

Steady Work at Good Wages Paid in Good Money.

Scranton Globe

The Way to Get It is to Vote for McKinley.

EIGHT PAGES--56 COLUMNS.

SCRANTON, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 24, 1896.

TWO CENTS A COPY

OUR SHOW DAYS

For New Fall Millinery Are Friday and Saturday Next, Sept. 25th and 26th. When we Promise our Patrons the finest Display of foreign and New York Novelties ever shown it this City. No need to say more. When we say so, you know that we mean it. On Show Days All Visitors are welcome.

GLOBE WAREHOUSE.

MCKINLEY ADVISES YOUNG VOTERS

Eloquent Address to Ladies and Gentlemen from Wood County.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BALLOT

The Champion of Protection Calls Attention to the Importance of the Vote and Gives an Interesting Account of His First Ballot, Which Was Cast for Abraham Lincoln.

CANTON, O., Sept. 23.—The delegations which came to call on Major McKinley today were from the natural gas belts of Ohio and Indiana. The first visitors were from Wood county, Pa., and Bowling Green, O. They arrived about 2:30. The delegation was composed of a First Voters' club of Bowling Green in white duck uniforms, parts of the Young Republicans of the county and the Women's McKinley and Hobart club. The members of the latter organization wore white O'Shaughnessy caps. Miss Janet Stokes, captain of the Wood County Women's McKinley and Hobart club. The whole delegation numbered 600. A. S. Parker was spokesman. In response to his remarks, Major McKinley said:

Mr. Parker, ladies and gentlemen: I am very glad to meet at this representative delegation from Wood county. I cannot imagine a body of citizens more representative than that which we see before us today—men and women, old and young, workmen and farmers, men of every profession and calling in your county—and it indicates to me that no matter what may be asserted in other quarters of the country there is no such thing known as "classes" in Wood county. (Great applause and cries of "that's right.")

I am especially glad to make suitable recognition of the women who have honored me with their presence today. (Cheers.) They are a mighty factor in our progress and civilization and they have been most potent in every crisis of American history. (Renewed cheering.) I am glad to know that they are interested in the party of good morals, good politics, good government and public and private honesty. (Great applause.)

THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BALLOT

The presence of this body of young men who are to vote for the first time next November is to me an inspiring sight, and that you are soon to enjoy the priceless privilege of citizenship must be to all of you an inspiring thought. For twenty-one years you have been enjoying our free institutions, the protection and opportunity of our laws, without any political power or responsibility. You are soon to assume your share in government and bear your share of duty and responsibility. I wonder, as I look into your faces whether you fully appreciate the privilege and honor which you are so soon to have. I fear sometimes that few of us estimate suffrage at its true worth. It clothes us with sovereignty, it is a guaranty to our liberties and institutions and is our dearest safety. It is the constitutional mode of expressing the popular will. Through it public policies are determined and public laws enacted. Through it administrations are changed and administrations made. Through it our whole governmental machinery is conducted. It is indeed a priceless inheritance and should be valued as such by every young man. With the privilege comes grave responsibility in its use. It should express the intelligence and judgment and confidence of the voter. It should never be employed for any base use. It should be exercised with courage, wisdom and patriotism. It should never, no never, be thrown against the country and should never represent public dishonor. (Great applause.)

I recall, young men, by first vote, with what a thrill of pride I exercised the right of suffrage. I recall the citizenship. I have not realized greater pride since. I felt that I had some part in the government. The period and circumstances of my first vote were such that I otherwise would not have had a deeper impression upon me than it otherwise would. (Applause.)

In the crisis of war on the very field of conflict my first vote was cast for Abraham Lincoln. (Great cheering.) It is to me a priceless memory. What a glorious privilege to have been permitted to vote for a candidate for president whose services to his country in the greatest peril of its life ranks with the services of Washington, the father of his country. (Applause.)

Private money to me that I could vote for the martyr to liberty, the emancipator of a race, and the savior of the only free government of men, and that I could, in my own play the part he can play best. Some speak of some sing and all holler. (Great laughter and applause.) Four meetings will be of evenings. The older men and women will go to hear you and see it. It will not only contribute to the election of our hero, but it will be interesting pastime and improving to the intellectual faculties of all engaged. Do not fail to do this. (Great applause.)

