of his country, or the widow and orphaned children of his fallen comrades, when the amount of his pension is reduced one-half. And the man of wealth, the financier, will wonder why the government of the United States does not get into the hands of a receiver at once and settle up at 50 cents on the dollar. THE OTHER SIDE.

THE OTHER SIDE,
But I have only contemplated one fork of the road. Look at the other sign board, Its index finger points to the past. The legrent reads: "By their fruits shall yoknow them." Read the truth. The war of the rebellion won; every star holds its place upon the flag; readjustment and reconstruction accomplished generously and patriotically; resumption of specie payrments an accomplished fact; the war debt paid as fast as bonds matured; protection to American industry; an ample treasury, everybody busy, good wage; wage-earner and wage-payer prosperous; confidence in the future; American people happy, prosperous, contented; American people happy, prosperous, contented; American people happy, prosperous, contented; American dustry is the representative of the nation's business affairs; and McKinley, the representative of the voung managod of the nation, the champion of American industry, the friend of toil, the representative of the mation, the champion of our fall the people; the ideal head of the American household.

Mr. Bryan may denounce the gold standard maintained so long by the Democratic party; he may criticise one portion of our land as "the enemy's country," and he may threaten to invade it, but no man has been or will be elevated to the first office in this land who tries to reach it by libeling the patriotism of our people; the unity of our government, the glory of our achievements, or the splendor of our institutions.

The United States probably can have free coinage of silver at any ratio which our achievements, or the spiender of our institutions.

The United States probably can have free coinage of silver at any ratio which will satisfy the people when we reach the point where we are entirely free and independent of any other commercial country. We cannot do it so long as we are a debtor nation, or so long as we have business relations with other countries.

CONFIDENCE SHAKEN.

Over cautious people are placing gold in hiding and are resorting to various devices to keep it in safety against the possible evil day. Let me give you one instance: Mr. Benjamin Haywood, treasurer of the state of Pennsylvania, informed me yesterday that he visited the city of Toronto within the past two weeks; that he there met Mr. Garsides, of the firm of Garsides & White, wholesale merchants and capitalists, interested in banking institutions both in this country and in Canada, Mr. Garsides informed the state treasurer of Pennsylvania, that since the nomination of Mr. Bryan there has been deposited in the Toronto banks over $6,669,600 in gold by citizens of the United States; that the banks were informed that the money was placed there for safe keeping; that no interest was paid upon the deposits, and that the Toronto bank charged one-fourth of 1 per cent, exchange in taking deposits; that the same was true of the banks in Montreal, Quebec and other Canadian cities. This is the first time in the history of the United States, so far as I know, when her citizens took their gold currency of the land to a for-CONFIDENCE SHAKEN. so far as I know, when her citizens took their gold currency of the land to a for-eign country as a place of security against the depredations expected to be made by their fellow citizens at home.

an influential citizen of Mechanicsburg, was today convicted in the criminal court on the charge of embezzling $4,000 of tax money while collector. A motion for a new trial was made.

In concluding Governor Hastings

The trouble with this country now, in my judgment is free trade and the threat of free silver. Mr. Bryan argued for free trade quite as much and promised for free trade quite as much and argued quite as lustily as he is now arguing and promising for free silver.

M'KINLEY'S WORK.

Major McKinley today, in addition to the task of meeting and talking briefly with hundreds of people, shook hands with thousands, made a dozen speeches. entertined a dozen guests at dinner and listened to the music of thirty-nine brass bands. The first delegation called at 10.30 this morning. It came from Columbiana county. J. J. Brittain, of East Palestine, was the spokesman. In response to his remarks, Mafor McKinley made a brief and happy speech. After Major McKinley fin ished he introduced Judge Howard Ferris, of Cincinnati, who made a felicitous speech. Judge U. L. Marvin, of Akron, also made a short

The next delegation was also from Columbiana county. When Major Mc-Kinley was introduced and the cheering had subsided, he said in part:

we are battling this year for the same cause that we battled for during the last twenty years. We have the same principles to contend for now as we had then. The Republican party stands this year as it has always stood, for the country and the country's honor. (Great cheering.) It is opposed to national dishonor and repudation in whatever form it may come and from what quarter it may come. (Applause.) It believes in good, sound, gold dollars (cheers); dollars that you know just what they are worth every day of the week and every week of the year (renewed cheers); dollars that are not only good in our country, but good wherever trade goes. (Loud applause.) The Republican party stands, too, this year, as it has stood in the past, for the American protective system (great applause); a system that serves our own people rather than the interests of the allen and the stranger who lives beyond our shores. (Great applause.) It stands for a policy that gives to American citizenship the widest and broadest opportunity; that leaves to the American workingman an opportunity to the farmers of the United States the best home market that can be found anywhere. (Renewed cheers.)

THE AMERICUS CLUB.

