NEW CONCERT OF EUROPEAN POWERS

Russia and Germany Aroused in the Interest of Humanity.

PLAN TO TAKE CARE OF THE SULTAN

Settlement of the Cretan Affairs Upon the Basis of European Supervision the Keynote of the Scheme to Place the Sultan Under the Tutelage of Ambassadors--Trouble is Apprehended at Constantinople.

(Copyright, 1896, by the United Associated Presses.)

Berlin, Sept. 6.—The conferences which have taken place between the Czar and the Emperor and their accompanying Russian and German diplomats, which at first were alleged to be devoid of anything more important than mere ceremonial conversations are now reported to have taken the character of initiating a new concert of the powers which is to have a bearing of the greatest importance upon the future events in Turkey.

The settlement of the Cretan affairs upon the basis of European supervision appears to have been the key note of this scheme, which at least would maintain the nominal integrity of Turkey and for a time enable the powers to escape being dragged into a European war over the division of the spoils of the Ottoman empire.

Diplomatic advisers received from Constantinople are such as to cause well grounded fears here that very much worse things than have already occurred in Constantinople may happen in that city before the ambassadors are able to arrange for armed intervention to suppress disorders, that the sultan's palace clique, bearing that the sultan's reign is about to cease, may organize a massacre upon a very much larger scale than heretofore.

CAUSE OF DISCONTENT.

The report that the British, French and Italian warships in Turkish waters have been reinforced, while the German warships have not, have excited a widespread feeling of discontent which is being freely expressed in the newspapers regardless of their political bias.

The fetes at Breslau in honor of the Czar and Czarina bear a close resemblance to all of the preceding demonstrations of the kind. The streets of the town are thronged with people who cheer in season and out and persistently press upon the long lines of troops which occupy the border of the streets to keep the crowd from impeding the progress of the imperial visitors as they pass.

The general discomfort of the people. It was originally intended that the Emperor and Czarina with their suites should occupy the royal castle, but the Emperor's court marshal, who has in charge the arrangements, found that the castle would be too small for both of the imperial visitors and their attendants.

The grand reception room, which was constructed within the central hall, was adorned with stately and tropical plants.

THE CZAR'S COOLNESS. The few words spoken by the czar in responding to the emperor's toast at the banquet last evening are regarded in

MARK HANNA TALKS.

He is Entirely Satisfied with the Work of the Chicago Campaign Workers--Good Reports.

Chicago, Sept. 6.—In speaking of the work done by the Republican headquarters managers here, Mr. Hanna said today: "I am very proud of my Chicago organization. They showed me reports of efficient work and organization in every state. From the meagre reports I received yesterday on my arrival here I find the disease is yielding to treatment and that our work of education is having the effect I expected. All our plans have now been mapped out for the west. I don't believe in any other plan than that of Mr. Bryan in New York state indicating an increase in his following. It only shows a more general interest in the issues of this campaign. I have no misgivings about the east not going for McKinley. We have a good chance to carry Texas and harmony plan among the Republican factions goes through and the proposed fusion with the Populists carries. A party of prominent Texas Republicans were in to see me yesterday on this subject. I am well pleased with the western situation so far as I have received reports. The campaign is being conducted in a plan for Grand Army generals to make a combination tour of the west in opposition to Mr. Bryan was consummated at headquarters yesterday. General Russell A. Alger and General Daniel E. Sickles, the latter a McKinley Democrat, stopped in Chicago on their return from the Grand Army encampment. General Alger placed his car at the disposal of the party of speakers, who will be Generals Alger and Sickles, General Franz Siegel, of New York, also a McKinley Democrat; General Thomas J. Stewart, of Pennsylvania; General James M. Tanner, of Washington. It was arranged to begin the tour throughout Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri, September 21. General Sickles, who speaks in Toledo Monday night, will tour the city with General Alger as his guest in a delegation to Canton, September 22.

Mr. Payne said the reports made him confident the party would carry Maryland, the Virginias, Delaware, Kentucky and Missouri. Major Dick arranged with Mr. McKinley by wire for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers to send a delegation to Canton, September 22.

