CITY NOTES.

W. A. Fraser, late of Scranton, died yesterday morning at Colorado Springs, Colorado. The regular meeting of the Hebrew Ladies' Relief society will take place this evening. The regular Wednesday evening services at St. Luke's Episcopal church were resumed last night. Judge Edwards yesterday granted a charter to the Angel Gabriel Greek Benevolent society of Wilkes-Barre. There will be a regular meeting of the board of health at their rooms in the Municipal building this afternoon. A drama in three acts, entitled "The Yarnsman," will be given at the Howard Place African Methodist Episcopal church tonight. A social under the auspices of the Excelsior Athletic club will be held this evening at their rooms, 521 Lackawanna avenue. Miss Augusta Gilmore will give a recital tonight in the Park church. She is a graduate of the Emerson College of Oratory. The sale of stamps in the Scranton post-office for the month of September was $1068, which was $1552 more than during the same month last year. The prospect of electing women to membership on the Scranton school board is being discussed in the city Women's Christian Temperance union circles. The retail liquor license of Peter Lepowicz for the hotel at 210 Broadway was yesterday transferred by Judge Edwards to Wolf and Lewis Rosenberger. Members of the Scranton Lodge of Elks can secure complimentary tickets for tomorrow's performance at the Frothingham by attending the lodge meeting tonight. Patrick Dempsey, of New street, arrested at the instance of his wife, who says he threatened to shoot her, was yesterday committed to the county jail by Mayor Halsey in default of $300 bail, to answer at court. Miss Sarah Welsch died yesterday morning at the home of Colonel E. H. Rippe, on Webster avenue. She was 21 years of age and her home was near Lackawanna. She had been ill for some time. The funeral will take place at Colonel Rippe's residence tomorrow morning. Marriage licenses were granted yesterday to Thomas F. Regan, of Scranton, and Katie A. Hughes, of Jessup; Michael Sealon and Polly Nallan, of Scranton; Thomas Gatawiczki and Ella Marziano, of Throop; Horatio W. Purm and Mary Leah M. Corlier, of Scott township; Thomas J. Clifford and Jennie McDonnell, of Scranton. A correspondent asks if gold was recognized as a standard of value anywhere in the world prior to 1860, and if so, where. Gold, with silver, has been since the earliest times a standard of value in all civilized countries. In 1860, however, it was put into circulation since 1860, however, it is several times greater than the whole quantity mined on that year. Dunn Bros. yesterday commenced the laying of the asphalt on Monroe avenue, with the approval of City Engineer Phillips. City Engineer Phillips yesterday gave on the receipt of a certificate from the Trinidad Asphalt company that the Dunn are using the best pitch like asphalt. It will make asphalt doubly sure by having samples of the asphalt tested. The firm name of "Miller & Peck" instead of Weichel & Peck should have appeared yesterday in The Tribune's account of the hearing of the case of the firm of lamps and crockery at China Hall, 134 Wyoming avenue. The opening will not terminate until the next day, when the firm invites an inspection of the splendidly arranged stock in the store. Arguments in the long drawn out trespass suit of Arthur Frothingham against Meredith L. Jones, W. Gibson Jones and Constable E. C. Yeomans will be heard by Alderman Miller at 11 o'clock this morning. The fifth hearing of the case took place yesterday afternoon. Frothingham alleges that the defendant attempted to conduct a constable's sale of his household effects on the day before the sale was advertised to take place. A. S. Cleveland, the Lackawanna avenue commission merchant, was arrested last night on the charge of embezzlement preferred by Frank McDermott, of Philadelphia. Mr. McDermott alleges that Cleveland sold apples for him and failed to turn over $200 of the proceeds. The accused admits that he owes McDermott $200 on account, but denies that there is any ground for a charge of embezzlement. Cleveland gave bail before Alderman Miller. The Grocers' Supply and Produce company, of this city, yesterday had William Briggs, a Peckville storekeeper, arrested for obtaining goods under false pretenses. Briggs represented, so the prosecutors allege, that he had money coming to him from the Ontario and Western Railroad company and on the strength of this they trusted him to the extent of $50. Inquiry led them to believe that Briggs' representations were false, hence the arrest. He gave bail in the sum of $50 before Squire Arnold, of Peckville, to answer at court. Drs. J. K. Bentley, J. R. Murphy and F. L. Van Sickle and Secretary M. C. Judge, of the executive committee of the associated boards of health of Lackawanna county, met yesterday to arrange for the next semi-annual convention, which is to take place October 15. Further than fixing the Scranton board of health rooms for the place for holding the sessions, it is a definite matter as to whether prominent sanitarians throughout the State have been invited to attend, deliver addresses and as soon as they are heard from the programme will be completed.