FROM ABRAHAM LINCOLN

I cannot omit here to make a quotation from FROM ABRAHAM LINCOLN, written by the young men of Illinois on June 22, 1848. Mr. Lincoln said: "Now as to the young men. You must not wait to be brought forward by the older men. You young men get together; form a troupe and recite; give us regular meetings and speeches. Take in everybody you can get. As you go along gather up all the shreds, wild boys about town, whether just of age or a little under age. Let every one play the part he can play best. Some speak; some sing; and all holler. (Great laughter and applause.) Four meetings will be of evenings. The older men and women will go to hear you and see it. It will not only contribute to the election of our hero, but it will be interesting pastime and improving to the intellectual faculties of all engaged. Do not fail to do this. (Great applause.)

I commend these homely words of Mr. Lincoln to the young men of the country. Such organizations as he advised will have powerful influence in the political contest which is now upon us. They will not only inspire the young men, but will cheer the hearts of the old guards of the Republican party. (Applause.) It is seldom given to the first voters of this country to start in so important a national contest where so much is involved and where so many interests are at stake. It is a year, too, when old party divisions count for little, when men of all parties are united in the common object to save the country from dishonor and its currency from degradation. It is always safe, young gentlemen, to array yourselves on the side of your country. (Applause.) It is always wise to stand against lawlessness and repudiation. (Renewed applause.) It is always patriotic to stand against those who are opposed to law and order and who would raise untold horrors of these classes or sections in the United States. (Great applause.) I congratulate you upon the opportunities you have, and appreciate these opportunities. I am sure you will use them for the welfare of the people and the glory of the country. (Cheers.)

REFERRING TO MY FELLOW-CITIZENS

I ventured a few weeks ago to suggest in a public speech that I made to open the mills than to open the mints. (Great cheering and cries of "that's right.") I see that some of our political adversaries have seized the statement, saying that it is "putting the cart before the horse." They seem to think that the way to open the mints is to first start a yardstick factory. (Great laughter and applause.) They forget that you must make cloth before the yardstick. (Applause.) But they say the yardstick is too long. I answer, if you make a yardstick fifteen inches instead of thirty-six inches, it will not do any better. It will not increase the output of cloth, or value, or give an additional day's labor to the American weaver. (Great applause.) No mill will do any better if it increase the output of cloth, or value, or give an additional day's labor to the American weaver. (Great applause.) No mill will do any better if it increase the output of cloth, or value, or give an additional day's labor to the American weaver. (Great applause.)

PHILADELPHIA DEMOCRATS

Candidates Placed in Nomination at the Conventions Yesterday.

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—The Democratic judicial, county, congressional and senatorial conventions met today to nominate candidates. At the judicial convention Judges James Gray Gordon, Charles B. McMichael and A. M. Butler were nominated. In the county convention Magistrate William P. Eisenbroun was named for sheriff. The nomination of Judge Ryan and Judge Gordon is equivalent to an election as the latter has been endorsed by the Republicans and the minority party is entitled to one elector in the electoral college. Judges Butler and McMichael are Republicans and were also nominated by that party.

THE INDIANA DELEGATION

The second and last delegation today came from Muncie, Ind. Four bands of music accompanied the Indiana visitors.

After Major McKinley had finished speaking C. M. Kimbrough, of Muncie, presented him with the pictures of the two Republican national candidates framed in narrow colored rolls of broad from Indiana. The pictures were unique. This unique gift was sent Major McKinley by an old soldier, F. H. Goldman.

HE SEEMS TO BE IN DREAD OF THE NIHILISTS

London, Sept. 23.—The Chronicle says of the Russian visitors: "It is stated that the czar and zarina were deeply pleased with their hearty reception. But such feelings are certainly not betrayed by the czar, whose brief and hurried stay in London was characterized by him, and whose odd unimpressibility was in great contrast to the frank and fearless presence of the czar's wife. The czar was seen glancing nervously aside at the slightest hitch in the proceedings. He listened to the addresses in impressive silence and as if he were in a foreign land. The czar's son, the grand duke Nicholas Oiga was the center of interest and admiration among the court ladies."

