

GOSSIP OF THE SOCIAL WORLD

Many interesting events were conducted during the week.

NIGHT EXCURSION TO LAKE ARIEL

Attended by a Large Number of Society Folk--Dr. Hill Entertains His Friends at His Lodge on the Boulevard--Peck-Mott Nuptials, Movements of Well Known Persons During Week.

That was a most enjoyable entertainment furnished a party of friends by Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Hill, Wednesday night at their woodland hut "Vogel Otter" on Elmhurst boulevard, "Vogel Otter" means "wooden shanty." It is a cheaply built, come again where its owner and family go almost daily for a few hours' sylvan retreat. On the night in question the guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Lemuel Amerman, ex-Senator and Mrs. M. E. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. John Kemmerer, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Mears, Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Everhardt, Mr. and Mrs. John Fritz, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heyer, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. White, Mrs. Katharine Wilcox, Mrs. Josephine Koons, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Kemmerer and John T. Richards. They danced to music furnished by a violinist, Italian guitarist, and fiddler on horn, pumpkin pie, baked clams and the like. The hut and its surroundings were lighted by scores of Chinese lanterns and bonfires. It was an early hour Thursday morning before the merry-makers returned to the city.

Miss Agnes Easterly and William L. Pryor were married Wednesday evening by Rev. Rogers Israel, of St. Luke's Episcopal church, at the home of the bride's brother, George Easterly, on North Summer avenue. Only the immediate relatives were present. The groom is the Lehigh Valley company's passenger representative in this city.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Carrie Muller, of Lowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio T. Fellows, and Harry K. Kitchin, of Acker, on the evening of Sept. 23 at the bride's home.

Miss Lydia Moore and Thomas Myers, each of Green Ridge, were married in the church of the Good Shepherd Wednesday by the pastor, Rev. Frank S. Ballentine.

The Country club is not wasting time. A professional golf player, Thomas Bendelow, has been engaged to coach members beginning today and during all of next week. He is a Scot and an athlete of Spaulding's sporting goods house and has been engaged in laying out the golf links on the broad stretch of country about the Country club's home. It is quite likely that a golf tournament will begin on some day late next week. A tennis tournament will begin on the club courts next Thursday morning. The events will consist of men's singles and doubles. There will be no mixed or ladies events.

A large party of young people, well known in the social element, went to Lake Ariel in a special Erie and Westinghouse train Thursday night and at the lake danced and made merry until after midnight. They were accompanied by some of Bauer's musicians and Hanley, the caterer. In the company were those from out of town: The Misses Usher, of Goshen, N. J.; Miss Gould, Seneca Falls; Miss Waring, Plainfield, N. J.; Miss Kaufman, Lancaster; Miss Bradford, New York city; Miss Wilkes, Newburgh; Miss Vaughan, Wilkes-Barre; James Gould, Seneca Falls; Augustus Huntington, Plainfield; Vivian Spencer, New York city; Louis Billings, New York city; Mr. Bradshaw, New York city.

Descendants of two of Scranton's oldest families, the Motts and the Pecks, were the principals in a wedding on the West Side Thursday noon, when Miss Helen Mott, daughter of Mrs. Harriet C. Mott, became the wife of Attorney George Luther Peck. The event was a fashionable one and took place in the Simpson Methodist church. The groom's father, Rev. Luther Peck, officiated. Miss Florence Madeline Gibbs, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. H. Gibbs, was bridesmaid and Albert H. Turner was best man. Miss Mott's gown was of white mauve tulle with white satin trimmings. She carried white asters. Miss Gibbs wore a gown of green satin. Honorary ushers were: Attorney Holden Kingsbury, Frank H. Hagen, Frederick Peck, of Scranton, and Luther Williams, of Binghamton.

Miss Kathryn A. Gredner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Greiner, of Green Ridge, will be married at 8 o'clock on the night of Sept. 23 to Charles B. Elston, of Dunmore, in the church of the Good Shepherd.

Miss Agnes MacKay, of Adams avenue, Dunmore, was tendered a surprise party by the following persons: Mr. and Mrs. James Mac Kay, Rev. John Dunn, of the Adams avenue mission of the church; Mrs. H. Volz, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Puller, of Dalton; Mrs. A. Dunn, Miss Jessie Gallately, Elizabeth Hazleton, Rebecca Creighton, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Miss Williams, Agnes Harvey, Bella Hazleton, Grace Pomeroy, Albert Bryant and Homer Gavitt, Albert Bartz, Edward Squires, Herbert De Witt, Benjamin Peffer, Arthur Dunn, Alex. MacKay, Wallace and John Mac Kay.

