SCRANTON, SEPTEMBER 9, 1896.

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

NATIONAL. President—WILLIAM M'KINLEY. Vice President—GARRET A. HOBART.

LEGISLATIVE.

Senate, 34th District—COL. W. J. SCOTT. Representative, 23 District—A. T. CONNELL.

The Music Hall Convention.

The gathering of Mr. Boland's followers at Music Hall yesterday was a novel affair when considered in the light of a Democratic convention.

Keep Up the Battle.

The warning of Chairman Hanna that the friends of sound money should not become over confident on account of the victory in Vermont and the general change of sentiment in districts where a few weeks ago free silver was the idol, is wise and timely.

A Code of Rules Needed.

The Chicago News suggests that somebody should write a treatise on etiquette for presidential candidates.

Plain Talk.

The New York "Sun" puts the case against silver in this common-sense way: "The people are not fools."

THE EXPENSE OF A CHANGE.

In contemplation of the proposition to change the basis of American currency from gold to silver, an expert has given some startling figures in a recent issue of the Binghamton Republican.

OUR NEW FAD.

Syracuse Courier. Pennsylvania women have a brand new fad, a coal mine party.

regulated by programme.

There seems no question that such considerations as these will have a determining influence upon conservative voters who will be satisfied to let well enough alone.

THE SILVER CLUB.

There was a procession of eleven men, and Mr. Cobb, whose wife happens to be a sister of Mrs. J. B. Foraker, addressed an enthusiastic audience of seventy-five or eighty persons.

WILL WORK FOR TARIFF.

While the election of a sound money president is of the greatest importance, it is equally desirable that the majority in congress should be on the right side of the monetary question.

M'KINLEY IS THE MAN.

Best of all Ohio's sons, All the candidates outruns; Biggest gun of all the guns, Deny it if you can.

POLICY HOLDERS AND SILVER.

The excitement in Canada over the free silver agitation, as affecting life insurance held by the Canadian in comparison of the United States, is a very interesting illustration of its workings.

Plain Talk.

The Washington Post, in commenting upon Senator Palmer, the Indianapolis gold Democratic nominee for president, says that not only has the Indianapolis nominee out-Altgelded Altgeld and out-Tillmaned Tillman, but he has in the past been a vigorous advocate of silver.
