sweet waters of Popocracy. An attempt will be made this week to befuddle Gorman into the manaement of the eastern end of the campaign. They have failed in Hill and they want Gorman now, especially for New York, for

Hill does. Gorman already shows signs of balking. In the first place Gorman knows full well that Hill would stand no Gor-man intermeddling in New York. These January 6.87 6.87 6.82 6.82 like the garter and the black snake are wont to do. They are jealous of each Scranton Board of Trade Exchange other in the senate, and they know each Gorman is not even doing anything in Maryland, and that state is pretty sure to roll up a majority for McKinley. Hill and Gorman will continue to peep at each other over Jones' shoulders, but make faces behind his back. Thus the old weather cocks are in mid-air and be it certain they know which way the wind is veering.

INDIANAPOLIS CONVENTION. With the convention at Indianapolis and the election in Vermont the cam-palgn can be said to have begun its period of white heat. From now on until election day there will be no let up. There are just two months remaining in which the people will do a deal of thinking. When one contemplates this campaign it becomes astounding. It would seem incredible to a foreigner to be told that upwards of 50,000,000 people are studying an economic question with t view of settling it for themselves. Never was such a campaign ever seen of managers. All that the former potentates of other campaigns can do now is to furnish literature that the people may read and send them orators that they might hear. They are doing their own thinking this year and doing a heap of it. Men who have not picked up a newspaper for years read then now with greediness. Women, while suckling their young, study essays on the subject of finance and discuss it with their husbands when they return home from the mines and workshops. Whatever is the they didn't think. CRUSER FOR CONGRESS.

Ticket Nominated by the Populistic-Democratic Party of Susquehanna County.

Special to The Tribune. Montrose, Sept. 1.-The Democratic party in county convention today, sold their birthright for a mess of pottage. threw aside the veil of their hitherto apparent afar off affiliation for the Populists and openly, in convention assembled, sent a committee of five to confer with the Populists who, strange to say, were in the convention hall and willing to embrace their fellow-laborers for free sliver.

Miller S. Allen, county chairman, called the convention to order at eleven o'clock and Secretary John M. Kelly, esq., called the roll. Edson W. Safford was chosen temporary chairman. After a speech by Mr. Safford the following officers were elected: Permanent chairman, John D Miller, Susquehanna; secretary, Charles Shelp, New Milford; reading clerk, F. A. Osberne, Harford: tellers, R. B. Swisher, West Auburn, and M. J. Lannon, Susquehanna; vice presidents, J. S. Wheaton, Franklin; George Graves, Little Meadows; C. E. McCoy, Laneshoro; Christopher McCormack, Hallstead; H. H. Lewis, Uniondale. Committee on reso lutions-Perry Harding, New Milford, chairman; James Hoak, Dimock; Thomas Guiton, Middletown.

The afternoon session was called promptly to order by Chairman Miller, he knows that state almost as well as who made an excellent official. Then the resolutions were read and when the Chicago platform was heartily endorsed many sound money Democrats in the hall grew black and blue in the A bright, black-eyed young man from Suquehanna named McMahon arose and moved that a committee be appointed to confer with the Populists for an amalgamation of their interests. After considerable pow-wow this was carried, but not before W. D. Lusk said: "Mr. Chairman and Delegates, This is a Democratic convention. Like Hill I say, 'I am a Democrat.' I believe the people in Susquehanna county know where I have always stood. But as I look at this matter, the only issue is that of finance; the people are carried down by our present methods." Mr. Lusk ended by saying: "I am here far as the county offices are concerned,

I care not who may be nominated. The motion was carried and the chairman before adjourning the convention for a half-hour appointed the following committee to confer with the Populists: C. M. Shelp, E. W. Safford. R. B. Swisher, C. McCoy and C. A. De-Lancey. The Populist conclave was headed by Stephen Joseph Northup, who led forward S. F. Lane and lastly G. D. Nash, of Brooklyn, of oil fame. The committee reported as follows: "Resolved-That your committee and also committee of the Populist party before. It has gone beyond the control are in favor of a consolidation of the ticket, but deem it best to refer this matter to the two county committees

TARANTULA TOO COLD TO BITE.

Insect Caught Among Chicken Feed in a South Dakota House.

Chamberlain, S. D., Sept. 1.-Receive er Graybill of the United States land office ordered some chicken feed at a local store yesterday. A clerk in geting to the feed, removed some rubbish which had accumulated from the unpacking of bananas. When the hired girl went to the chicken feed to get some she discovered what she believed to be an enormous suider.

Taking a tin pan, she poked the supposed spider into it, covered it with her apron and carried it to her mistress, who, upon the pan being uncovered, to support Bryan and Sewall and as discovered that the spider was a tarantula. After son ne delay the in imprisoned in a glass. That no one was bitten can be explained only by the supposition that the tarantula was benumbed by he cold weather which pre-
