Lewis Thomas Injured.

An injury which nearly resulted in the death of Lewis Thomas, of Simpson, occurred at the Northwest mines. Thomas, who is employed as a rope runner, went down the plane in a car and while getting out the rope was suddenly lighted, throwing the unfortunate man with great force against a pillar. He struck on his head and was rendered unconscious. There are many cuts on the body and a large one on the head, but it is thought he will recover.

Silk Mill Opened.

The silk mill, which has been shut down on account of the great depression in trade, has reopened. This is a sign of better times, as the silk trade is one which is easily affected. The outlook at present, however, is very bright, new hands are now being taught. There are now about 120 hands at work and about 70 more will be added as soon as they become skillful enough.

Hospital Benefit Abandoned.

If a kindness is given in this city during the fall it will not be for the benefit of the hospital. The directors do not think the returns will be large enough to pay for the trouble, although the hospital is sadly in need of funds. It will probably, however, the kindness will be held, as the actor has taken such a hold that it will not be abandoned.

Slowness Is Expensive.
Some people always delay selecting their Fall Suits until the large assortment which we prepare has been depleted of its choicest lots and the season is so far advanced that they don't get full benefit of them. A great mistake. Don't allow yourself to be among the procrastinators this season. Come early—if only to look—and you can buy early as well as not.
OUR CREDIT SYSTEM
Makes it easy for you to dress well at times when you are not "flush." If your chances are good for being able to pay up in a reasonable length of time, credit costs you nothing, we grant credit as an accommodation; don't charge you any more than if you had millions. Talk with us about it.
