BALTIMORE IS COMING.

Champion Orioles Will Play in This

City on Monday. has finally been decided to play the base ball game between Baltimore and a picked professional team at Ath-etic park next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Hugh Jennings, the Oriole shortstop, and Manager "Ed" Han-lon's right hand man in a great many business arrangements was here yes-orday morning. He conferred with Manager Griffin at the St. Charles hotel given representing that Mr. Reap's property, instead of being damaged, appreciated in value about $100 or $200. Select Councilman Finley Ross, of the East word wave since the select of the -12 First ward, was acquainted with the premises before the wall was built. At that time the fair market value of it he thinks, was not more than $700, and the construction of the culvert and the retaining wall has enhanced its value to about $900. How this is possible Mr. Ross accounted for from the fact that the property is several feet below the level of the street, and before the wall was built there was nothing to stop
