icranton Reserves Defeat the Harmonies 7 to 6. The champion Harmonies and the Scranton Reserves played a good game at Athletic park yesterday afterr oon. The defcated team has been successful against nearly every amateur team in the county during the season, but they seem to go in the air when they play on a good diamond. They are accus-tomed to playing on the town lots, and are clever at that.

"Jimmy" Dean and "Bill" Hoffner, of the Hamilton team, played with the Reserves, but they did not nave any chance to distinguish themselves. The features of the game were McDonaid's pitching and Coleman's batting.

In the seventh inning with three men on bases, and two out, Hurst hit what second base, but Brooks stopped it cler-erly and ended the game. The score was as follows:
