A LUTHERAN CHURCH,

Many Families Moving to This City

for Organization. The many German residents of this city will be glad to hear that there are strong prospects of a Lutheran church being established in this city.

A prominent German citizen is the source of the information and it can be as teachers. relied upon as being reliable. Carbon-dale offers a wide field for such a church and there is no doubt but what it would flourish and grow in a few years. Over thirty families who have been spoken to are anxious for the church and promise their support. It is proposed to hire a place for holding services at first, but as the congrenation becomes larger a property will be purchased and a suitable building The services will be in the German laguage, and as there are many Germans in this city and suburbs the proposed organization will probably be a success.

The Carbondale Silver Club Will Endeavor to Secure Their Leader.

The Carbondale silver club are making preparations for an active campaign in this city and have already aroused considerable enthusiasm. At a large attendance and an effort will be made to swell the number before next

The club is working hard to have its presidential candidate to speak in this city. The secretary has been instructed to write to State Chairman Garman asking him to endeavor to make artangements by which the silver leader might pass through this city on his trip through the coal region.

Martin McQuade Here. The ball players who represented this city in the state league are evidently fond of this place, as they are constantreturning. The latest to arrive is Martin McQuade, former left fielder. McQuade says he is glad to get back, as this place seems more like a home to him than any place he has yet struck. He is obliged to stop playing for the season, owing to a bad sprain which he has sustained. Since leaving here he has been playing fast ball for Lancaster. New York has had an eye on Mc-Quade and will probably give him a good offer.

The Field Day Prizes. The prizes which will be awarded to the winners in today's contests at Alumni park have arrived and are indeed worth every effort on the part of the young athletes to win them. They consist of handsome gold medals upon which are inscribed the events in which they are offered. The second prizes will wide by three feet long. There will consist mainly of books and a silk banner will be awarded the team winning the relay race,
