WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Lackawanna Glass a Regular Political Club and Will Send Delegates to Erie.

The Lackawanna McKinley and Hobart Glee club is to be considered a full-fledged political organization. This is not generally known as the club's forte was generally known as the club's forte was thought to be in educating voters by means of melody and without campaign argument, A neeting of the club was held last night at the home of John Lewis on South Bromley avenue. There was a fair attendance of members, James Harris presided in the absence of President John P. Lows.

ris presided in the absence of President John R. Jones.
Delegates to this month's convention of Republican clubs to be held at Erie, Pa., were selected. There was an interesting contest. The men elected were: Hon, John R. Jones, Herbert Jones, and County Detective Thomas E. Leyshon; alternates, Taily M. Evans, James Harris and Emery Morgan. President Jones informed the club that the charter which was recently received entitles the club to representation at the convention. representation at the convention.

ESCAPED HIS ISLAND JAIL MARKETS AND STOCKS

Captain Dreyfus, the French Spy, Rescued from His Prison and Carried Off in an American Schooner.

London, Sept. 3.-Captain Hunter of the British steamship Nonparell, which has arrived at Newport, Monmouthshire, from Cayenne, French Guiana, reports that Captain Albert Dreyfus, formerly of the French army and attached to the ministry for war, who was sentenced to be publicly degraded the world, one would imagine, to go looking for a policeman; and especially a tramp of the most pronounced type. About 8 o'clock last evening a middle-agust tions, mobilization schemes, etc., to a tions, mobilization schemes, etc., to a foreign government, has escaped from the Isle du Grand Salut, where he was taken after leaving the Isle de Ro, off the French coast. In an interview, Captain Hunter is quoted as saying that Dreyfus escape on board an American schooner, as with the help of his wife, formerly Mile, Hadamard, and the daughter wealthy parents. Mme. Dreyfus, the urgent request of the prisoner, ceived permossion from the Fren government to oin her husband at l place of imprisonment, and in d course of time arrived at Cayenne w supplied with funds, Mme. Drevfus was always a firm ! liever in the innocence of her husbar and when she reached Cayenne t French authorities there offered h the use of a steam launch to take h to the Grand Salut Island, where h husband's prison was situated, but s declined, saying that she wished to b come accustomed to the climate befo going to the island. LAD'S WILD WESTERN OUTBREAK.

Shoots His Aged Keeper, Breaks from Prison and Escapes.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 3.-Edward Lee Simmons, an incorrigible lad, who has been reading Wild West stories, made his escape from the House of Refuge this morning by shooting and fatally wounding Benjamin Thomas, the aged gate-keeper of the Reformatory. Simmons has been in the refuge two months, and had a good record for behavior. This morning he quietly started toward the open gate, at the end of the long pathway from the building. The old gate-keeper tried to stop him passing through.

With an oath the boy sprang at him, brandished a pair of revolvers, which he had stolen from the guards' room. "If you don't let me out I'll kill you." he cried.

Mr. Thomas tried to stop him, but the boy darted around the old man, and as he passed fired, the ball entering the keeper's abdomen. The boy then escaped. The gate-keeper lies at the hospital in a critical condition.
