The Marriage of Miss Laura E. Hand to Oliver B. Le Van by Rev. J. B. Sweet.

At the Luzerne street home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hand last evening their daughter, Miss Laura E., was wedded at 8:30 o'clock to Oliver B. Le Van, an attaché of the United States Express company's office in this city.

While the bride and groom marched to the evergreen covered parlor, where the nuptial was performed, Miss Augusta Pinkney, of Dunmore, played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Miss Hand was handsomely attired in a gown of white silk made with trimmings. She carried a bouquet of red roses. Bride and groom were unattended. The room wherein the rites were read was prettily decorated. Pains and similia were much in evidence.

The ushers were: Albert Hollander and Henry Kellner, of Newark, N. J. After the ceremony about one hundred and fifty invited guests enjoyed an evening in a social way. Mr. and Mrs. Le Van left on the 11:28 Duane and Hudson train on a wedding tour, which will include a visit to Philadelphia, York, New York and Niagara Falls. Upon return they will reside at 1121 Luzerne street. Mr. Le Van is well known throughout the city. He is a courteous and obliging gentleman.

At 10 o'clock this morning Miss Lulu James will be wedded to Walter Wilkins at the home of the bride's mother on South Lincoln avenue.

Cards are out announcing the wedding of Miss Laura Elizabeth Sanders to George H. Keene, of Sixth street, on the noon of Sept. 20 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Sanders, of Hanston street.

The deceased was a butcher by trade and up to the time of his illness he was employed by Clark Bros. He was married and his wife and two little daughters, Ella and Stella, survive. He was born at Newton but has lived on the West Side during many years. His acquaintances are many. The funeral announcement will be made tomorrow. The funeral of the late Mrs. Augusta Christ will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from her late home on North Rebecca avenue. Rev. Mr. Hendiges will officiate.

GREY HAIRED OUTCAST. An aged woman in a semi-intoxicated condition stood last night in front of Alderman Moses' office on South Main avenue and made amusement for a crowd of children who were attracted by her mutterings. Alderman Moses heard the noise and he sent Constable Young to take the woman away. She said her home was in Taylor. The constable accompanied her on a car to that place and upon reaching the home of a son of the old woman there was a

At 4 o'clock yesterday morning she was attacked with pain and a doctor was sent for. Her condition was so critical that at daylight Rev. J. A. Moffat, of St. John's church, was sent for to prepare her for death. But at 7 o'clock she was so well that her father went to work, not thinking of anything serious. She remained quite well until a very short time before her death. Funeral notice will appear tomorrow.

MARKETS AND STOCKS

Wall Street Review.

New York, Sept. 16.—Lower prices were the rule at the Stock Exchange today, professional operators were bearish to a man, and under offerings from this contingent the market gradually declined. There was little news about to affect values, and the decline brought about was due principally to the selling by the traders who have been predicting a reaction for some days past. Money on call was more difficult to obtain and 3 per cent. was paid in isolated cases. Net changes show losses of 1/2 per cent.

THE GREAT CAMPAIGN OF 1896.

13 MILLION patriotic voters have recognized the confusion of our public politics, and are determined to inform themselves, and stand like patriots in the hour of their peril and vote to the best of their knowledge, for the best interests of the common people of the whole country.

It means further that every voter wants to know, not only the doctrines of his own party, but the views of all other parties and the reason for the differences—Gold, Silver, Tariff and Free Trade. To this end we have secured a complete handbook of public political information, edited by Lawrence F. Prescott, WHICH WE WILL PRESENT TO THE PURCHASER OF ANY MEN'S SUIT.
