The blevole girl cannot be insured. This is the decree of the accident insur-ance companies. The reason for this is as odd from a business standpoint as the fact odd from a business standpoint as the fact itself. It is because of the frivolity of woman—that is, she makes frivolous claims for damages. The accident insurance policy usually calls for payment of $5,000 in case of death, and in case of disability from $7 to $25 a week, according to the extent of the injuries. The annual payment to secure this insurance ranges from $4 to $20, in different companies.
