Williams' College Notes.
Opening of Sept. 1—very flattering. All departments well attended but the normal, English and stenographic lead the list.

About 130 in the Normal-English department and 71 started the year in the shorthand department, while only 30 so started last year, this eleven more than twice as many this year as last in that department alone.

Another Columbia county teacher-student was graduated this week and another such teacher from Wayne county graduates next week.

A teacher from England enters soon for full course work in both the bookkeeping and shorthand courses.

Even these hard times promises a larger attendance this school year than last when we had 702 students.

Demands were made last week for twelve of our graduates for positions and yesterday a prospect opened for locating several stenographers.

This kind of education pays.

John G. Woolley Coming.
Hon. John G. Woolley, one of America's greatest platform orators, will speak in the Academy of Music next Thursday evening, Sept. 10. Mr. Woolley originated the Christian Citizenship movement.

Reserved seats can be had at the Academy for 25 cents each. The diagram opens Tuesday morning.

DETERMINED EFFORT
TO SAVE BOSCHINO

He Was to Have Been Hung on August 5.

SIX JURORS SIGN THE PETITION

Which is to Be Filed with the State Board of Pardons Today—Another Petition Contains 2,000 Names and Puts Forward Good Character and Contradictory Evidence as Reasons for a Pardon or Commutation.

Attorneys L. P. Wedeman, Ward & Horn and Major Everett Warren will today file with Secretary Bettler, of the state board of pardons the petition and letters signed by a large number of citizens of this city, asking for the pardon or commutation of sentence of Joseph Boschino as the board may deem proper.

The killing occurred on Sunday, Nov. 11, 1894, nearly two years ago, and Attorney Wedeman, Ward & Horn defended Boschino on his trial. They made a hard fight for their client, but were met by District Attorney John R. Jones, who put up equally as strong a legal battle on the part of the commonwealth.

Boschino was found guilty of murder of the first degree by the jury and thereupon, Attorney Wedeman, Ward & Horn, after seeking a new trial in the lower court, carried it to the Supreme court, but the latter tribunal decided that Judge Gunster, who presided at Boschino's trial, made no mistakes in the admission of evidence or in his charge to the jury, and thereupon the judgment of the lower court was affirmed.

The time for Boschino's execution was fixed for August 5, Ward & Horn and Mr. Wedeman began preparations for presenting the case to the board of pardons and appealed to the governor for a respite until the case could be presented.

ABLE LEGAL TALENT.

Major Everett Warren, who had been associated with Mr. Horn before the board of pardons in the successful application for Stephen De Ayala, and in other cases, was employed to assist the other counsel in Boschino's behalf, and since that time the combined legal talent of Messrs. Wedeman and Horn, Boschino, Ward and Major Warren, has been put forth with every effort to save the condemned man, and they have linked together every detail for the strongest case possible.

One of the strongest points of the application for clemency will be a petition from Boschino's behalf which will go before the pardon board signed by all or nearly all of the twelve jurors who found him guilty of murder of the first degree.

Six of the jurors have signed it so far and their names will be forwarded to Harrisburg today with the rest of the papers. The attorneys hope to have the signatures of the other six to bring with them to Harrisburg on the day of the hearing. It is difficult to see all the jurors, as they are scattered throughout the county. The names of the twelve are as follows:

- Walter Doran, farmer, Covington.
- George V. Hoffman, clerk, Scranton.
- Lewis Fallott, millhand, Scranton.
- Clasius R. Smith, truck agent, Carbondale.
- Thomas Atkinson, merchant, Moosic.
- Lafayette Mathews, barn boss, Mayfield.
- C. S. Seamus, confectioner, Scranton.
- Allen V. Bush, carpenter, Scranton.
- Charles Beckert, machinist, Scranton.
- Alexander B. Brody, miner, Fell.
- William F. Skoll, surgeon, Scranton.
- Philip Smith, brakeman, Scranton.

The other papers which will be filed comprise: A history of the case from its inception, a statement of the reasons on which the application for executive clemency is based, a certified copy of the proceedings in the case, including a copy of the evidence taken on the trial, and lastly, a petition signed by at least 2,000 citizens of this city and county. There will also be letters from many prominent citizens of the county.

