are the namesake of the latter. These gentlemen, (the Jeffersonian party), also refused to associate with us politically because they say we have criticised the Supreme court of the United States. We have not criticised that court as severely as the members of the court have criticised themselves by their opinions in the income tax case. It is no new thing for the American people to criticise their judges and their courts, We all remember how the Whigs, Abolitionists and Republicans criticised Chief Justice Taney in the Dred Scott decision. We all remember how the Democracy of the union and every honored man in the union criticised the members of the Supreme court who formed part of the electoral commission. These judges are the creatures of the people. The income tax law was not overthrown during the war; and by this very supreme court it was at first pronounced constitutional. Afterwards by the vote of one man their action was reversed and the law pronounced unconstitutional. No one knows who this one man was who changed his mind and overthrew this law. The Democratic party believe it was a just law and the people believe it was a just law. The gentlemen who criticise us for upholding an income tax are accustomed to hold up to our admiration the laws of England, Germany and other European | tered but a few sentences, however, the nations. upon the fusion of the silver people in If the Populists of the south, he de- he handed the formal protest to Chairclared, were good enough for the Republicans to fuse with , surely the Populists of the west and north are good enough for the Democracy to take the same course. The Democracy in Pennsylvania, he continued, have one common enemy to fight and there is no reason why they should divide their forces and fight separately. The Populists of Pennsylvania were characterized as the plain and common people of the state and he said it was time for the Democracy to retrace its steps and be again the party of the people. In the great days of Democracy in Pennsylvania it had always been the party of the people, representing them and their interests closely. Ill-gotten capital has stopped all the mouths of the leaders of the Republican party in Pennsylvania and made it impossible for them to fight the battle of the people.

The chairman stated that while the platform of the Republican party pronounced in favor of international bimetallism, its orators and allies all spoke and worked in favor of gold monometallism. Bimetallism had been the system of this country for eighty years and "had been filched away from us." The Democracy, he declared, proposed to restore that system with or without the consent of any other people. In conclusion, Captain Keenan said that he believed a bright future for the Democracy, nov that it had come in close touch with the people. With the friends of silver united against McKinlevism and Republicanism he believed the congressional, senatorial, legislative and local county tickets would be greatly benefitted and that the Democracy of the Union would be encouraged to know that the Democracy of Pennsylvania was a unit for the Chicago platform and the Chicago ticket.

ROLL OF DELEGATES.

The roll of delegates was then called. When Lancaster county was reached, ex-State Printer J. Hayes Grier, of that county, protested against Guy W. Ferguson being allowed to sit as a substitute for William B. Given, of Columbia. Mr. Grier declared that Ferguson is an employe of Given and that the latter should not be accorded a seat because he is state chairman of the Jeffersonian (gold Democratic) party. The matter was referred to the committee on credentials. The call of the roll proceeded slowly and when it was concluded. Walter E. Ritter, of Lycoming, moved that the appointment of committees on credentials resolutions and permanent organization be dispensed with. This was opposed by W. J. Brennan, of Allegheny, and others, and there was somewhat of a turmoil over the matter. Finally, a rising vote was taken and Ritter's motion was lost. The committee were then named.

At 2:05 p. m. a recess was taken until It was 3:35 o'clock when the convention reconvened. The committee on permanent organization reported that Temporary Chairman Keenan be made the permanent chairman and this was adopted. The committee on credentials reported that William B. Given, of the third district of Lancaster county, and his substitute, Guy W. Ferguson, be unseated because they are not in sympathy with the platform adopted in Chicago and are in favor of a ticket lately nominated at Indianapolis, and that Dr. William B. Thompson be seated in his stead. It also reported that George B. Wilson of the first district of Lancaster county be unsented for the same reason and that Dr. Charles Myers be seated in his place. In conformity with a resolution passed at the recent Democratic county convention in Delaware county the committee further reported in favor of seating Charles Crawford, John J. Buckley, Michael Cronin and F. P. Holland in place of B. M. Custer, Thomas J. Osborne, Tyron Lewis and F. F. Walker. The report was enthusiastically adopted. The report of the committee on resolutions (the platform) was read by Walter E. Ritter of Leoming.

