MAJOR M'KINLEY'S WEEK OF WORK

The Candidate Bears Up Well Under the Strain of the Campaign.

THE PROGRAMME FOR THE WEEK

Interesting Days Ahend -- Woman's McKinley Club of Cincinnati Among Visitors .-- The Wheelmen's Clubs of the United States Are Expected to Hold a Parade in Canton.

Canton, O., Sept. 27.-Major McKin-ley was not in the least over fatigued by his week of hard work which he closed with eleven speeches yesterday. He is in excellent spirits today and says he has not felt better at any time during the campaign. He remained at home during the morning, and spent the afternoon at his sister-in-law's. Mrs. as many delegations as he had to re-ceive last week. Probably the most ex-acting six days of the campaign here will be next week, when there are a large number of big delegations coming from long distances to call on the Republican candidate. Major McKin-ley seems to thrive on hard work and it cannot be seen that the campaign has in any way impaired his health or robbed him of his strength. It is his purpose to make his speeches considerably shorter as delegations increase in number, and this new plan was resorted to yesterday, when he made eleven

SUSPICIOUS OF THE GOLD TICKET.

The Cold Shoulder Turned on the Palmer-Buckner Combination.

Chicago, Sept. 27.-Letters received at the headoungters of the national Democratic party indicates that the Palmer and Buckner ticket will not get much support from Democrats unless the national committee demonstrates by its action that the movement is not in any way an adjunct of McKinlevism. The writers who claim to be old Democrats declare that an independent and aggressive canvass must be made irrespective of whom it may help or hurt. The letters are filled with fear that the conmittee is not going to be aggressive enough. Altoona, Pa., Sept. 27.—Hon. J. D. Hicks and Hon. Francis J. Koser, of Somerset county, candidate for the nomination to congress in this district. held a lengthy conference at the home of Mr. Hicks in this city this afternoon. and at its conclusion Mr. Hicks gave out a statement to the effect that if he did not receive the nomination by Monday evening he would throw his four and one-half votes in the confer-ence to Mr. Koser, of Somerset, and nominate him in his stead. As Mr. Koser is an anti-Quay and Hicks is a strong supporter of Senator Quay, it is hardly probable that he would use his influence against the Beaver statesman. The statement was evidently given out to force the Cambria county conferees to vote for Hicks and nominate him in order to get an

POPULISTS REBUKED.

The Aggressive Candidates Are Put Off the Republican Fusion Ticket. Boise, Ida., Sept. 27.-The re-convened Republican state convention met at Boise City yesterday. The object in re-calling the convention was to take some action in the matter of Populist candidates who were put on the Re-publican ticket with the understanding that there was a fusion between the silver Republicans, Populists and the silver Democrats. But after the nominations were made the Populists com-menced and maintained a bitter fight against the silver Republicans in every against the silver Republicans in every county in the state. Yesterday's convention took off the ticket the names of James Gunn, Populist for congress, and George L. The Work of the Sound Money League Surprised Committeeman Kerens. Chicago, Sept. 27.-National Committeeman Kerens was in town yesterday. He went to St. Louis a few days ago to rganize a finance committee for work throughout the state, but he found the Sound Money league! which was recently organized in St. Louis, doing such ef-fective work that it "made his head swim," as he expressed it. He said this league was composed of some prominent Democrats in business cir-cles, and their effect as a campaign organization could not be excelled in any part of the country. The 14-year-old son, Edward, seized his father's arm and entreated him to quiet down, where-upon the brute became enraged and threw the boy down the stairway lead ing to the street, a distance of twenty feet. The little fellow screamed for help and rolled out of the open doorway into the street, writhing in convulsions Dr. C. A. Turner was summoned to at tend the boy, and a crowd quickly col-lected to revenge the brutal outrage. Father McHale was hastened to the scene and administered the last rites of the church to the dying boy. Mean while the crowd increased to a mob which was goaded to fury by the sigh of the helpless child struggling on the pavement, until the clamor for revenge swelled to an ominous roar. An impromptu delegation of forty forced their way into the house to drag out the inhuman father and others were dispatched for a rope.

Wald had locked himself in a bedroom. The door was broken open and ne was dragged into the street, lesperately. The police arrived before the rope appeared and thus intercepted a lynching. The mob gave battle to the police, determined not to allow Wald to escape them. During the scrimmage the prisoner broke loose from those who were holding him and ran down an alley toward the river, knowing that his chance for life was very small if captured, plunged into the water of the Cuyahogo and was drown ed. His body has not been recovered. The boy will die and the wife's injuries may also prove fatal.