Professor E. E. Southworth entertained the members of St. John's church choir at his studio on Wyoming avenue Wednesday evening. Those present were: Misses Katie Coyne, Margaret Roche, Katie Donahue, Winifred Melvin, Maud McGuire, Julia Kelly, Anna Durkin, Bessie Burns, Jenny Gavin, Mabel Hastings, Kate Winfield and Belinda Durkin. Miss Riley, Maud Cullen; Messrs. John Troy, James Mangan, John E. Coyne, Thomas Needam and Dennis F. Crolly.

The following party explored the workings of the Hyde Park mine Monday night: Mr. and Mrs. John S. G. of Division street; Messrs. Sarah and Anna Smith, of New York city; Harry and John Hansen, of Philadelphia; Miss Lizzie Reese, of Shenandoah; Miss Emma Wilkes, Miss Mattie Wilkes, Walter Jones and David James, of Scranton.

The following tendered a birthday surprise party to Miss Libbie Lutz, at her home on Prospect avenue, Tuesday night: Mr. and Mrs. William Baumgartner, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bellerheim, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Belerheim, Dora Forkel, Emma and Lillie Forkel, Minnie Hahn, Anna Belerheim, Martha Spindler, Ada Reidenbach, Maggie Brel, William and John Ziesler, John Lewert, Fred Shincman, Charles Belerheim, William Botke.

In honor of her guests, Miss Laura Fisher and Miss Anna Dell, of Philadelphia, Miss Lavina Schnell, gave a souvenir tea party Tuesday afternoon at her home on West Lackawanna avenue. Those who attended it were: Miss Lena Robinson, Miss Edith Wagner, Miss May Speicher, Miss Mame Rosar, Miss Anna Weiss, Miss Laura Fischer, Miss Anna Dell, Miss Anna Clauss, of Elizabeth, N. J.; Mrs. A. W. W. and Miss Lavina Schnell. Mrs. Schnell was assisted in receiving by her sister, Mrs. J. W. Warnke. Each lady present was presented with an appropriate souvenir.

Tuesday evening a very pleasant party was given in honor of the Misses Beatrice and Eva Tovel at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tovel, of Erie street. It was attended by Misses Mame Drew, Grace Drew, Edith Taylor, Winnie McGurt, Anna M. Jakes, Minnie Beam, Emma Dolling, Mabel Walker, Dollie Tovel, Martie Tovel, Alberta Drew, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tovel, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Drew, Mr. and Mrs. E. Teal, Mr. and Mrs. Dingsbury, Mrs. Hogan; Messrs. H. Frable, Charles H. Sliger, Iver Tovel, Fred Canine, Samuel M. Drew, Bert Adams, Bert Henway, Bruce Miller, Frank Smith, Columbus White and Percival Tovel.

Miss Mame McGuire, of Cayuga street, was tendered a pleasant surprise party by a number of her friends Wednesday evening.

Miss Jennie Howell, of Scranton street, entertained the following with a progressive euchre party Thursday evening at her home on Scranton street: Misses August Blair, Lizzie Heermans, Emma Lewis, Della Penwarden, Mrs. Crittenden, Mrs. Charles Burr, Mrs. Thomas Richards, Mrs. P. R. Struppier, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. William Price, Jr.

The Misses Woodward entertained a few of their friends last evening in honor of their guest, Sylvester Bretz, of Mauch Chunk. Those present were the Misses Seward, Sloan, Sotly, Hannes, Richards, Mame Hannes, Florence Seward, Messrs. Fellows, Beavers, Jeremiah, Stanton, Bishop, Reinhardt, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Heckel, Mrs. Bretz, of Mauch Chunk, and Miss Anthony, of Camden, N. J.

The Green Ridge Wheelmen gave a smoker last night. Peter Schoppert, A. E. Morse and John A. Foote with their mandolins and guitars furnished music. There were about one hundred present.

PERSONAL MENTION:

P. Davidson has returned from a visit to Boston and New York. Miss Hand is back from the seashore looking well and "brown as a berry." The Misses Grace and Edith Norton are back from Long Island Sound, where they spent August with relatives and had a delightful and charming vacation. Rev. C. E. Robinson, D. D., pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, is in Blairstown, N. J., today attending the funeral of Miss Emma Vail. He will return to the city this evening. Dr. E. D. Fellows, John Smith and wife, Dr. G. E. Dean, D. E. Taylor, Newton Jackson and Charles J. Welch returned from the St. Denis in New York last week.

