COURT NEWS.

The grand jury will meet at 10 o'clock this morning in common council chamber, City hall, and all having business with this branch of the court will put in an appearane there. District Attorney John R. Jones will use the committee room for his private office. Equity court will convene in the arbitration room of the court house, until the United States court room is secured. Postmaster Vandling was informed from Washington Saturday that permission will be granted for the conflict with any session of United States court, but the attorney general has not given his official sanction yet The order is looked for by tomorrow.

On Saturday an equity suit was commenced in court by Mrs. Mary Lally, of Old Forge, against Patrick and Mary Moran, of that place also. Her claim is that in 1887 conjointly with the defendants, she purchased a lot from J. W. Fallon; but that Mrs. Moran fradulently conspired to have the deed made out in her name and that she and Moran are now about to sell it and deprive her of her interest. The court is asked to interpose.

THE GREAT CAMPAIGN OF

MILLION patriotic voters have recognized the confusion of our public politics, and are determined toinform themselves, and stand like patriots in the hour of their peril and vote to the best of their knowledge, for the best interests of the common people of the whole country. It means further that every voter wants to know, not only the doctrines of his own party, but the views of all other parties and the reason for the differences-Gold, Silver, Tariff and Free Trade. To this end we have secured a complete handbook of public political information, edited by Lawrence F, Prescott, WHICH WE WILL PRESENT TO