AMERICA FOR AMERICANS

I believe in America for Americans—native born and naturalized. (Cries of "good.") I believe in the American pay roll and I do not believe in citizenship that pays itself by giving work to anybody else under another flag while we have got an idle man under our flag. (Tremendous applause.)

Four years ago the nation was agitating the question of shorter hours. We then had so much to do. I have heard of discussion of that kind for four years and I have never heard of hearing man discussing the desirability of having shorter hours. (Applause.)

The complaint of the older men is that we have not enough money, and second, that our money is too good. (Laughter and applause.) The complaint I answer that the per capita of circulating medium in this country has been greater since the so-called crisis of 1873 than it has been since. (Applause.)

EXETER POISONING CASE

Charles Richards Has a Narrow Escape from Death.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 23.—Charles Richards, of Exeter borough, was seen to fall suddenly this afternoon while on a walk in a garden. Friends went to his assistance, and exhibiting symptoms of poison he was at once given an emetic. He finally recovered sufficiently to explain that he had been sick since drinking his coffee at noon. An examination revealed a quantity of pills green in the coffee enough to kill several persons.

DEPUTY COLLECTORS DISMISSED

Washington, Sept. 23.—The civil service commission is informed by the treasury department that it has discontinued the services of William Stringer and John Terney, deputy collectors of customs at Port Huron, Mich., who were charged by the civil service commission with having received political contributions from government employees.

BARDSLEY LEAVES THE PRISON

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—Ex-City Treasurer John Bardsley, who was recently pardoned by Governor Hastings, left the Eastern penitentiary this evening. Accompanied by his wife, he took a carriage and they were driven away from the prison.

SPAIN'S FINAL EFFORT IN CUBA

More Troops Are Landed to Brace Up General Weyler.

ANOTHER CIRCULAR IS ISSUED

General Weyler Publishes More Rules Regarding Publication of War News—Manager of the Relief Fund Mysteriously Disappears.

Havana, Sept. 23.—Three additional steamships arrived here from Spain today with reinforcements of troops. The steamer Argenta brought twenty-three officers and 1,170 private soldiers, the San Francisco had on board thirty officers and 1,200 rank and file, and the Guadalupe landed fifty officers and 1,520 men, a total of 103 officers and 4,200 men.

Captain General Weyler has published a circular containing regulations as to the publication of war news by the correspondents of daily newspapers.

Chicago, Sept. 23.—A. D. Powers, the director and manager of the Cuban relief corps has mysteriously disappeared, leaving not the slightest trace behind. It is the opinion of his friends that the Spaniards are after the funds in the case of the Powers has met with foul play. Mr. Powers came to Chicago with his wife and two children ten days ago. A week ago Monday Mr. Powers received a letter from Mr. Palma, of New York, head of the Cuban relief corps of the United States, instructing on the authority of General De Quesada to collect funds and turn them over to the New York office.

PHILADELPHIA DEMOCRATS

Candidates Placed in Nomination at the Conventions Yesterday.

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—The Democratic judicial, county, congressional and senatorial conventions met today to nominate candidates. At the judicial convention Judges James Gray Gordon, Charles B. McMichael and A. M. Butler were nominated. In the county convention Magistrate William P. Eisenbroun was named for sheriff. The nomination of Judge Ryan and Judge Gordon is equivalent to an election as the latter has been endorsed by the Republicans and the minority party is entitled to one elector in the electoral college. Judges Butler and McMichael are Republicans and were also nominated by that party.

THE INDIANA DELEGATION

The second and last delegation today came from Muncie, Ind. Four bands of music accompanied the Indiana visitors.

After Major McKinley had finished speaking C. M. Kimbrough, of Muncie, presented him with the pictures of the two Republican national candidates framed in narrow colored rolls of broad from Indiana. The pictures were unique. This unique gift was sent Major McKinley by an old soldier, F. H. Goldman.

HE SEEMS TO BE IN DREAD OF THE NIHILISTS

London, Sept. 23.—The Chronicle says of the Russian visitors: "It is stated that the czar and zarina were deeply pleased with their hearty reception. But such feelings are certainly not betrayed by the czar, whose brief and hurried stay in London was characterized by him, and whose odd unimpressibility was in great contrast to the frank and fearless presence of the czar's wife. The czar was seen glancing nervously aside at the slightest hitch in the proceedings. He listened to the addresses in impressive silence and as if he were in a foreign land. The czar's son, the grand duke Nicholas Oiga was the center of interest and admiration among the court ladies."