THE PLATFORM.

The platform is as follows:

Resolved, That this convention cordially the nomination of William J. Bryan, of Nebraska, for president, and Arthur Sewall, of Maine, for vice president, made by the Democratic national convention recently assembled at Chicago and pledge to them a cordial, united and vig-

Resolved, That inasmuch as the delegates from this state participated in the proceedings of that convention from the beginning to the end, the Democracy of Pennsylvania is thereby bound by its action and recognizes the true and primary principle of Democracy that the will of the majority shall rule. Resolved, That we affirm our belief that he election of William J. Bryan and Hon, Arthur Sewall will emphasize the fact that a government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth.

SCENES OF DISORDER.

When the adoption of the platform was called for, Robert E. James, of Northampton, mounted the stage and started to address the convention in opposition to the resolutions. Mr. James held in his hand a formal protest which was drawn up by the gold Democrats, but such an exciting scene developed that he did not read. had spoken but a few words, which were to the effect that his remarks would be distasteful to the majority of the delegates, when there were loud cries of "shut him up." "He's no Democrat," "He's a friend of McKinley," and like remarks. The delegates were soon in turmeil, and the chairman and State Chairman Garman tried in vain, for fifteen minutes, to restore order. The delegates stood in their seats and in the aisles and yelled derisively at Mr. James, but throughout the ordeal he stood unmoved. Finally the delegates became partially quiet and the speaker resumed. When he had utpandemonium breke out afresh and with renew vigor. THE PROTEST OFFERED. To the reconvened Democratic state convention of Pennsylvania: On behalf of those whom we represent enter our earnest protest against the action of this body accomplished and proposed. We protest against the unlawful or-ganization of this body in violation of party rules and against your arbi-trary action in unseating lawful dele-gates for the offence of fidelity to Democratic principles and the substi-tution of others whose only claim to recognition lies in their abandonment of Democratic doctrines. We especially protest against your substitution of the so-called Chicago platform for the Allentown declaration of prin-

We conceive the declarations of the Chicago convention to be unpatriotic, vicious and un-Democratic. On all Tilden and Cleveland our party has maintained an unbroken front in the battle for sound money, correct financial principles and the sanctity and inviolability of private and public ob-ligations. All the legislation to be found on the federal statute books, securing the blessings of sound currency to our people is the fruit of Democratic thought and enacted by Democratic administration. The resolutions were then adopted by a vote intermingled with cheers. Ex-Congressman W. H. Sowden, of Allentown, next offered the resolution to oust Mr. Harrity as the Pennsylvania national committeeman. It read:

BURNED TO DEATH.

Terrible Tragedy at Jermyn---Mrs. Robert Cox the Victim of Fire. Julia Hendricks Injured.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Jermyn, Sept. 10 .- A most distressing accident occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cox, on Second street, shortly after 7 o'clock, Wednesday evening, through the upsetting and explosion of a lighted lamp. As a result, Mrs. Cex was so severely burned that death relieved her of her sufferings shortly after 11 o'clock, Wednesday evening, and Julia, the bright little four-year-old daughter of Postmaster F. A. Hendricks, was severely burned about the face and hands. The dwelling was also set on fire and but for the timely arrival of Crystal Fire company would have been destroyed. A Big Barge Goes Down with 2,500 Tons of Coal.

New York, Sept. 10 .- The large ocean going tug Underwriter came into the lower bay early this morning and anchored the barge Mercedita, which she had in tow, off Liberty Island. The Underwriter left Philadelphia on Monday, having in tow the coal barges Mercedita for Boston and the Jersey Belle for Providence. Yesterday morning about 10 o'clock, 16 miles north northeast of Absecrom, the rafts encountered a very heavy sea, which tore off the tarpulin and hatchway of the Jersey Belle and she sank in a few min-
