WEST SIDE EVENTS.

C. L. Beers Joins the Adventists and Closes His Store on Saturday Until Sunset.

"This store will close from Friday at sunset until Saturday at sunset, in observance of the Lord's Sabbath Day." Thus reads a placard in the window of a harware store on North Main avenue owned by C. L. Beers. It was a genuine surprise to the many who have dealt with Mr. Beers, and no little comment is the result of his action.

The Seventh Day Adventists pitched a tent recently on South Main avenue, and the proprietor of the hardware store became a regular attendant. At length he decided to follow the teachings of the Adventists and ne now closes his store at that creeds' appointed hour. MEETING OF DEBATERS.

One of the most enjoyable and instructive sessions in the history of the Hyde Park Literary and Debating society was held at the Welsh Philosophical society's rooms last evening. The attendance was large and the subfects brought before the society were handled in a most intelligent and enthusiastic manner. The programme consisted of a talk on George Meredith the novelist and poet, by the Rev. John Griffiths, and a paper on "Society Work" by John York. The society changed its night of meeting from Monday to Wednesday. Thomas J. Davis was elected a member of the society.

WHO IS TO BLAME?

A well-known West Side woman living near Bellevue Heights, yesterday asked a Traction company conductor to deliver to the occupants of a house along the line a package containing costly dress goods. The conductor said yes and the bundle was placed on the back seat, under his very eyes. A few hours afterward the woman asked this same conductor what had become of the package. It had not been deliver-Where its present whereabouts was the conductor was as much at sea as was the woman. He had changed cars and the package supposedly went with the other car. Where it went afterward no one knows. And now the Traction company officials will be asked to solve the problem: "Whose fault was it?"

MILLION patriotic voters have recognized the confusion of our public politics, and are determined toinform themselves, and stand like patriots in the hour of their peril and vote to the best of their knowledge, for the best interests of the common people of the whole country. It means further that every voter wants to know, not only the doctrines of his own party, but the views of all other parties and the reason for the differences-Gold, Silver, Tariff and Free Trade. #### THE DAY AT THE STATION HOUSE.

Mayor Has the Bond Redemption is

Mind When Holding Court. Yesterday was a big day in police court as far as revenue was concerned. Mayor Bailey presided and he evidently felt that the city needed money. Charles Thiel and his wife, whose disorderly house was raided the night before paid $25. May Snyder and Anna Smith their two working girls, were find $10 apiece. They rode away in a cab, just to show they had money

Four girls, who had very much the appearance of opera singers of the rear row, were arrested at 4 o'clock yesterday morning by Patrolmen Peters and Tom Evans for acting disorderly in Raymond court. They gave their Annie Robathan, and Minnie Austin They also gave $10 apiece to His Honor. A "gent" furnished the wherewith. Mary Ellen Ryan, of Dodgetown, was fined $3 for drunkenness and abusing > James Orr, of Philadelphia, fell asleep in a Pittston car on the last trip in yesterday morning and became very ugly when the conductor woke him up at the end of the line. He was impudent to Patrolman May when the latter was called to eject nim from the car and when arrested said some very harsh things about the officer and al officers in general. The mayor fined him $5, which he paid.

CONNOLLY WAS TIRED OF LIFE.

Swallowed a Large Dose of Poison with Snicidal Intent.

Patrick C. Connolly, of 502 Leggett's street, came very near being successful in his attempt to commit suicide at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was to the Lackawanna hospital and Dr. Fish was kept very busy from 2 o'clock until 6 trying to save his life. Connolly swallowed four ounces of laudanum. At a late hour last night he was not out of danger, but his condition was improving. About 1 o'clock he called at the rectory of Holy Rosary church on William street and told Rev. W. P. O'Donnell he had taken the drug. The priest did not believe him, but a few minutes afterward Connolly was found writhing in great agony on the floor of the stable on the premises. Dr. J. J. Sullivan was summoned and the Lackawanna hospital ambulance was telephoned for. Family troubles are said to be the cause of his rash act. He is separated from his wife and they have been engaged as counter litigants in numerous cases in court. He became melanchoty and despondent, and purchased the laudanum to kill himself. The poison was obtained at one of the North End drug stores yesterday. It was a four ounce bottle and was empty by his side when he was found. That was very much of an overdose, and it accounts for the fact that he is now alive. He was an elderly man and did business as a sewing machine agent.

IT WAS AS SURMISED.

Young Van Horn Stole the Money He Was Spending So Freely.

Charles Van Horn, the Dorrancetown boy, who was picked up by Patrolman Neuls and Sloat while lavishly spending money on Lackawanna avenue Sunday afternoon, was taken home by his father, Edward Van Horn, who came after him yesterday in response to a telgram message from Chief Rob-boy, the father states, is in the habit of wandering away from home. Just how much money he took with him this time he does not exactly know, but believes it is not over $30. The money was taken from a bureau drawer which contained all told over $100.

The Shear boy who was arrested with young Van Horn, and who was guilty of nothing more than agreeing to help the young lad spend his money, was allowed to go by Mayor Balley yesterday morning, that he might return the horse and carriage to his employer, H. E. Kulp, of Mudtown.

SYDELL'S LONDON BELLES.

They Give an Entertaining Performance at Davis' Theatre.

Then the girls, there are over a dozen of them. They march well and look well. Miss Sydell is as petite and charming as ever. The show closes with z lively conglomeration called "The Isle of Sham-Pain." The Belles can well be heard. They will tinkle today and tonorrow, afternoons and evenings.

MARKETS AND STOCKS

Wall Street Review. New York, Sept. 14.-The stock market was quiet and irregular today. The transactions were only 124,134 shares. At the opening a general advance of 1/4 6% per cent. took place much to the surprise of the general run of operators who were looking for a lower range on account of Saturday's bank statement and weak cables from London. A decline soon followed and the market ruled rather weak until late in the afternoon when a general advance ensued. The improvement was not maintained and in the decline the industrials, internationals, Manhattan and Western Union scored losses of 46% per cent. The weakness was due to a belief that the Bank of England rate of discount would be advanced on Thursday and also to the big dry goods fallure in Philadelphia and the increased activity on the part of the bears. Subsequently the losses reported were regained and there was some buying in certain quarters on the belief of a big sound money victory in Maine. Toward the close the entire list weakened on selling for both accounts and the market left off barely steady. Net changes show losses of 46% per cent. outside of Northern Pacific Preferred, Northwest and Manhattan which gained %@1/2 per cent. Tobacco however, lost 1% per cent.