AMERICA FOR AMERICANS

I believe in America for Americans—native born and naturalized. (Cries of "good.") I believe in the American pay roll and I do not believe in citizenship that pays itself by giving work to anybody else under another flag while we have got an idle man under our flag. (Tremendous applause.)

Four years ago the nation was agitating the question of shorter hours. We then had so much to do. I have heard of discussion of that kind for four years and I have never heard of hearing man discussing the desirability of having shorter hours. (Applause.)

The complaint of the older men is that we have not enough money, and second, that our money is too good. (Laughter and applause.) The complaint I answer that the per capita of circulating medium in this country has been greater since the so-called crisis of 1873 than it has been since. (Applause.)

EXETER POISONING CASE

Charles Richards Has a Narrow Escape from Death.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 23.—Charles Richards, of Exeter borough, was seen to fall suddenly this afternoon while on a walk in a garden. Friends went to his assistance, and exhibiting symptoms of poison he was at once given an emetic. He finally recovered sufficiently to explain that he had been sick since drinking his coffee at noon. An examination revealed a quantity of pills green in the coffee enough to kill several persons.

DEPUTY COLLECTORS DISMISSED

Washington, Sept. 23.—The civil service commission is informed by the treasury department that it has discontinued the services of William Stringer and John Terney, deputy collectors of customs at Port Huron, Mich., who were charged by the civil service commission with having received political contributions from government employees.

BARDSLEY LEAVES THE PRISON

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—Ex-City Treasurer John Bardsley, who was recently pardoned by Governor Hastings, left the Eastern penitentiary this evening. Accompanied by his wife, he took a carriage and they were driven away from the prison.

SPAIN'S FINAL EFFORT IN CUBA

More Troops Are Landed to Brace Up General Weyler.

ANOTHER CIRCULAR IS ISSUED

General Weyler Publishes More Rules Regarding Publication of War News—Manager of the Relief Fund Mysteriously Disappears.

Havana, Sept. 23.—Three additional steamships arrived here from Spain today with reinforcements of troops. The steamer Argenta brought twenty-three officers and 1,170 private soldiers, the San Francisco had on board thirty officers and 1,200 rank and file, and the Guadalupe landed fifty officers and 1,520 men, a total of 103 officers and 4,200 men.

Captain General Weyler has published a circular containing regulations as to the publication of war news by the correspondents of daily newspapers.

Chicago, Sept. 23.—A. D. Powers, the director and manager of the Cuban relief corps has mysteriously disappeared, leaving not the slightest trace behind. It is the opinion of his friends that the Spaniards are after the funds in the case of the Powers has met with foul play. Mr. Powers came to Chicago with his wife and two children ten days ago. A week ago Monday Mr. Powers received a letter from Mr. Palma, of New York, head of the Cuban relief corps of the United States, instructing on the authority of General De Quesada to collect funds and turn them over to the New York office.

PHILADELPHIA DEMOCRATS

Candidates Placed in Nomination at the Conventions Yesterday.

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—The Democratic judicial, county, congressional and senatorial conventions met today to nominate candidates. At the judicial convention Judges James Gray Gordon, Charles B. McMichael and A. M. Butler were nominated. In the county convention Magistrate William P. Eisenbroun was named for sheriff. The nomination of Judge Ryan and Judge Gordon is equivalent to an election as the latter has been endorsed by the Republicans and the minority party is entitled to one elector in the electoral college. Judges Butler and McMichael are Republicans and were also nominated by that party.

THE INDIANA DELEGATION

The second and last delegation today came from Muncie, Ind. Four bands of music accompanied the Indiana visitors.

After Major McKinley had finished speaking C. M. Kimbrough, of Muncie, presented him with the pictures of the two Republican national candidates framed in narrow colored rolls of broad from Indiana. The pictures were unique. This unique gift was sent Major McKinley by an old soldier, F. H. Goldman.

