From Scranton to Canton and Return, Including a Visit to McKinley, for $6.75-Just About Three-Quarters of a Cent a Mile.

This is what the Republican Press of Northeasten Pennsylvania Offers to the People of Lackawanna and Wyoming Valleys. The Excursion Will Leave Scranton Friday Evening, Oct. 9, Late Enough to Let Every Man Finish His Day's Work. It Will Go Via the D. & H. to Wilkes-Barre, and Thence Via the Pennsylvania Railroad Direct to Canton, Which It Will Reach Saturday Forenoon. After a Speech by Major McKinley the Return Trip Will Be Made So as to Enable the Party to See the Allegheny Mountains by Daylight, and to Get Back Home Sunday Afternoon, Oct. 11. Each Train Will Have a Lunch Car and Sleeping Cars. Meals and Berths Are Extra. Every One Pays His Own Way and Nobody Goes Who Doesn't Want To. It Isn't a Money-making Affair. It Is Just the Expression of a Popular Desire to Visit the Home and Shake the Hand of the Next President.

> Tickets Are for Sale at the D. & H. Office, Where Berths Can Be Reserved and All Inquiries Answered. All Who Want to Go Are Requested to Give Advance Notice of the Fact, So That There May Be Ample Accommodations.

BISMARCK'S IDEAS OF BIMETALLISM

Andrew D. White's Open Letter to the Governor of Texas.

A BEAUTIFUL BUBBLE EXPLODED

The Letter from the Iron Prince Favoring Bimetallism Pronounced a Forgery -- Bismarck a Veritable Gold Bug -- He Is Also Against American Products and Has Contempt for Any Form of Republican Government.

New York, Oct. 2.—The Hon. Andrew D. White, writing from Ithaca, has ad-dressed an open letter to Governor Culberson, of Texas, on the recent Bis-

Culberson, of Texas, on the recent Bismarck campaign document, in the course of which he says in part:
You have doubtless already learned that both you and Mr. Bryan have been deceived regarding the letter of Prince Bismarck to you, and that the had ensnared the great American republic by answering you.

"Even if it may please your excellency and Mr. Bryan to be enrolled in the numerous and gorgeous company of Prince Bismarck's dupes, I venture ished, is a forgery, the dishonest translation foisted upon your excellency and Mr. Bryan containing a long para-time. Mr. Bryan containing a long paragraph favoring the immediate and independent action of the United States in favor of bimetallism, which does not exist in the original.

in favor of bimetallism, which does not exist in the original.

Of course, I acquit you both of intentional deceit, believing you both too high minded to profit knowingly by its forged interpretation. But we are the American people to think of a cause which resorts to such a glaring criminal expedient, and which has not hesitated to exhibit you and your candidate to exhibit you and your candidate. tated to exhibit you and your candidate in the light of dupes before sixty mil-lions of your fellow citizens. Will this not go far to convince them that your party, having falled in argument, has found it necessary to resort to the cheapest of frauds in order to bolster cause of silver monometallism, for some time past, has been gradually sinking in all civilized coun-

But, even conceding that the letter, with or without its forged interpola-tion, proves that Prince Bismarck favors the unlimited coinage of silver in the United States, I respectfully submit that your excellency's confiding application to the prince, for his opinion on this subject, and the use of his reply made by yourself and Mr. Bryan is possibly the most farcical event in American history.

MR. WHITE'S REASONS. "My reasons for this opinion are as

As minister of the United States to the German empire in 1879, 1880 and 1881, I carefully observed the demonetiza-tion of silver in Germany, which reached its consummation during those years. Possibly Mr. Bryan and your excellency will be amazed to learn that the controlling and directing agent in that demonstrization was none other than your kind correspondent. Prince Pismarck himself; at that time the all powerful chancellor of the German em-

Somewhat over half of the vast mass of silver thus reduced to bullion was sold by the German government; but the price ran so low that the sales were stopped, and the German treasury was left with an enormous quantity of this depreciated money in its coffers, amounting, if I remember rightly, to something over one hundred millions A little of it-say two million dollars—Germany managed to work off on poor Egypt under the Khe-dive Tewfik; and as Bismarck is really a patriotic, far-sighted statesman, he would naturally beglad to find a similar dupe on this side of the Atlantic, and unload the remainder upon the United States at say twice its market

"As a simple matter of fact, of which I was directly and officially cognizant, Prince Bismarck utterly declined to take part in any general scheme of bimetallism without the co-operation of Great Britain, though the United States and France, jointly and officially united in urging it upon his government. "Prince Bismarck is, first of all, as many of his victims besides your ex-cellency and Mr. Bryan have had occasion to know, a great German patriot, devoted above all things to German in-terests as he understands them. Hence it was that he demonetized silver and brought Germany on a gold basis; and for the same patriotic reasons which are now leading the great Russian minister of finance, Mr. DeWitte, to do the

AGAINST AMERICAN PRODUCTS.

"Hence it was, too, that Prince Bis-"Hence it was, too, that Prince Bismarck did his best to exclude from Germany our American agricultural products, and, hence doubtless, it is that he shows his German patriotism by obligingly suggesting to you, and through you to the American people, a policy which would profit Germany to the amount of about fifty millions of dollars, to say nothing of comfortable profits to the German bullion brokers.

"But where, where does your request for the advice of Prince Bismarck, in a matter so vital to the United States, leave you personally, and the candidate of your party, who, with you, has been thus deluded? Since the spider's famous invitation to the fly there has been nothing of this sort so pathetic; but there is a touching difference, the fly on that momentous occasion knew too much to go to the spider for advice. It was the spider that volun-

Up-the-river farmers suffered a great deal of damage by the unroofing of buildings, blowing down of barns and the general destruction of crops. CHAMPLUVIRE DIES.

CHAMPLUVIRE DIES.

CHAMPLUVIRE DIES,
Ferdinand Champluvire, the Frenchman, who was confined in the county jail for the killing of Benjamin Carter, died at 2.30 yesterday afternoon. He had been complaining since Tuesday night with a supposed bilious attack, but the finding of a bottle of laudanum in his pockets throws new light on the subject. The crime for which Champluvire was waiting trial was committed at Skinner's Eddy on the night of July 3. He and Benjamin Carter, with a lot of companions, were drinking at the Table Rock hotel. A quarrel ensued in which blows passed between them. Somebody separated the two men and led Champluvire out of the house, starting him on the road "For Prince Bismarck, as a states-man and the patriot I have profound respect; but he has always held Dem-ocratic and Republican governments in ocratic and Republican governments in contempt; and having been present more than once when he has discussed the views of those from whom he differs, I can well imagine the smile, "so childlike and bland," with which he welcomed our excellency's confiding letter, and the outburst of Titanic laughter with which he would hear that he had ensnared the great American republic by answering you.

"Even if it may please your excellence and Mr. Bryan to be enrolled in the numerous and gorgeous company of Prince Bismarck's dupes, I venture to inquire—how do you think the American people, as Abraham Lincoln called them—would feel, if they found that under the lead of Mr. Bryan and your-living for murder in the first degress, luvire for murder in the first degress, and his trial would have been held in and his trial would have been held in Average and evice, added to the princess collection of victims, and thus made laughling stock through the world, and for all times."

Market would have been held in November. Some Skinner's Eddy people visited him on Tuesday, and what they told him about public sentiment at that place with regard to the murder seemed to have a very depressing effect upon his mind. It is probable that he regarded conviction certain and preferred to die by his own hand. He came to this country about twelve years ago and was living with his second wife at the time of the murder. He had two children by the former wife and one by his last. No arrangements have yet been made about the disposition of the body.