Robert E. Wilson, of Spruce street, is in the city. Miss Anna Robinson is visiting Mrs. Peter J. Hughes, of Philadelphia. Mrs. A. H. Winton and Miss Elsiebeth Winton are visiting in the city. Miss Barbara O'Malley, of the Telephone exchange, has returned from her vacation. Alderman Howe will attend the reunion of the "Old Guard" at Hixley today. Miss Alice and Jeanne McDonnell, of Olive street, are spending two weeks at Lake Ariel.

Dr. Thomas, of Wilkes-Barre, was the guest of Mrs. Williams, of South Main avenue, yesterday.

Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Steane, of Danville, have returned to that place after a visit with friends in Philadelphia.

Miss Elizabeth Bishop and Miss Edith Dutton, of Burlington, N. J., are the guests of Mrs. Reynolds, of North Main street.

Dr. D. H. Thomas of Allentown, McDowell county, West Virginia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Williams, of South Main street.

Mrs. George Silashe, formerly of Scranton, but now a resident of San Antonio, Texas, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Kellam, of 109 Linden street.

Oscar Oswald, of the West Side, is in the city. Miss Skellenger, of Price street, is visiting in Port Jervis, N. Y.

Miss Katie Salty, of West Market street, is visiting Carbondale friends. Grant Sedgwick, of West Market street, is home from a week's visit in Honesdale.

Miss Phoebe Englet, of Butler street, Dunmore, has returned from Hollister, N. Y.

Mrs. W. J. Davis, of Warren street, spent the past two weeks at the seashore.

George Saxo, of North Hyde Park avenue, is home from a business trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Robinson, of the South side, are home from Manhattan Beach.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

Understand M. F. Wymbs, of Jackson street, spent a few days during the week in New York on business.

NEWS CULLED IN RELIGIOUS FIELD

Anniversary Services in St. Mark's Lutheran Church, West Side.

SKETCH OF THE ORGANIZATION

Convention of the Luther League. Rev. William Shawger Will Speak in the Railroad Department of the Y. M. C. A.--Services That Will Be Held Tomorrow in the Churches.

St. Mark's Lutheran church had a busy week this week last Sunday the church was five years old, and in commemoration of the anniversary, the pastor, Rev. A. L. Ramer, presided over special services. Then, on Thursday, the church had as its guests, the delegates in attendance at the annual convention of the Luther League of Northern Pennsylvania. The convention was held at the church, corner of Fourteenth and Washburn streets. There were twenty-seven delegates in attendance. The history of St. Mark's is one of a conquest over difficulties. Moved with the conviction that the time had come to establish an English Lutheran church in West Scranton, the initiators steps were taken on April 5, 1891, by Rev. E. L. Miller, pastor of Holy Trinity church. On that day a Sunday school was organized in Co-operative hall, 126 North Main avenue, with thirty-five persons who declared their intention of uniting regularly with the school. At the second session, on April 12, it was determined to name the new organization St. Mark's Sunday school. The work prospered from the beginning. People who had before been affiliated with the Lutheran church came to the notice of the leaders, and the prospect brightened week after week. On the evening of June 29 a hopeful and zealous little band of Lutherans were gathered at the residence of J. J. Seeger, on Price street. Fifteen persons signed a paper declaring that it was the desire of the subscribers to organize an Evangelical Lutheran church and to establish the same on the West Side.

On the first Sunday in July, 1891, Rev. Miller began a course of divine services in St. David's hall, 113 N. Main avenue, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. On Sept. 1, 1891, at a meeting of the church council of Holy Trinity church, the following persons were, at their own request, transferred to unite with the proposed Evangelical Lutheran St. Mark's congregation: Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Moser, Gideon Moser, Mrs. George Alsbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Seeger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Magnus Nelson. With these twelve members as a nucleus the organization of St. Mark's congregation was effected Sept. 7, 1891. On Feb. 19, 1893, the first meeting was held at the new hall, corner Main and Price streets. The membership at this time was 58. The present pastor was the first in charge of the church. Mr. Ramer accepted a call extended to him on April 8, 1895. The membership of the church is 172 at the present time. Mr. Ramer is an enthusiast and his constant attention to the church has firmly established it. It is a young church, but its future path seems to lead to greater work in the religious field.