WANTED TO DUEL WITH REVOLVERS

Wife of One of the Principals Spoiled the Affair. DOCTORS IN A FIGHTING MOOD

Dr. E. Z. Bower and J. J. Sullivan Disagreed—The Former is Accused of Having Later "Made Faces" at Dr. Sullivan and a Challenge Was Issued—The North End Section Highly Elated Over the Affair.

The prospect of a duel with revolvers between Drs. J. J. Sullivan and E. Z. Bower, two reputable North End physicians, has thrown that section of the city into a delightful state of gossip and excitement. The duel was to have been fought at sunrise yesterday morning, but Dr. Bower's wife got wind of the affair and threatened to make it so lively for all concerned that the thing didn't come off.

A disagreement between the two physicians at a confinement case last Friday was the culmination of what has been "bad blood" between them for some time. An unknown friend of Dr. Sullivan's and who gave the name of "Reddington" called twice on Dr. Bower at the latter's house Tuesday evening and arranged for the meeting, after Dr. Bower had signed a paper binding himself not to resort to the law if he received a challenge.

A peculiar feature of the case is that Dr. Sullivan, Bessey, McLean, Dawson, Wehlan, J. Jenkins and W. Jenkins were invited to attend, but were not present. It was while this meeting was in progress that "Reddington" made his two visits to Dr. Bower, the first to advise him that Dr. Bower would not resort to the law in case a challenge was issued by Dr. Sullivan, the second to arrange for a duel site and choice of weapons.

PREFERRED SMITH & WESSON. Dr. Bower stipulated that Smith & Wesson revolvers of 38-calibre should be used. The Eureka base ball park, near the High Works at 5.30 o'clock yesterday morning was agreed upon as the place and time. According to Dr. Bower's statement, Mrs. Bower overheard the conversation that took place with "Reddington" on his second visit. She left the house and notified the police, divulging the affair to a number of her husband's friends and finally elicited her efforts by having a policeman posted outside the house to prevent her husband's leaving it and threatened to cause the arrest of everybody concerned if the duel wasn't declared off.

Dr. Sullivan had at 11 o'clock yesterday night that he was at the appointed place of meeting at the appointed time. He would not admit that he knew anything about the challenge. He accused Dr. Bower of having repeatedly insulted him by word of mouth and "making faces" at him. He averred that Dr. Bower had also "poked his thumb alongside his nose and wriggled his fingers at him." A Tribune reporter called upon Dr. Bower at his office and asked for a concise statement of the affair. From his point of view, the doctor said: "This is no new trouble. I have been hectoring and sorely injured by my brother physicians for a long time and it is plainly evident to me that some of them are jealous of my success and are endeavoring to drive me from town. Some time ago I became slightly implicated in what bore the aspect of a duel and he asked me to assist him. I delivered a lecture in which I was a prominent figure. As time passed on the trouble in my own abated and Dr. Sullivan took advantage of every occasion possible to snub me in a most ungentlemanly manner. "Friday morning while I was out of my office on professional business a call was left for me at my residence at 181 N. Ave. I went to the house and found Mrs. McCloskey about to give birth to a child. I prescribed a sedative mixture and told the family I would call again that evening at 6 o'clock unless they notified me I was not needed. While on my way to the house that evening I met Dr. Sullivan and found that Mrs. McCloskey was just coming from the influence of an anesthetic which he had administered. He family seemed to be very much excited and openly told Dr. Sullivan his services were no longer required. He then started to abuse the family and again asked me to assist him and under the circumstances I refused."

