NASBY'S VIEWS ON SILVER.

on the Money Question. Confederate X. Roads (which is in he state of Kentucky), Jan. 22, 1878.ain't so certin that I want the silver bill to pass ez I was. The fact, the thing don't work ez I sposed it wood, and I ain't clear onto it. There is suttle principles in these finanshel questions which requires a great deel uv thought, and there is underlying principles wich a man has got to understand afore he is competent to set hisself up ez authority. One thing I'm certin uv. Bascom ain't no finanseer, nor never will be, and I told him so.

"Wat is a finanseer?" asked he "A finanseer," sed I, assooming the look of Dan'l Webster, "is a man wich kin pay his debts with nothin-a man wich kin git suthin with nothin.

"The Corners, then, is full of finanseers," he remarkt, bitterly, casting a casual glance at his slate, which wur jist full enuff to turn over and begin on tother side.

But he hezn't any uv the science uv it. I wuz argooing with him the other day in favor uv my noshun uv a leather currency, though I told him silver wuz much the same thing, and, for example, I would assoom that silver wuz

"Troo, G. W.," wuz my answer; "but can't yoo see that to hev silver wood releeve the dettor class? Even, now afore it is legal tender, it's only with 9 cents on the dollar, and when the country is flooded with it, it will go still lower. Then we-or rather sich uv as ez hev property to raise money on-kin pay off-

And this feend led us into the back oom-that back room wich contanes the subsistence uv the Corners. There in long rows, wuz Bascom's stock. There, in barrils, piled one on top uv another, wuz the delishus whisky uv Louisville, uv different ages, rangin from that uv two weeks old to that wich hed jist left the still, and was scarcely cold yit.