The names of a number of notables appear in the list of speakers who will be heard during the approaching state convention of Christian Endeavor societies in this city. The list was prepared by the state officers: Rev. Dr. J. T. McCreary, of Pittsburg, president, and George McDonald, of Altoona, secretary. Among the speakers will be: Rev. W. H. McMillan, D. D., Allegheny; Rev. J. H. McGinn, Lewisburg; Rev. H. T. Spangler, Pittsburg; Rev. Wallace MacMullen, Philadelphia; Rev. E. T. Jeffers and Rev. E. C. Enders, New York; Rev. Dr. Stewart, Harrisburg; Wilbur F. Crafts, Washington, D. C.; Rev. J. W. Menninger, Lancaster; William Shaw, of Boston, treasurer of the United Society; J. Howard Reed and H. C. Lincoln, Philadelphia; Henry Grumond, Chambersburg; Fred C. Brittain, Pittsburg.

With a service in Elm Park church on the afternoon of Tuesday, the 6th, the convention will open. There will be evening services in the Frothingham theater and the Academy of Music. The responses to the addresses of welcome will be made by Rev. George B. Stewart, D. D., of Harrisburg; Rev. Charles Roads, D. D., of Philadelphia; Rev. J. F. Hartman, of Altoona.

The state headquarters will be at the Hotel Terrace, Philadelphia headquarters at the Hotel Terrace and Pittsburgh headquarters at the St. Charles hotel.

The Women's Christian Temperance union on Tuesday elected Mrs. C. D. Simpson, president; Mrs. F. C. Vail, vice-president; Mrs. Fannie Raub, recording secretary; Mrs. Emily Smith, corresponding secretary. Mrs. George L. Fields, delegate to the state convention to be held at Pittsburg, Oct. 6, and Miss Fannie Raub, alternate.

According to the report of Superintendent Barnhart there were 833 meetings held at the Rescue Mission and attended by over 12,000 persons during the year that ended September 1; 59 professed conversion; free lodging was furnished 456 men; 8 open-air meetings were held during July and August at Noy Ark park and were attended by over 5,500 persons. It is proposed to open branch missions during the winter.

A sample of Scranton's charity was the amount of the cash contributions through the board of trade and the Catholic churches and societies for the families of the miners killed in the Twin shaft mine horror. The board of trade has received $16,000 early in the week, which, with the Catholic contributions of about $5,000, will form a large and gratifying portion of the $20,000, which, it is estimated, will be the whole total of the main fund.

The evangelists Russell and Smith, whose teaching have created such a stir among the people in the vicinity of Eynon street and South Main avenue, have transferred their services to Beer's Hall on North Main avenue and Lafayette street where their opening service was held last Wednesday night with good attendance. Their Sunday services will be held at the usual hour, 2:30 and 7:30. Interesting subjects involving the living issues of the day, will be presented. All are invited.

Miss Schuyler, secretary of the Board of Home Missions, will address the Sunday afternoon meeting at the

THE GREAT FIRE SALE AT THE LEADER

124 AND 126 WYOMING AVE., IS NOW AT ITS HEIGHT.

We call special attention to our patrons and the public in general that we are continually placing additional stock on sale and we have cut the prices deeper and deeper. We have an extra force of people who work from 6 o'clock until midnight arranging stock and marking the goods down and having them ready for sale for the following day. Judging from the immense throngs that crowd our store, the public is more than pleased with the bargains we are giving them.

LEBECK & CORIN

Young Women's Christian association rooms, 205 Washington avenue, at 3:45. Every woman and girl should hear her. Mrs. Brewster, Miss Huber, Miss Kann and Miss Davis will sing.

Rev. William Shawger, pastor of the Baptist church of Dover, N. J., will deliver an address at the Railroad Department Young Men's Christian association tomorrow afternoon at 3:45 o'clock. Mr. Shawger was formerly employed in the Delaware Lackawanna and Western car shops in this city and was converted through the Railroad department when their rooms were over John T. Porter's store on lower Lackawanna avenue. Mr. Shawger was also employed in the boiler shop of the Dickson Manufacturing company. The meeting is for railroad men and their families and a special invitation is extended to Mr. Shawger's friends in the Dickson works. Special music will be provided.