DR. BESSY ARRIVED. "As I was about to leave the house Dr. Bessey arrived. That same evening Sullivan and Bessey were passing my office and seeing me standing in the door the former took occasion to again abuse me and even went so far as to shake his fist in front of my face and make remarks. I followed him into Henwood's drug store and once more he took occasion to make insulting remarks, and at last I told him there was not a speck of manhood in him. He asked me to repeat it and I told him it was not necessary. He then said, 'I will put you on an equal footing by sending you a challenge.' "Thursday night a man giving his name as Reddington, and wearing a smoking glass, came to my office and handed me a type written document, which read as near as I can remember as follows: Tuesday, Sept. 29, 1896. I, E. Z. Bower, hereby swear as a citizen and physician, that if a challenge be sent me by Dr. J. J. Sullivan I will accept or at least not make the law my defense. "I signed the challenge and Mr. Reddington left. Later that night I had retired Mr. Reddington again came to the office. I got up and invited him in and he said, 'Sullivan will meet you tomorrow morning at 5.30 o'clock at the Eureka base ball park, High works. What weapons do you wish to use?' I replied: 'I'll be here. Thirty-eight calibre, Smith & Wesson revolvers.' "MRS. BOWER HEARD. "My wife heard the conversation and became greatly excited. She also got an officer to guard the entrance of our house and declared she would swear out warrants for our arrests. I told her, signing the above mentioned challenge, agreeing that I would take no legal action in the matter, and to settle the affair and not to break the compact and to remain at home. "Meanwhile it is the opinion of the North End that the matter has not ended. That there will be a duel is not likely, but a physical encounter is believed to be among the possibilities.

New Millinery and Fancy Goods Store. The Misses Dolph and Benjamin will open a new millinery and fancy goods store on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 2nd and 3rd at 1427 Capouse avenue, and cordially invite the ladies of Green Ridge and vicinity to inspect their large assortment of French Patterns, Bonnets and other novelties in millinery and fancy goods. Miss Elsie A. C. Van Dervoort, concert contralto, Vocal instruction, Studio 409 Wyoming avenue. Steam clams, spring chicken and good beer, at Lohmann's, Spruce. LYNETT-RUDDY NUPTIALS.

Editor of the Times and Miss Nellie Ruddy United in Marriage. In the presence of a very large congregation of friends and acquaintances, Edward J. Lynett, editor and proprietor of the Scranton Times, and Miss Nellie Ruddy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Ruddy, of 308 Penn. avenue, were united in marriage with a nuptial mass by Rev. John J. Ruddy, of Erie, a brother of the bride, at St. Peter's cathedral, yesterday morning at 9 o'clock.

Frank O. Megarage, of Megarage Bros., west man and Miss Sarah Middy, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The ushers were M. J. Ruddy, T. F. Collins, John Kirby and W. J. Cawley. The bride and her maid wore the latest styles of dresses of blue cloth, with lace and jewel trimmings and Gainsborough hats. The bride carried a richly bound prayer book. The ceremony was performed in the sanctuary, and again when retiring, Organist Schilling played appropriate marches. Rev. J. A. O'Reilly, rector of the cathedral, presided in the sanctuary during the ceremony. After the ceremony the bridal party and the immediate relatives and friends of the bride, who will be the bride's mother, were congratulated and a wedding breakfast was served. Congratulatory telegrams were received from Bishop Fishin, Rev. Fathers Millane, Winters, Sandell and others. At 11 o. m. Mr. and Mrs. Lynett left on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train for New York, where they will take ship for Bouaquo, Va. They will spend two weeks in traveling through the south and on their return will reside in Dunmore.

WILL NOT HEAR TO IT.

City Will Do Its Own Work, Mayor Bailey Says. When Mayor Bailey and Street Commissioner Kinsley saw in yesterday's Tribune the letter from the Turnpike company offering to macadamize West Market street, they got together and conferred as to what they should do when the official copy of the letter reached their hands. Not being able to decide what to do, they at once called on Attorney S. B. Price, who told them to pay no heed to the letter, but go on with their original plan of having the city workers do the repaving.

Mayor Bailey said to a Tribune reporter that when the communication came to him he will simply refer it to council and let them decide. Regarding the city's stand in the matter the mayor said that as the city is compelled to repair the road it proposes to do it itself and it will do it for less than $1,500. Mr. Kinsley had assured him that the work can be done in as good a manner as the Turnpike company proposes to do it, for $1,000 or less.

TO RECEIVE ELECTION RETURNS.

Only members of the Central Republican club will be admitted to the club rooms on election night, when they will receive the United and Associated press returns over a special wire. In past years the rooms have been densely packed by scores of members, and in the attendant confusion the receipts of the returns was little else than an occasion for hurrahing or remaining silent. This year it is proposed to know almost the exact result as soon as the last return is in. The Republican county committee is now using the club's apartments, but the committee on election night will be by card only. The rule will be imperative that the cards will be issued to club members only. A telegraph instrument will be placed in the club apartments.