RESCUE OF FRANK WATSON. Frank Watson, of St. Joseph, was the first man rescued, but he was dead and his body was a mass of broken bones and mangled flesh. The search continued until five o'clock, when the last victim was removed. Three were carried to the city in ambulances, where doctors from both cities were waiting to render aid. Some of them died en route and others while being cared for. The dead were taken to the city hall, which was turned into a temporary morgue. Some of the men were so badly mangled that identification was only had by letters and papers in their pockets. After the falling of the rear wall the roof and other walls soon collapsed, one of the side walls falling upon a two-story brick building owned by William Frick, completely demolishing it and its contents. The fire had not been confined alone to the opera house, but had crept across the alley, and soon the rear of the two-story buildings were aflame. The fire, however, was gotten under control before it reached the main part of the buildings.

William Frick, block and stock of shoes $10,000; Evening News plant, $5,000; J. A. Simon, scenery in opera house $500; S. M. Austin, building and grocery store, $2,000; D. Hunt, building and grocery store, $1,000, and many small losses.

At the power house 14 held out his came toward one of the rapidly revolving dynamos and it was hit by a projection and knocked out of his hand like a flash. He was startled but said nothing. He came near being badly injured by the occurrence in this city to-night and will cross the river at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.

LI HUNG CHANG AND PARTY ARRIVED IN NIAGARA FALLS.

Niagara Falls, Sept. 6.—Li Hung Chang and party arrived in this city at 11.45 o'clock this morning. Li made his appearance and was greeted with a burst of applause from the crowd of fully 4,000 people who had gathered to see him and which the police had much difficulty in keeping in order.

Upon the arrival at the Cataract House which was headquarters, the party retired to their rooms, the whole second floor of the hotel having been reserved for them.

About 3.20 o'clock the start was made to see the falls. The train had ceased and the sun was shining brightly. Thousands of people filled the hotel corridors, verandas and the street outside. The falls reached, the vicary watched them for a short time, his face wearing a curious expression. He turned to his interpreter and addressed him. The latter said: "His Excellency is very much delighted and impressed."

Next the party were driven to the power house of the Cataract Construction company where they saw the monster 5,000 horse power dynamos running by the energy of the Niagara river.

Li spoke through his interpreter in glowing terms of American enterprise and said the sight was the most interesting he had seen on his travels. He inquired the cost of the work and the revenue and other things.

The party then returned to the hotel. The interpreter said Li marveled much at the American railways, saying they were the greatest he had ever seen.

Asked if Li would upon his return to China, have the English engineers, who are building a railroad in that country, adopt the American system, he said he certainly would.

At the power house 14 held out his came toward one of the rapidly revolving dynamos and it was hit by a projection and knocked out of his hand like a flash. He was startled but said nothing. He came near being badly injured by the occurrence in this city to-night and will cross the river at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning.

FIRES AT ORANGE.

The City Infested with Persistent Fire Bugs.

Orange, N. J., Sept. 6.—An incendiary fire started early this morning in the moulting and planing mill of George Cook, on Railroad place, opposite the depot of the Watchung railway, and before it was under control a number of buildings were destroyed, entailing a loss of about $100,000. The fire was undoubtedly the work of the same gang that started fires in the Oranges the past several weeks. The moulting and planing mill was filled with costly machinery and finished work ready for delivery. Other buildings destroyed were John Berryman's carpenter shop, A. E. Robinson's carpenter shop, M. S. Potter's paint store, and Frank Williams' carpenter shop.

A large stable in the rear of the Cook mill was burned, together with a lot of horses, sleighs and carriages. Three horses perished in the flames. Mr. Cook's house, west of the fire, was badly damaged and drenched with water. His losses are $20,000 on the mill, $2,500 on the house and $1,000 on furniture; total insurance, $15,500. John Berryman's loss is $6,000. Insurance, $3,000; Mayne-Potter, A. E. Robinson and Frank Williams $500 each. Insured. The total loss is $31,000; insurance, $17,000.