HE SEEMS TO BE IN DREAD OF THE NIHILISTS

London, Sept. 23.—The Chronicle says of the Russian visitors: "It is stated that the czar and zarina were deeply pleased with their hearty reception. But such feelings are certainly not betrayed by the czar, whose brief and hurried stay in London was characterized by him, and whose odd unimpressibility was in great contrast to the frank and fearless presence of the czar's wife. The czar was seen glancing nervously aside at the slightest hitch in the proceedings. He listened to the addresses in impressive silence and as if he were in a foreign land. The czar's son, the grand duke Nicholas Oiga was the center of interest and admiration among the court ladies."

AMERICA FOR AMERICANS

I believe in America for Americans—native born and naturalized. (Cries of "good.") I believe in the American pay roll and I do not believe in citizenship that pays itself by giving work to anybody else under another flag while we have got an idle man under our flag. (Tremendous applause.)

Four years ago the nation was agitating the question of shorter hours. We then had so much to do. I have heard of discussion of that kind for four years and I have never heard of hearing man discussing the desirability of having shorter hours. (Applause.)

The complaint of the older men is that we have not enough money, and second, that our money is too good. (Laughter and applause.) The complaint I answer that the per capita of circulating medium in this country has been greater since the so-called crisis of 1873 than it has been since. (Applause.)

EXETER POISONING CASE

Charles Richards Has a Narrow Escape from Death.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 23.—Charles Richards, of Exeter borough, was seen to fall suddenly this afternoon while on a walk in a garden. Friends went to his assistance, and exhibiting symptoms of poison he was at once given an emetic. He finally recovered sufficiently to explain that he had been sick since drinking his coffee at noon. An examination revealed a quantity of pills green in the coffee enough to kill several persons.

DEPUTY COLLECTORS DISMISSED

Washington, Sept. 23.—The civil service commission is informed by the treasury department that it has discontinued the services of William Stringer and John Terney, deputy collectors of customs at Port Huron, Mich., who were charged by the civil service commission with having received political contributions from government employees.

BARDSLEY LEAVES THE PRISON

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—Ex-City Treasurer John Bardsley, who was recently pardoned by Governor Hastings, left the Eastern penitentiary this evening. Accompanied by his wife, he took a carriage and they were driven away from the prison.

BIG AUCTION SALE

The Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Under the Hammer.

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—The most extensive auction sale that ever took place in this country was held today in the train shed of the old Philadelphia and Reading Railroad company, at Thirteenth and Callowhill. There passed under the hammer property of the estimated value of $250,000,000, owned or held by the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad and the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company.

The entire property of the two corporations was bid in by Charles H. Coster, of the New York banking firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. The total bid was $20,500,000, of which $16,000,000 was offered for all real estate and securities under the foreclosure proceedings, and $4,500,000 for all other securities not subject to the lien of the general mortgage.

THE REFRACTORY POPULISTS

Chairman Reed's Reasons Why They Cannot Swallow Sewall.

St. Louis, Sept. 23.—H. W. Reed, chairman of the national finance committee of the People's party, says that a unity of all the reform forces will unquestionably give Mr. Bryan the south and west and several other states, thus insuring his election. This, he said, could be brought about by accepting the compromise ticket nominated at St. Louis—Bryan and Watson.

"Why are Populists unwilling to support Mr. Sewall?"

"To support Mr. Sewall the Populists would have no partner in the compact, and it would be a virtual abandonment of their organization. Every argument that proves Mr. Bryan a suitable candidate proves Mr. Sewall unsuitable. Mr. Sewall is undoubtedly personally a man of fine character and standing, but his political record and his individual interests are antagonistic to the interests of the Populist movement and the Populist demand."

MYSTERIOUS DEATH

The Police Suspect Foul Play in the Case of John McManus.

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 23.—John McManus, a white man residing at 770 Humboldt street, was found dead on the floor of his sleeping room at an early hour this morning. He was in good health or seemingly so yesterday, and the police suspect that "Charlie Brister, a colored man, either suffocated or poisoned him. Brister had an insurance policy for $200 on McManus' life.

Brister and David and Maggie Wiley and William Ward, all occupants of the house in which McManus lived, were taken into custody. An autopsy will be held to determine how McManus came to his death.