STAGE REALISM WITH A VIM.

The Limited Mail Entuses a Large Audience at Academy of Music. "The Limited Mail," Elmer E. Vance's realistic drama, with its wealth of scenic and mechanical effects, was presented at the Academy of Music last night to a house which could not be any bigger. For a thrilling succession of exciting climaxes and clever stage realism, "The Limited Mail" stands prominently foremost among popular dramas. A railroad train, full sized, and in full flight, a wreck, saw mill in operation and a four inferior ones, which are among the most noteworthy features along the line. Entertaining specialties were introduced by Beatrice, a clever dancing sobriety. Her dancing, a tramp impersonator; Dannie Williams, the funny "Barney O'Regan," and other members of the company. All in all it is a play that enthralls the audience it attracts.

EVENING ENTERTAINMENTS.

Arranged for by County Superintendent Taylor. County Superintendent J. C. Taylor has made arrangements for two evening entertainments for the teachers of the institute which opens on Monday, Oct. 12. Mr. Taylor thinks it is better to have two first-class entertainments than four inferior ones. The first one will be on Tuesday evening, Oct. 13. Alexander Black, of New York, will present his picture play, "Miss Jerry." The author personates the different characters, and at the same time there are about 250 stereoscopic views. On Thursday evening Dr. Bryan W. King, of this city, will give a literary and humorous entertainment. Dr. King has the reputation of being a peer in this line. Both will be held at Young Men's Christian Association hall.

BOTHER IN THE BURR BUILDING.

Life Has Not Been One Long, Sweet Song Thereabout Lately. William Henderson and his wife, who look after the cleanliness and safe-keeping of the Burr building on Washington avenue, were yesterday held in $300 bail each to keep the peace towards all good citizens of common wealth and particularly Mrs. Agnes Hunter, one of the tenants, who alleged before Alderman Miller that the janitor and his wife had threatened to do her harm. Later Mrs. Hunter was called upon to answer to the charge of breaking the assault and battery on Henderson and for vilifying the good name of Mrs. Henderson. She was held in $300 bail on each charge.

NEW SHOE DEPARTMENT.

Has Been Added to the Store of Morris J. Davidson. A shoe department has been added to the clothing store of Morris J. Davidson on Lackawanna avenue. For some time workmen have been altering the arrangement of a portion of the building in order to provide for displaying the new stock. Mr. Davidson invites an inspection of the new department. Its stock is made up of all kinds of shoes for service and dress wear and it has been selected to please one class of trade as much as another.

Grand Excursion from Northeastern Pennsylvania to Canton, Ohio. LOW RATE FOR THE ROUND TRIP

About Three-Quarters of a Cent a Mile—Will Leave Lackawanna and Wyoming Valleys One Week from Tomorrow Evening, Returning Oct. 11—Run by Newspapers as an Accommodation to Public Sentiment.

The remarkable interest excited among the people by the admirable front porch speeches delivered by Major McKinley to delegations from all parts of the country who are daily visiting the home of the Republican presidential candidate at Canton, O., has during the past few weeks called forth in this city and its vicinity a desire on the part of many to see the Lackawanna and Wyoming valleys represented among these delegations. Probably not less than 100 Scrantonians have recently been heard to express a wish to make the pilgrimage to Canton, and the same interest is doubtless general throughout the valleys. It is now proposed by the Republican press of the two counties to afford to these people an exceptional opportunity to gratify this inclination. The daily sound money press of Carbonade, Scranton, Pittston, Wilkes-Barre and Hazleton has secured from the Pennsylvania and Delaware and Hudson railroad companies an excursion rate to Canton and return which brings the privilege of a trip to that now important Ohio city within the reach of all. The distance from Scranton to Canton is 426 miles, or 852 miles for the round trip. The rate now offered to all who may wish to go is only $6.75 for the round trip—just about three-fourths of a cent a mile. This is believed to be the lowest rate ever advertised in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

OUTLINE OF PLANS.