HIS GOOD CHARACTER.

The principal reason for asking executive clemency is the undoubted good character of Boschino during his twelve years residence in this state, together with the contradictory and inconsistent testimony produced on the part of the commonwealth, which with the evidence on the part of the defense, ought to satisfy the board of pardons of the doubt as to who killed Confort.

The reasons are given were two in number and as follows:

First—The good character Boschino had sustained prior to the homicide, taken into consideration with the contradictory evidence on the part of the commonwealth, and the evidence of an alibi leaves the guilt of Boschino in great reasonable doubt, the benefit of which should be given to him.

Second—The testimony of John Myran, Antonio Imbrano and Rocco Salvatore, being the principal evidence upon which Boschino was convicted, is so inconsistent and contradictory in itself as to render it unworthy of belief, and it would be wrong to deprive Boschino of his life upon such unsubstantial evidence.

A copy of the above reasons was served upon District Attorney John R. Jones by Attorney Horn today and a copy will be served upon Judge Gunster today. The hearing will be had before the board of pardons at Harrisburg on Wednesday, September 16 at 10 a. m. The main argument will be presented by Attorney Horn and Major Warren and Attorney Wedeman will follow. District Attorney Jones will represent the commonwealth.

GREEN HILLS PAR AWAY.

Just Now a Syracuse Young Man is Finding the Stubbles.
Special Officer James Durkin, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, yesterday arrested a young fellow giving his name as Thomas Richards, of Syracuse, for stealing a ride on a passenger train. The captive was brought before Alderman Millar.

Upon being questioned at the hearing, Richards told a story of hard rills with the world, and the alderman discharged him upon condition that he leave the city in two hours. He wasn't a tramp, but left a good home and this is the result. He said his folks did not know where he is, but they think likely he is getting along well somewhere. He started out to better himself, and finding that the hills far away are not as green as they appear, he does not want to return home until he goes back well dressed.

ALMOST A MURDER.

A Hungarian in a Critical Condition from a Blow of a Stone on Head.
Jessup is taking the place of the "Ridge" as the scene of murders and lawbreaking. Levi Stutzman, a middle-aged Hungarian, unmarried, was feloniously assaulted by John Corney, another Hungarian and unmarried, last Monday night and his chance for recovery is doubtful.

County Detective Leyshon was informed of the case yesterday and after swearing out a warrant for Corney before Alderman Wright, of this city, he took Constable Timothy Jones, of the West Side, with him and they went up to Jessup looking for the assailant.

Stutzman claims that he was on his way home Monday night and was held up by Corney, who held him on the road and demanded his cash, but he refused and proceeded to fight his way clear of them. He got a blow of a stone on the head and was rendered unconscious. His boarding boss went out looking for him late at night and found him on the road unable to speak. He did not fully regain his senses until Thursday and then he accused Corney of striking him.

Dr. Beck, of Jessup, was called to attend him. There is a contused wound four inches long on his head. No other injury had been reported up to a late hour last night.

FINED THE CONSTABLE.

North End Alderman Exercises Authority Not Vested in Him.
Constable Bernard Davis, of the North End, is angry, and he threatens to make it warm for someone, before he goes through the law. Edward Griffin, of the North End, also, had a lawsuit against someone or other in the Second ward. He had a writ he wanted served and he took it to Constable Davis.

Dr. Davis refused to serve it, because the man to whom it was directed did not live in the First ward, that being the bailiwick of the constable, Mr. Griffin brought an action against the constable before Alderman Roberts, of the Second ward. The alderman gave judgment against Davis in the sum of $100, and the constable was fined also, and also issued a capias to commit him to the care of the sheriff until he paid the money.

Attorneys Hulander & Vosburg, representing the constable, yesterday took out a writ of habeas corpus from court, and secured his discharge Monday morning for a hearing, and let the constable go on his own recognition. The constable is deliberating upon whether or not to bring action against the alderman for illegal imprisonment. The law upholds a constable in not going out of his ward or district to serve papers if he doesn't want to.

LABOR DAY OBSERVANCE.

Will Be a Big Afternoon Parade and Picnic.
Monday will be observed as Labor Day in this city. The feature of the day will be a big parade at 1 p. m. and a picnic at Lincoln Park during the afternoon and evening. Addresses will be made on labor topics and there will be athletic games and dancing. The Lawrence band and orchestra furnishing the music.