WIFE OF THE MINISTER CONVICTED

Murderer Wants Freedom.

Newburg, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Mrs. Matie P. George, of Rockford, Ill., has brought suit for an absolute divorce, on statutory grounds, against her husband, Rev. Henry P. George.

The defendant is serving a sentence of fifteen years' imprisonment in the Dannemora penitentiary for being responsible for the death of Miss Lottie Townsend, of Fishkill.

HUM OF INDUSTRY HEARD AGAIN

Big Factories Resume Operations in and About Anderson, Ind.

Anderson, Ind., Sept. 23.—The American Wire Nail company, the Wright Shovel, the American Strawboard and Anderson Knif and Blade works of this city, a portion of the Union Steel works at Alexandria, and the American tin plate, the radiator and the MacBeth lamp chimney factories at Elwood, all in this county, resumed operations today.

ARTHUR DODGE SEAVEY IS DEAD

Pioneer of California and Friend of John M. Mackay Passes Away.

San Francisco, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Arthur Dodge Seavey, aged 62, who held several civil service offices and was a California argonaut, is dead.

While on the Pacific slope in his earlier days Seavey and John W. Mackay prospected a number of mines together. He is survived by a widow and a son, James Arthur Seavey.

FIRE AT EASTON

Blaze at Phoenix Laundry Threats Fifty Persons Out of Employment.

Easton, Pa., Sept. 23.—Fire gutted the Phoenix laundry establishment in this city, this afternoon, doing damage to the amount of $3,000 to plant and to goods that had been left to rot.

The insurance is for half that amount. About fifty persons are temporarily thrown out of work by reason of the fire.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS

New York, Sept. 23.—Arrived: South-west, from Antwerp. Sailed: St. Louis, for Southampton. Arrived: Liverpool, from Southampton. Arrived: New York, from Southampton. Sailed: Aachen, from New York for Bremen. Sailed: The Lizard, Mobile, from New York for London. Sailed: The White, from Southampton. Sailed: The White, from Southampton. Sailed: The White, from Southampton.

JAMES MILLER VERY ILL

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Sept. 23.—James Miller, colored, an alleged murderer in prison here, awaiting trial, is dangerously ill and in all probability will die. He is one of the men arrested for being implicated in the blowing up of a Hungarian shanty in Cuba by the Three Friends, now detained in Florida. The arrest was made by the United States marshal.

ALLEGED FIBUSTER ARRESTED

Washington, Sept. 23.—The department of justice is informed that A. E. Cassella was arrested at Key West, Fla., today, alleged to have been the head man in a recent fibustering expedition carried on in Cuba by the Three Friends, now detained in Florida. The arrest was made by the United States marshal.

HERALD'S WEATHER FORECAST

New York, Sept. 23.—For the Middle States, fair, warmer weather and fresh to light northwesterly and northerly winds will prevail, followed by cloudiness in the northern district. On Friday, partly cloudy to cloudy weather will prevail, with slight temperature change, winds becoming northeasterly and probably increasing to a dangerous force on the coast with the northerly advance of a West Indian cyclone.

FINLEY'S

Fall Dress Goods

We are now exhibiting our

The character of our Goods being so well and favorably known it is unnecessary to enumerate the good qualities and great variety of this season's IMPORTATION. We'll only say that our is strictly high class and up to date in every particular.

Designs are exclusive Styles and Qualities unexcelled, Prices are correct.

An early inspection is invited.

FINLEY'S

510 AND 512 LACKAWANNA AVENUE

Busy . . . Busy

Selling Fall Footwear.

Every department complete, wholesale and retail.

FINLEY'S

114 AND 116 WYOMING AVE.

A LARGE AND WELL SELECTED STOCK OF FINE JEWELRY

CAN BE SEEN AT 408 SPRUCE STREET

When you pay for Jewelry you might as well get the best. A fine line of Novelties for Ladies and Gentlemen.

W. J. Weichel

408 Spruce St.

MATTHEWS BROTHERS

Atlantic Lead, French Lac

Enamel Paints, Carriage Paints, Reynolds' Pure Colors, Reynolds' Wood Finish, Crockett's Preservative.

Ready Mixed Tinted Gloss Paints, Strictly Pure Linseed Oil, Guaranteed