When Major McKinley finished speaking he introduced Major W. W. Peabody, of Cincinnati, vice president of the Baltimore and Ohio southwestern railroad, who made one of the most stirring speeches of the day. At half past twelve the Americus club, of Pittsburg, escorting General Hastings, marched up to the McKinley residence. Major McKinley came out on the stand which had been erected just inside the tin, president of the Americus club, introduced Governor Hastings, who made short speech, eulogizing Major Mc-In response to the greeting, Major McKinley said:

Major McKinley said:

Governor Hastings, gentlemen of the Americus club and ruy fellow-citizens of Pennsylvania:—I appreciate more than I can find words to express the compliment and honor of this call from the citizens of another neighboring state. I am glad to give you welcome to the city of Canton and to my home. (Applanse.) I am glad to sive welcome to the governor of the state of Pennsylvania, Mr. Hastings (cheers); and if he can secure for the Republican national ticket as large a majority as he secured for himself (laughter and applause) we will, be entirely satisfied here in Ohie (great cheering), for I believe that he received the largest majority that was ever given to any candidate for any office in the state of Pennsylvania. (Applause.) I do not appear, my fellow-citizens, to make a speech, but only to express my personal gratification. And I want you all to feel that I regard it as a special favor and compliment to have you with us today (great cheering), and I trust that our people will give you a most generous and hospitable welcome, as I am sure they will, and I wish for all of you a safe return to your homes after the day's doings are over. (Great applause.)

OTHER VISITORS.

Major McKinley had hardly finished before the Building and Trades council of Columbus came up the street behind their band. As soon as the Amer-

Philadelphia, Sept. 18.-James L. Miles, who was on Wednesday nominated for sheriff by the Republican convention, has had warrants issued for the arrest of Colonel A. K. Mc-Clure, editor, and Frank McLaughlin, publisher of the Times, on a charge of criminal libel. A civil suit was also instituted by Mr. Miles against Colonel McClure, Mr. McLaughlin and the Times Publishing company for damages in the sum of $100,000. The actions began by Mr. Miles are based upon an editorial article in yesterday's issue of the Times under the caption of "A Public Af-

SPIRITED PLAYING

Large and Enthusiastic Throng Surrounds the Courts.

LOCAL PLAYERS BADLY ROUTED

The Staten Island Pair, Chester and and Billings, Carry Everything Before Them -- Three Numbers Require More Than Two Sets-- Final Singles and Second Round and Finals in the Doubles Today.

Some very spirited playing marked the second day of the Country club's tennis tourney yesterday. As on Thursday afternoon the crowd of spectators was large and enthusiastic.

In the singles were played the one unfinished number of the first round and the whole of the second, the winners finally being Chester and Billings, the two Staten Islanders, who will today play the final singles. Those two outof-town men have also a chance to play in the final doubles, as they, with Mc-Leod and Linen, are paired for today, the winners to play the victors in the sets between Huntington and L. B. Fuller and Heitkamp and F. P. Fuller. While there was some sharp playing Thursday afternoon, that of yesterday was much more intense and excfting. Only three Scranton players are left to compete today, McLeod and Linen and L. B. Fuller, who is the partner of Huntington, of Plainfield.

In the singles Chester had anything but an easy victory over McLeod, three sets being necessary. The tally was 6-3 5-6 6-3 L. B. Fuller had almost as much trouble in beating F. P. Fuller in a score of 3-6, 6-3, 6-4. Billings had a very easy task in defeating C. A. Belin and D. L. Crane, but in Heitkamp, of New York city, he found a more dangerous opponent, but finally won out by the score of 6-4, 1-6, 6-4.

The doubles were not so closely contested, excepting the sets between C. Belin and Moffat vs. McLeod and Linen. the latter pair winning by the tally of

Much of the interest in the singles

Much of the interest in the singles has been taken away because the two Staten Islanders, Chester and Billings, have carried everything before them. But the same condition does not exist in the doubles though there is the

AMATEUR BASE BALL.

Mr. Gallagher Has Something to Say of Olyphant Base Ball.

Sporting Editor of The Tribune. Dear Sir:-An article appeared in the amateur base ball department of The Tribune on Friday morning concernig the game between Minooka and the Olyphant Browns. The article stated that the Browns defeated their opponents and that in the eighth inning, with three men on bases, Hastings hit a low drive which was captured by Right Fielder Gillispie. This is false, as he nabbed the ball on the first bound and any impartial spectator will bear out this assertion. Furthermore .452 It stated that Pitcher O'Neil only out seven, but eleven of the Browns fanned the wind. A gentleman named .282 Evans, a stockholder in the Base Ball as-sociation, officiated as umpire and liter-ally roasted the visitors and compelled them to leave the grounds in the eighth inning, when they found out that they were playing the spectators and stock-holders and not the base ball team. This is not written with a malicious in-tent, but to let the readers of your paper y want a game to test their superl ority let them say so.