The Hyde Park Volunteers have secured permanent quarters for their work. They have rented a large store in the Mears' block, 133 South Main avenue, and will hold the first service led by Staff Captain Locke, on Sunday at 10:30 a. m. At 4 o'clock there will be a Christian's praise service, and at 8 o'clock a. m. Mr. Curry will speak in the revival service. Tonight the Volunteers hold a social to enable them to purchase the stars and stripes and the Volunteer standard. The social will be held at 7 o'clock in the vacant store corner Main avenue and Price street. A large number of tickets have been sold and given to poor children and an enjoyable evening is anticipated.

RELIGIOUS NEWS NOTES. A new organ has been placed in the auditorium of the Jackson Street Baptist church.

The Sunday school of the Jackson Street Baptist church plenished at Noy Ark park yesterday.

A geographical entertainment was held at the Jackson Street Baptist church Wednesday night.

Rev. D. Jones, pastor of the Welsh Calvinistic church, officiated at a funeral at Clifford Tuesday.

The funeral of the late Rev. William H. Williams, of Wilkes-Barre, took place Monday. He was well known in the city.

Bishop O'Hara will on Sunday, September 29, at 3 p. m., lay the cornerstone of the Church of St. Lawrence O'Toole at Old Forge. Rev. J. F. Jordan is rector of the new church.

Rev. John Griffiths has returned from a stay in the farming region about Crystal Lake. He will occupy his pulpit at the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church tomorrow at the usual hours.

Rev. L. C. Floyd, D. D., presiding elder of the Binghamton district of the Wyoming conference, was in Scranton yesterday. Dr. Floyd, until last April, was pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church of the West Side.

Green Ridge United Evangelical church--G. L. Maloe, pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. K. L. C. E. at 6:30 p. m. Strangers welcome.

Green Ridge Baptist church--Preaching by the pastor at 10:30 a. m. The service at 7:30 p. m. will be held under the auspices of the Women's Missionary society. Miss Residue, missionary to Kiowa Indians, will deliver an address.

Puritan Congregational church, Providence--Rev. Newman Matthews, pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Evening subject, "Christ's Challenge to the Unwashed Forces of the Church." A large attendance is desired.

All Souls Universalist church--Pine street. Rev. F. W. Whipple, pastor. Morning subject, "Service and Sacrifice." Evening subject, "Our Knowledge in Part."

Green Ridge United Evangelical church--G. L. Maloe, pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. K. L. C. E. at 6:30 p. m. Strangers welcome.

Green Ridge Baptist church--Preaching by the pastor at 10:30 a. m. The service at 7:30 p. m. will be held under the auspices of the Women's Missionary society. Miss Residue, missionary to Kiowa Indians, will deliver an address.

Puritan Congregational church, Providence--Rev. Newman Matthews, pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Evening subject, "Christ's Challenge to the Unwashed Forces of the Church." A large attendance is desired.

All Souls Universalist church--Pine street. Rev. F. W. Whipple, pastor. Morning subject, "Service and Sacrifice." Evening subject, "Our Knowledge in Part."

Green Ridge United Evangelical church--G. L. Maloe, pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. K. L. C. E. at 6:30 p. m. Strangers welcome.

Green Ridge Baptist church--Preaching by the pastor at 10:30 a. m. The service at 7:30 p. m. will be held under the auspices of the Women's Missionary society. Miss Residue, missionary to Kiowa Indians, will deliver an address.

Puritan Congregational church, Providence--Rev. Newman Matthews, pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Evening subject, "Christ's Challenge to the Unwashed Forces of the Church." A large attendance is desired.

All Souls Universalist church--Pine street. Rev. F. W. Whipple, pastor. Morning subject, "Service and Sacrifice." Evening subject, "Our Knowledge in Part."

Green Ridge United Evangelical church--G. L. Maloe, pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. K. L. C. E. at 6:30 p. m. Strangers welcome.

Green Ridge Baptist church--Preaching by the pastor at 10:30 a. m. The service at 7:30 p. m. will be held under the auspices of the Women's Missionary society. Miss Residue, missionary to Kiowa Indians, will deliver an address.

Puritan Congregational church, Providence--Rev. Newman Matthews, pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Evening subject, "Christ's Challenge to the Unwashed Forces of the Church." A large attendance is desired.

All Souls Universalist church--Pine street. Rev. F. W. Whipple, pastor. Morning subject, "Service and Sacrifice." Evening subject, "Our Knowledge in Part."

Green Ridge United Evangelical church--G. L. Maloe, pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. K. L. C. E. at 6:30 p. m. Strangers welcome.