

WASHINGTON AT LAST AROUSED

City's Mongrel Population Actually Takes an Interest in Politics.

WILL CONTRIBUTE A CAMPAIGN FUND

Unique Campaign Literature in Many Tongues Will Be Distributed Throughout the Country--Governor Bradley Places Kentucky in the Republican Column--Effect of the Third Ticket.

Bureau of The Tribune, 501 14th St. N. W., Washington, Sept. 8.

When the District of Columbia rises to the point of being politically interested in anything, the point at which it must indeed be interested never since the days of "Boss" Sheppard has this mongrel population been so interested as it is now.

Strange as it may seem, any discussion of politics here seems to be an unwelcome and frivolous outburst, and the best people will not candidly confess that they take no interest in congress at all, and never know what important legislation is being discussed.

This may not be startling to the outside world, because the outside world does not know Washington. The average Washingtonian thinks it the duty of the government to pay the expenses of the city, and support the citizens besides.

Last Saturday a number of representative citizens gathered at the rooms of the board of trade to consider a way means of furthering the cause of the city as great as that which would have followed the fall of the Washington monument.

Before the meeting adjourned it was resolved that an organization be perfected for the purpose of aiding in the movement to elect McKinley and Hobart and to oppose the election of any candidate for congress, Republican or Democrat, who should favor the free coinage of silver.

CAMPAIGN LITERATURE

The campaign committees are making a decided departure this year in the way of literature. They are not only issuing any quantity in English, but are having speeches translated into German and Scandinavian.

There are a number of free silver men among them and even these admit that Indiana is safely for McKinley.

Mr. West is personally favorable to Bryan, but says it is not in the cards for him to be elected.

THE KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN

Governor Bradley has written a letter to Chairman Babcock of the Congressional campaign committee, to the effect that Kentucky can with certainty be put down in the Republican column.