Major McKinley has consented to receive and speak to a delegation from the twin valleys of Northeastern Pennsylvania on Saturday, October 10. A special train will leave Carbonade, Scranton and Wilkes-Barre via the Delaware and Hudson and Pennsylvania railroads for Canton on Friday evening, October 9, late enough to enable prospective passengers to complete their day's labors on Friday and secure supper before the train's departure. The exact hour of departure will be announced later. This train will have sleepers as well as day coaches, and will also have attached to it a lunch car in charge of a competent caterer. Passengers can therefore secure food and lodgings without leaving the train. Berths for the whole journey to and fro will cost $5 additional to the regular train fare, if occupied by one person; if occupied by two persons, the cost will be $3 apiece. Meals in the lunch car will cost ordinary restaurant rates. The train will arrive in Canton Saturday forenoon and leave Canton Saturday night. The return trip has been planned so as to enable the excursionists to take the picturesque ride over the Alleghenians by daylight. This ride is one of the most celebrated in America and the scenery visible along it is of almost incomparable grandeur. The train will reach Wilkes-Barre Sunday afternoon and Scranton and points up the valley a few minutes later. The entire journey will involve the loss of only one business day (Saturday) and if we count out the legal half-holiday, the actual loss of time from business will be only half a day. The train will be in personal charge of Traveling Passenger Agent Timmons, of the Pennsylvania railroad.

THE TRIP'S SIGNIFICANCE.

This popular excursion to Canton has been arranged for solely by the newspapers of the two counties, as an accommodation for the public sentiment which has been urging that this part of the great Republican stronghold of the nation should not fail of suitable representation at Canton. The politicians have no identification with it. If any of them want to go, they will be welcome, but they must pay their own fare and take chances with the train. Nobody will be allowed on the rest who is unwilling to buy his own ticket. Nobody will be asked to help the excursion along to any further extent than to honor it with his presence at $6.75 for the round trip, berth and meals extra. The newspapers themselves make no money on the transaction. Tickets will be sold directly to excursionists at the principal Delaware and Hudson offices between Carbonade and Wilkes-Barre, and at the Pennsylvania office in Wilkes-Barre. The price from points above Scranton will be $6.85. Berths will be reserved upon application at the ticket offices, first come first served. It is desired that all who wish to take advantage of this exceedingly low offer will as soon as possible let the ticket agents know, so that suitable accommodations may be secured in advance. The invitation is open to all—Democrats and Prohibitionists as well as Republicans, free silverites, as well as sound moneyites. It is a ride worth double the money, and all who take it will be repaid many fold.

CHRISTIAN'S FIRE SALE.

Entire Stock Will Be Closed Out at Cut Prices. At 9 o'clock this morning will begin the sacrifice sale of F. P. Christian's entire stock of hats and gents' furnishings, contained in his store when the recent fire visited the upper portion of the building. Only a very small portion of the stock was damaged by the fire, which found its way into the store, but as Mr. Christian has won a reputation for carrying nothing but the choicest goods, he does not propose to jeopardize that reputation by carrying over any goods that might have even the suspicion of being damaged. A reference to a newspaper's special announcement in another column will show some of the cut prices on staple goods.

DIED AT THE HOSPITAL.

Polander Who Came There Ten Days Ago Suffering from Typhoid. George Storky, a young Polander, died at the Lackawanna Hospital at 6 o'clock last evening. He walked into the hospital a week last Tuesday suffering from a malignant attack of typhoid fever. All Dr. Fish could learn concerning him was that he came here from Syracuse recently and boarded somewhere on Pittston avenue. The man was so very sick that his strength was almost gone when he arrived. If he has any friends in the city, they are requested to make some arrangements for the disposition of the body.

THE FALL HAS ALREADY SET IN, AND TRADE.

Use of printer's ink can reach the public with neat printing, or a well displayed "ad" if done at the right time. Do not let your competitor get the start on all things in his line. You have a right to some of the world's prosperity, but you cannot share it by keeping your bargains to yourself, and hoping that the people will learn of them by-and-by. A printed circular or card will sometimes do the work; while a good display advertisement in a free, progressive newspaper, such as The Tribune, is never amiss. We invite your attention to our facilities for both means of reaching the public. Are you in business to make money? If not, you had better not take advantage of our unexcelled facilities. Try Jordan's one-half minute stews.

MINER'S AWFUL DEATH.

Head of James Jones, of Pear Street, Almost Blown Off. Death in awful form came to James Jones, of Pear street, South Side, yesterday morning in the National shaft of William Cunnell & Co. He had lit the squib ready to fire a blast, but he had time to move more than three feet away the squib communicated to the powder and the blast exploded. His head was almost blown off by the flying coal, and death was instantaneous. He was about 52 years old and a widower with one son, 12 years old. His wife died a year ago.
