THE CONVENTION OF TURMOIL

Meeting of Chairman Garman's Happy Family a Lively Affair.

AN EFFORT TO OUST HARRITY

Nominations Made--The Speech of Captain John B. Keenan--Free Silver Advocates Largely in the Majority--Hard Knocks for the Jeffersonian Party.

Harrisburg, Sept. 10.--The Democratic state convention, which was reconvened today for the purpose of filling vacancies in the state ticket that have occurred since the Chicago convention...

The convention was in conformity therewith. The new platform endorsed Bryan and Sewall and pledged to them a "cordial, united and vigorous support." It accepts the Chicago declaration of principles as the "expression of opinion of the majority of the duly accredited representatives of the Democracy of the United States."

The two former were formally nominated for this office, and they may be accepted by the Populists in lieu of the district electors. Secretary Matt Savage, of the Democratic state committee, announced that if the four electors should be demanded it would be a question for the Democratic state executive committee to determine.

THE NOMINATIONS

The nominations made are as follows: Judge D. C. Dewitt, of Bradford county, and T. Allman, of Juniata county, congressmen-at-large. In succeed Benjamin C. Potts, of Adams, and John M. Braden, of Washington, resigned. Thomas Sterritt, of Erie, Louis N. Ireland, of Allegheny, for electors at large, and Dr. John J. Taylor, of Philadelphia, and Robert J. Thompson, of Indiana, for district electors.

AN EFFORT TO OUST HARRITY

An incident of the convention was the defeat of a resolution calling upon National Chairman Jones to oust William F. Harrity, of Philadelphia, as the national committee man from Pennsylvania and appoint a successor. "He will be in hearty sympathy with the Chicago ticket and platform." The convention was called to order in the opera house at 12:35 o'clock by State Chairman Garman. The lower portion of the auditorium was well filled, and later in the day the attendance was largely increased. Secretary Savage, of the state committee, read the call for the convention and also announced the selection by the executive committee of Captain John B. Keenan, of Greensburg, for temporary chairman. Captain Keenan was loudly applauded when he was introduced by Chairman Garman.

CAPTAIN KEENAN'S SPEECH

Captain Keenan began his address by thanking the convention for the honor it had conferred upon him. He thought, perhaps, he owed an apology to the convention because at the national convention he had disobeyed the instructions of the Allentown convention by voting in favor of a free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. He believed however, that the convention had forgiven him without the formality of an apology. The Chicago platform was reviewed, and then referring to the action of the gold Democrats in Pennsylvania informing the Jeffersonian party, Captain Keenan said:

"It is a doubtful question whether that party is the namesake of our great leader Thomas Jefferson or the namesake of Jefferson Davis. From their action in striving for Republican success, I am constrained to believe they

SONS OF VETERANS' CAMP.

Commander Russell's Recommendations Concerned In.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 10.--At this morning's session of commandery-in-chief of the Sons of Veterans, Commander Russell's recommendations that future encampments be held at the same time and place as those of the G. A. R., was concurred in, but it was not definitely settled this morning as to whether this should apply to next year's encampment, for which Indianapolis, Boston and Denver are striving. The commander-in-chief was given authority to appoint a committee of five to represent the organization at future G. A. R. encampments.

Indianapolis was chosen as the place at which the next encampment will be held. The election of officers resulted: James L. Baker, of Reading, Pa., commander-in-chief; L. P. Kennedy, of Colorado, senior vice-commander; R. M. Buckley, Jr., of Louisville, junior vice-commander. The new officers were immediately installed and the encampment adjourned sine die at 1:30 o'clock. Commander-in-chief Baker this afternoon announced the names of two members of the staff. They are H. A. Hammer, of Reading, Pa., to be adjutant general and A. R. Spin, of Providence, to be inspector general. At the afternoon session of the Ladies Aid society the following officers were elected: President, Miss Kate G. Raynor, of Toledo; vice-president, Mrs. J. W. Morgan, of Watervly, N. Y.; national council, Miss Margaret Cowley, of Illinois; Miss Eleanor Freeman, of Colorado; Miss Lizzie Lewis, of Pennsylvania; Mrs. E. H. R. Davis, Washington city; Mrs. Frances Arnold, of Missouri; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Landos, of Indiana; chaplain, Mrs. A. P. Davis, of Pennsylvania; chief of staff, Mrs. Pauline Buckley, of Louisville.

MR. M'KINLEY'S VISITORS.

List of Delegates That Will Call Upon Protection's Champion in Near Future.