There will be four divisions in the parade, the first forming on Archbald avenue, right resting on Spruce street; the second on Franklin avenue, right resting on Mulberry street; the third on Millin avenue, resting on Spruce street; the fourth on Millin avenue, resting on Mulberry street. The formation will be in place at 10 o'clock as possible. The line of march will be up Franklin avenue, to Lackawanna, to Adams avenue, to Linden street, to Washington avenue, to Vine street, to Jefferson avenue, to Pine street, to Madison avenue, to place of dismissal.

NEWS FOR FIREMEN.

The firemen of Lackawanna county will enjoy a trolley ride this evening under the auspices of the Firemen's Union, whose cars will be at the depot at 7 o'clock on Monday. The car will start from the Crystal company's house at 7.30 o'clock.

Negotiations for hotel accommodations during the firemen's convention at Johnstown in October have been nearly completed by Vice-President Theodore E. Schmitt, of this city. He will be quartered at Hotel Kantz, a new and popular hostelry on the post office square. Owing to the limited number of hotels and the large number of firemen who are expected to be in attendance it was necessary to guarantee for fifty persons. On that account it had been requested that those who are going to Johnstown communicate with Isaac Goodman, either by letter or in person, as soon as possible. The firemen's union will not engage quarters for more than fifty. A reasonable rate has been secured and the committee is hard at work to make the trip an enjoyable one.

Binghamton Industrial Exposition.

Among the large agricultural and industrial fairs, the "Big Fair" at Binghamton, N. Y., is one of the best. It will be held for four days, commencing next Tuesday, Sept. 8th. Special excursions at a low rate will be run during the week from Scranton. Every indication indicates that the 1896 fair is to be the grandest in the history of the association. The exhibits will be many and in great variety. Among other attractive exhibits will be an electrical display including the X rays apparatus and many new and startling effects. This entertainment, although provided at a great expense to the fair management, will be free to patrons. Never since the first fair held in Binghamton has there been so much interest manifested in the trotting, racing and running races, and lovers of races, that are races in earnest, will not be disappointed. The amusement programme is to be one of the most exciting and thrilling variety that was ever arranged for outdoor attractions. There will be a band and orchestra, a large platform is erected in front of the grand stand and a performance will be given daily by a number of talented and noted artists, including thrilling feats on the double flying rings, balancing on the slack wire, hand balancing, juggling, tumbling, somersaults and double contortionist feats; also a troupe of performing dogs and monkeys.

MR. BOLAND JUMPS
INTO THE SADDLE

City Hall Ring Proposes to Capture Tuesday's Convention.

ALEX. W. DICKSON IS THE MAN

Mentioned for Congress at a Seance in the Mayor's Office at Which Mr. Boland's Idea is Unfolded—Meeting Didn't Fitze Fall in with the Idea—Col. Fitzsimmons and Merrifield Side-Tracked.

It was like this: Nobody had come up openly and said he wanted it, so Christy Boland said to himself, "Why not own a congressman or even a defeated candidate for congress? If Boland should be elected somebody up this way is going to be the distributor of a big lot of patronage. The defeated congressman or the man who is the recognized manager of affairs will be the patronage distributor."

Consequence: There will be a meeting of representative Democrats at the office of Mayor Baller, in the Municipal building, Friday evening at 8 o'clock at which you are invited to be present.

The following responded to the invitation: Mayor James G. Bailey, City Controller E. J. Robinson, County Treasurer C. H. Schadt, D. J. Reedy, secretary of the Bryan and Sewall club; John E. Gaffney, secretary of the county committee; Select Councilman John J. Flanagan, A. P. Duffy, John J. Durkin, Joseph E. Taylor, Hon. M. P. Sando, M. J. Donahoe, Editor Lynett of the Times, M. A. McGlinn and several others received invitations. Mr. Boland it is needless to say was also there.

SLATE PLAN WENT AMISS.

