

The Scranton Tribune

Daily and Weekly. No Sunday Edition. Published at Scranton, Pa., by The Tribune Publishing Company.

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET. NATIONAL. President—WILLIAM MCKINLEY. Vice President—GARRET A. HOBART.

STATE. Congressmen—L. Large—GALUSHA A. GROW, SAMUEL A. DAVENPORT.

COUNTY. Congress—WILLIAM CONNELL. Commissioners—S. W. ROBERTS, GILES ROBERTS.

LEGISLATIVE. Senate, 2nd District—COL. W. J. SCOTT. Representative, 2d District—A. T. CONNELL.

The rapid increase of spleen in the speeches of William Jennings Bryan shows that the "boy orator" already perceives the handwriting on the wall.

The Turkish Situation.

It has been evident for many years that there will be no peace in Turkey until the peace of Europe has been disturbed by a clash of the Powers.

Comment of the Facts.

For the benefit of followers of a political faith that is based entirely on the supposition that the country wants more full legal tender silver dollars the Pittsburgh Dispatch gives a few figures:

A Point Well Taken.

The Cleveland World draws a good comparison when it says that if a pond filled up when it rained and ran dry during the drouth, the man who said that the difference was due to the kind of wood of which the pole that measured it was made would be laughed at for a fool.

Politics and Religion.

About two weeks before the late election in Vermont, the bishop of the Episcopal church in that state and diocese issued a pastoral letter, and set forth a form of prayer to be used in the various congregations in his diocese throughout the political campaign.

praying for Divine guidance in a political campaign of unusual importance. If all our people were likeminded in their desire to have Almighty God for our Spiritual Ruler, no permanent injury could happen to our nation.

The fact that Li Hung could pass the New York hotel employes and the sharks at Niagara Falls and still have money enough left to pay his fare home, is another evidence that the owner of the three-eyed peacock feather is a great man.

"I do not know what you think about it, but I believe that it is a good deal better to open the mints of the United States to the labor of America than to open up the mints of the United States to the silver of the world."

WILLIAM MCKINLEY.

It is said that Mr. Harvey, author of the celebrated silver argument known as "Coin's Financial School," withdrew his deposit from a Chicago bank the other day and insisted on having the entire amount in gold.

Free Silver and the Workingman

From the Post-Express. An interesting pamphlet has lately been published by Max Schippel, a member of the German parliament.

KEEP IT IN MIND.

One fact must not be lost sight of in this campaign. The party that nominated Bryan at Chicago is the same party which is responsible for the enactment of the Wilson-Gorman bill.

Bryan and the Angel.

About Bill Bryan, may his tribe decrease! Awoke one night from a deep dream of peace.

and capable man" which at that time caused him to privately acknowledge him as his choice for the presidency, and it is but fair to presume that it is the same reasons which now cause him to publicly acknowledge the same thing when he has an opportunity to put his desire of three years ago into practical effect.

CONFIDENCE IS INDISPENSABLE

From Bourke Cockran's Speech. "Underlying the whole scheme of civilization is the confidence man have in each other; confidence in their honesty, confidence in their integrity, confidence in their industry, confidence in their future.

PUZZLE FOR POPOCRATS.

Question to Bryan That is Being Widely Circulated. From the New York Herald.