Canton, O., Sept. 10.--Governor Lippitt of Rhode Island, telegraphed Major McKinley this evening that he would call on him with his staff tomorrow afternoon. Governor Bushnell will be here with his staff some time tomorrow and three delegations are scheduled to arrive during the day. Hon. W. A. Lynch, one of the most widely known Democratic lawyers in eastern Ohio, addressed the "Railroaders' Social" Monday night at the Tabernacle this evening. The great auditorium was crowded to the doors. Mr. Lynch made a stirring and money speech.

The following delegations have today signified their intention of visiting McKinley: Marshall, Mich., Republicans, September 15; Wheeling, of Toledo, Ohio, September 18; First Voters and Veterans of Muncie, Ind., September 22; Republicans of Oil City, Pa., September 24; Republicans of Lima, Ohio, September 26; Republicans of Chicago, Ill., September 27; Republicans of New York, Pa., September 29. Among McKinley's callers today were Hon. Charles S. Baker, of Rochester, N. Y., who lunched with him, and J. H. Shaw, of Philadelphia.

MANOEUVRES AT BERLIN.

Eighty Thousand Men, and Seven Thousand Horses in Action.

Berlin, Sept. 10.--Military manoeuvres were resumed today, both armies beginning to move at six o'clock in the morning. The right wing of the Prussians pressed the eighth Saxon division back upon Schaffhorst, whereupon the thirty-second Saxon division came to the aid of the eighth division and stayed the advance of the Prussians. In the meantime the right wing of the Saxon troops drove a wedge into the Prussian sixth arm corps while the extreme right of the Saxons outflanked the sixth corps of Prussians, forcing the latter under a cross fire at Kapschütz. At this juncture the commander called a halt and the sixth Prussian arm corps then reformed on the Waidhills and the operations were repeated. At 11 o'clock in the forenoon the Prussian sixth corps had driven back the Saxons left wing on the bases of Jenkowitz and Kaditz.

Huntingdon Centennial.

Huntingdon, Pa., Sept. 10.--This was the closing day of the Huntingdon centennial celebration. There was no abatement in the enthusiasm of the people nor any abatement of the number of visitors. The event of the day was the immense industrial parade. The parade covered a distance of four and a half miles and contained representations of many of the arts and trades.

Populists Indorse Bryan and Sewall.

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 10.--The Populist state convention with 300 delegates from all districts today unanimously endorsed the fusion ticket named by the Democrats at Ottumwa a month ago. The platform endorses Bryan and Sewall.

SENATOR QUAY HARD AT WORK

He is Pleased with the Effect of Mr. Hobart's Letter.

WILL MAKE VOTES IN NEW JERSEY

The Veterans Are Opposed to Silver. They Will Again Prove Their Patriotism by Voting Against the Vicious Chicago Platform.

New York, Sept. 10.--Senator Quay is pushing the campaign with his accustomed vigor, but is not making any noise over it. Today he looked contented at Republican national headquarters because he was highly pleased with the letter of acceptance of Vice-President Candidate Garret A. Hobart. Other Republicans who called on the senator declared it was a strong and able letter. Mr. Hobart, who came in before noon, was also congratulated by Mr. Quay and other members of the national committee. One Republican said: "Mr. Hobart's letter is a vote-making document. It should carry New Jersey by 10,000 or 20,000 votes. I believe it will."

The reports received from Maine indicate that Mr. Manley's predicted 20-cent majority for the Republicans is too conservative. Both the Democrats are making great efforts in the Pine Tree state, they seem to be losing ground every day the issue is discussed. Deios E. Culver, the promoter of the New York and New Jersey bridge across the Hudson river, and at present the civil engineer in charge of drawing plans for construction of the same, called on Mr. Hobart today. Speaking about the present political situation, he said: "I am a life-long Democrat, and I am a close and intimate friend of David R. Hill, but I cannot vote the Democratic ticket this year. I favor the ticket for Major McKinley, and shall advise all my friends to do the same. I believe, further, that there are 200,000 Democrats in the state of New York who, like me, will vote the Republican ticket this year. I want to see the dollar of the rich man. If we get free silver that will not be the case, for the reason that the one who has the dollar will lose. I have never voted any other ticket but the Democratic, but this time I vote the party ticket. I believe Mr. McKinley will win by a large majority."

DAKOTA OVER-CONFIDENCE.

