Fing Raising at No. 19 School at Jackson Street and Rebecca Avenue. Very Interesting Exercises.

"This is the prettiest 'flag raising' that I ever have seen" said Superintend-ent of Schools Geo. Howell during the es at the new No. 19 school yesexercises at the new No. 19 school yes-terday afternoon when a handsome "Stars and Stripes" was presented to the school by the joint effort of Camps 333 and 178 of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, and Camp 33 of the Patriotic Order of True Americans. It was indeed a magnificent sight. The new building is bull upon an elevation fully forty feet above the level of Jackson street, which it fronts, and Re-Jackson street, which it fronts, and Rebecca avenue, on the eastern border, slopes gradually in line with the several terraces in front of the imposing structure. The tapering flag pole, fifty feet high, and painted white, is placed in the southeast corner of the spacious whole premises is enclosed on the east and south sides by a retaining wall built of stone

The facing of the front is of white brick with dashes of red color.

AN INSPIRING SCENE.

With these natural beauties add the with these natural behindes and the color given to a scene by the presence of about 2,000 people densely crowded in front of the building, the mass reaching to the farthest sidewalks on the address and then occurs actioned two sides, and then, again, stationed about the flag pole were three hund-red school children in holiday attire and carrying small flags; with the members of the band in bright uniforms and shining musical instru-ments; two hundred persons from the patriotic societies all wearing regalias and rosettes of red, white and blue-with these in the mind a fair picture of yesterday's scenes will be presented. The speaking was done from the middle platform between the three flights of stone steps. When the flag was raised the school children sang the "Star Spangled Banner," accompanied by the band. As the colors crept up the pole the crowd cheered and the men in the crowd reverently doffed their hats. The flag itself is very handsome. Its dimensions are 20x30 feet. The three camps which gave the flag have been arranging for the event for several months past. Camp 32, Patriotic Order True Americans, is composed of ladies. Mrs. Ellen Davis is president.

Present at the exercises were: Revs. Roger Israel, A. L. Ramer, J. B. Sweet and T. Bell; School Controllers Mitchell, Schriefer, Jacobs, Francols, Davis Jennings and Langan.

OPENING THE EXERCISES.

The exercises opened at 3.45 o'clock, when Albert Davis, chairman of the presentation committee, introduced the Rev. J. B. Sweet, who offered an invocation. The reverend gentleman prayed that the blessing of the Almighty would fall upon the doings of the day. Led by Professor C. B. Der-man, who has been in charge of the Rev. George Guild, of the North End, officiated. Bride and groom were un-attended. After the ceremony the sevman, who has been in charge of the rehearsals, the pupils of the school sang "My Country, "Tis of Thee." The singing was simply a pretty scene in a magnificent drama. Crowded around the yet flagless pole the children sang. Master George Marsh, age 12, an attendant at the school, made the address of welcome. The little fellow stood up-on a table and, though owing to the noise, his voice could not possibly have penetrated beyond the first twenty tows, yet it was a clever little speech. He expressed the pleasure of his fel-low schoolmates and their teachers for the gift. He also thanked the hoard to the country's rulers, but to the great God who is the Ruler of the Universe. The school sang the "Red, White and Blue," followed by Attorney W. Gay-lord Thomas, who was orator for the city. Mr. Thomas eulogized the public schools and expressed his sympathy with the movement which brought about the gift of the flag. Short ad-dresses were afterward made by Presi-dent Mitchell, of the board of control; Hon John R. Farr, and Miss Josephine Lees princing to No. 18 school. Presi-Hon John R. Farr, and Miss Josephine Lees, principal of No. 19 school. Presiand for thirty years he was employed in the machinist shops of the Dela-ware, Lackawanna and Wetsern com-

AMUSEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Grandin who are the leading exponents of the romantic dra-ma will be at the Academy of Music on Thursday and Friday producing their latest metropolitan success "At the Carnival," and "Camille." The Granding on both metropolitan Grandins are both young, handsome and filled with magnetism. Mrs. Grandine was before her marriage Eva Mountford, and achieved a fame that placed her in the front ranks of the hest of emotional actresses. Mr. Gran-din is well known by his rendition of the heroes of romance. The scenery, costumes and company is promised to be of the best, and those of our playgoers who like fine productions finely produced have a treat in store for them by the appearance of Mr. and Mrs. Grandin in this city.

"Wang" which will be seen at the Frothingham tonight has but two acts, yet the drops for its production will cost several thousands, while the total bill for scenery and accessories will probably reach $15,000. This is but little more than the average cost of mounting comic operas in these days. When it is considered that these figures do not include thousands spent on cos-tumes, nor the further thousand re-quired for lithographic work, the thousands for the railroad transportation for nearly a hundred people, and the thousands necessary to have to fall back upon for salaries in case of bad business, it can readily be imagined that the theatrical business, especially in the department of comic opera, is one requiring abnormal business qualifications as well as almost unlimited

THE FLAG ACCEPTED.

Superinetndent Howell accepted the flag in behalf of the public school organization of Scranton. His short ad-dress was the most delicate of the day. He said, in beginning: "God has made in the sky no greater work of art, no grander sight than the uplifting of that flag which we have seen today." During the remainder of his talk he paid trib-ute to Old Glory, said that it meant more than a mere emblem for a counmore than a mere emblem for a country; it stood for a country's history, for lives sacrificed in that country's de-fense, for struggles, and these strug-