Mayor Bailey was chosen to preside. The announcement was made that the meeting was called for the purpose of talking over when the members of Tuesday's convention. These things were duly talked over. It was the intention of the instigators to attempt a slate but the make-up of the meeting precluded this. Every candidate for commissioner and auditor, from Carbondale to Moosic had a friend at the meeting and the members of the slate were duly talked over. Governor of French Guiana Says He Has Not Escaped.
Paris, Sept. 4.—The governor of French Guiana, replying to a dispatch of inquiry from the minister of the colonies, denies the statements made by Captain Hunter of the British steamer Nonpareil at Newport, Brommouthshire, saying that Captain Albert Dreyfus, who was sentenced by court martial to imprisonment for life after having been convicted of betraying French military secrets, had escaped from his prison on the island of Grand Salut with the assistance of his wife.

IS A VICIOUS BIRD.

Captive Eagle to Be Released in Conell Park.
In one of the windows of Butterman & Rice's cigar store at the corner of Lackawanna and Washington avenues, a large black American eagle has been on exhibition for two weeks. The bird is about ten pounds in weight, measures six feet from tip to tip when the wings are expanded, and is very vicious, so much so that a person who goes close to her, will be apt to go blind for the rest of his life, or be minus his nose or ears. She feeds on raw meat and live mice, gulping the latter down without chewing them up.

Her talons are sharp and strong and her beak is as sharp as the point of a stiletto. When any person manifests a desire to tease her by pointing his finger or rattling the wire netting which surrounds the window, the stamps on her perch like madman. Even Mr. Butterman and Mr. Rice, who feed her, do not get familiar. They pass the meat into the cage on a pointed stick three or four feet long. She enjoys a morning meal of live mitter than anything else she will eat, and when they try to gratify her appetite every day.

Albert Simonsen, of Ledgedale, Pike county, caught her in a trap a month ago and two weeks ago presented her to Messrs. Butterman and Rice. They feel that the creature should be allowed freedom and tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock will set her at liberty from the observatory in Conell Park. They have fastened a light iron tag on one of her claws on which is lettered, "Albert Butterman and A. L. Rice, Scranton, Pa., Sept. 4, 1896."

The reason she will be let go from the observatory is to roll those who want to shoot her. They will not be allowed to fire within the park enclosure and it will be hard to shoot her after she goes away up over the territory outside the park.

Alderman Donovan's Court Was Packed to the Doors.
There was a hearing last night in the office of Alderman Donovan in the public building, on Washington avenue, in the arrests of the twenty-one disturbers who attempted to stop the organist from playing at the late mass in the South Side Polish church last Sunday. There was an error in the date on which it was alleged that they broke the law and they were discharged but they will be arrested again this morning. It was of clerical error, but enough to compel the alderman to discharge them. The warrant charged them with disturbing the services on Sunday, May 30, when it should have read August 30.

Alderman Donovan gave the thirteen defendants a hearing on the charge of violating a city ordinance by using boisterous, loud and profane language on the public streets. The extreme penalty for this is a fine of $25 each. These cases came under the head of summary conviction.

Over two dozen witnesses were sworn and testified that the defendants were loud and profane and shouting if Father Aust would not give the keys of the school house to "lick him." Eight wit-

LIQUOR MEN'S PLAN.

County Liquor League Decides on an Important Step—Will Organize Permanently.

At yesterday's meeting of the delegates of the various branches of the Retail Liquor Dealers' League of Lackawanna county it was decided that at the meeting two weeks hence a permanent county organization will be effected, with headquarters located in some one of the main office buildings in this city. A salaried secretary and organizer are to be engaged and other steps taken to place the organization on a stable and permanent basis.

The good work that has been effected through the medium of the weekly conventions of the county branches impels the brewers who refuse to stop selling to unlicensed places is working admirably and the mandate of last Friday affecting the bottlers is being generally observed. At yesterday's meeting a number of the bottlers sent in their acquiescence to the mandate and it is expected that before next Friday, when their time for compliance expires, that all will have sent in their signatures to the agreement not to supply unlicensed places.

May Use the Council Rooms.

The county commissioners are casting about for a place in which the sessions of the grand jury can be held, the repairs going on at the court house making it impossible to utilize the grand jury room. County Commissioner S. W. Roberts and District Attorney Jones were looking about the city hall yesterday with a view of securing quarters there and it is possible that the sessions will be held in one of the council chambers.