Frank Hiseock, former United States senator, speaking of the situation today, said: "Over-confidence is our only danger. If the strong business men of the country are not deceived by the promising outlook and do not relax their efforts in supporting the work of the organization this election will be very easily won. The nominations at Indianapolis and the result of the election in Vermont have a tendency to create a feeling of confidence among these men, a belief that danger is past and that it is unnecessary to exert. It is a great mistake. Earnest work is necessary and is being done by the committees to the fullest degree in their power. Their efforts should be heartily supported, not only by those who usually do so, but by friends of the cause who do not ordinarily take much interest in public affairs. The danger of feeling all over the country is in our favor. So far as trade and general business are concerned, we are having very hard times in all sections. The people who are suffering are learning from experience, and they are coming away from their shortsightedness. There is no hope of any better times until the election of McKinley and Hobart instures a stable Republican administration on the lines of well-known Republican principles. This is true, and the people know it. Hence the change in our favor. While everything looks favorable, I must repeat that the greatest danger is from over-confidence on the part of those who should come forward to give us vigorous aid."

Minneapolis, Sept. 10.--The Improved Order of Red Men, in session in this city, elected officers today: Grand Inchoane, R. T. Daniel, of Griffin, Pa.; great senior, G. E. Green, Binghamton, N. Words of a Democrat.

Andrew Jackson, in his first message, as President, said: "A depreciation of the currency is always attended by a loss to the laboring classes. This portion of the community have neither time nor opportunity to watch the ebbs and flows of the money market. Engaged from day to day in their useful toils, they do not perceive that, although their wages are nominally the same, or even somewhat higher, they are greatly reduced, in fact, by the rapid increase of currency, which, as it appears to make money abundant, they are at first inclined to consider a blessing."

GLADSTONE'S OPINIONS.

He Emphatically Condemns the Sultan of Turkey and the European Powers.

London, Sept. 10.--A few days ago Mr. Gladstone was requested to address a mass meeting to be held at Liverpool for the purpose of condemning the sultan of Turkey for permitting the massacres of Armenians. In reply to the request Mr. Gladstone has written a letter in which he says: "My opinions of the great assassin and of the disgrace the European powers have allowed him to bring upon them are well known to my countrymen, but I do not think that benefit would accrue from my taking part in meetings, however valuable and even obligatory such meetings may be for those still engaged in the duties of public life."

SULTAN MAY BE DEPOSED.

The Powers are Seriously Considering the Step--Fiat of Sheikh-Ul-Islam is Necessary.

London, Sept. 10.--It is reported that a private despatch arrived here tonight from Constantinople confirming the rumors recently current that the powers are seriously considering the question of deposing the sultan. It is added that important developments are expected from the probable action of the Sheikh-Ul-Islam, whose fiat is necessary for the legal removal of the Caliph.

VOICE FROM WOOLFERT'S ROOST.

David B. Hill Declines to Become a Delegate to State Convention. Albany, Sept. 10.--The following telegram was received by Hon. Norton Chase, chairman of the county committee, today:

Long Beach Depot, L. I., Sept. 10. To Hon. Norton Chase, Chairman County Committee, Albany: I have been elected delegate to the Third Albany district to state convention under instructions to vote for the endorsement of Hon. McKinley and Hobart. This action is taken in opposition to my wishes and judgment as expressed to you yesterday and I decline to accept the election unless you consent to them that I will restrict my freedom at Buffalo to act in such manner as I consider best for the interest of my party. David B. Hill. (Signed)

M'KINLEY MEETING.

Cheers for Hon. T. V. Powderly at the Cooper Union. New York, Sept. 10.--A largely attended mass meeting under the auspices of the McKinley league of the state of New York was held tonight in Cooper Union in advocacy of sound money and protection to American industries. The audience was a mixed one, there being many present not in accord with the object of the meeting, as was evidenced from the shouts and cries of the McKinley league of the state of New York. This was especially so when the name of Powderly was mentioned. The latter was the orator of the evening and three cheers were given him when he was introduced, followed by three more for Sovereign.

NEW TRIAL WANTED.

Alleged Murderers of Bonneka Take Advantage of Hildebrandt's Confession. Hollidaysburg, Pa., Sept. 10.--James Farrell and Frank Wilson, the convicted murderers of Henry Bonneka, an agent Altoona miner, petitioned the Blair county court today for a new trial on the grounds of after discovered evidence that is conclusive of their innocence. John F. Weller, warden of the Maryland penitentiary, at Baltimore, and John Williams, a convict, testified that Henry Hildebrandt, another convict, had confessed to them that he was the real murderer and that he had also robbed the dead man of $10,000, which he had buried under a pile of stones along the Pennsylvania railroad, near Johnstown, Pa. This startling confession was made by Hildebrandt last month and he was committed inside in the penitentiary the same day through remorse. A knit jacket supposed to have belonged to Bonneka was worn by Hildebrandt.

Rioting Miners.

Leadville, Co., Sept. 10.--A party of union miners attacked the residence of a man at the shaft house of the Colorado mines this evening, painfully wounding two of them, but their injuries are not of a serious nature. This was the only foundation for the reports sent out from here that there had been a riot and several killed.
