LADIES' BOX CALF SHOES.

Our ladies' shoes for fall and winter wear are something new. They are made of a new lightweight material called "Box Calf," and we have them iu lace and button, with good heavy soles, so they can be worn without rubbers if necessary. Box calf will not wet through and is besides, good and serviceable. These shoes are made with the new toe, which is very comfortable as well as stylish. We have a Christian convention. It is a gathering of Christian people for a special purpose and for the ultimate glory of skating purposes. We also carry a full line of them for misses and children, made up with the same style or toe. They are the best shoes for school that can be had. We have them in greatest gathering of outside delegates in its history. This afternoon and tonight will be a busy period for Endeavor executive of-ficers and committees, but the prelimmary work as at first outlined has been carried on with such exactness, good management and absence of confusion that not much remains to be done aside from a carrying out of the final details. Most of the state officers will be here before midnight.

DECORATING THUS FAR.

While the decorations are not as gen-eral nor as elaborate as had been hoped for, it is likely that before nightfall a large number of structures now barren large number of structures now barren of bunting color will display a paledoscopic welcome to the visitors. On the buildings already decorated the stars and stripes and the Endeavor colors of red and white predominate. The interiors of fourteen churches which have been selected as headquarters for county delegations have been hand-somely trimmed. In many instaffices somely trimmed. In many instances the work has been done by professional lecorators.

The sermons in many of the churches vesterday bore upon the convention and Endeavorism. The North End socieles joined in a rally in the Providence Presbyterian church and the West Side cieties in the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, the united choir sec-tions of those localities participating in he services.

Announcement is made for the meeting of committees and other conven-tion organizations tonight as follows: Committee of '96 and ushers, Young Men's Christian association building: sub-reception committees of the Ply-mouth and Caivary churches and all aptains and lieutenants, Young Men's Christian association building: Central City, West Side and North End choirs for cehearsal in Elm Park, Washburn Street Presbyterian and Providence Street Presbyterian and Providence Presbyterian churches, respectively. Dr. McCrory, state president; George McDonald, state secretary, and many western delegates will reach here at 9 o'clock this evening on a Delaware and Hudson train. They will be met at the station by the Plymouth and Calvary church sections of the reception com-mittee and the reception captains and mittee and the reception captains and

THE CONVENTION BADGE. The convention badge is of red and is lettered in silver. Across the top is a miniature steel rall from which is suspended a piece of coal. WEST SIDE MEETING. A notable gathering filled the Wash-burn Street Presbyterian church last burn Street Presbyterian church last evening, when several of the West Side churches—especially those which have Christian Endeavor societies—held a union service in the interest of the Christian Endeavor convention. Every seat in the church was occupied. Be-sides the crowded assemblage and the impressive scene presented in the gathering of followers of the different gathering of followers of the different denominations, the auditorium was prettily decorated with American flags, bunting, natural green, and streamers of the regulation '96 "C. E." colors, red and white, with explanatory script. In the pulpit were Rev. J. B. Moffatt, D. D., pastor of the home church; Rev. Thomas Bell, of the Plymouth Congregational church; Rev. J. T. Morris, of the Weish Calvinistic Methodist church, Bellevue, and Rev. John Griffiths, of the Summer Avenue Presbyterian church. In the choir gallery was the West Side Christian Endeavor choir of 100 voices, led by Professor Lewis Davis, The regular quartette of the Washburn street church, Mrs. B. the Washburn street church, Mrs. B. T. Jayne, Miss Bertha Calkins, David Beynon and Edwin Bowen, also sat in the choir loft. During the fifteen min-ute song and prayer service, which opened the meeting. Professor D. A. Stone, assistant leader and manager of the choir, was in charge. After this, Rev. Mr. Moffatt, who presided over the main meeting, introduced Rev John Griffiths, who read scripture. ADDRESS BY REV. THOMAS BELL Prayer by Mr. Moffatt and congrega-Prayer by Mr. Moffatt and congrega-tional singing was followed by an ad-dress by Rev. Thomas Bell. Mr. Bell's words were listened to with the closest attention. In part he said: "We are here not as Presbyterians, but as Christians. The convention has really begun. The great meeting is not a Christian Endeavor convention, but a Christian convention. It is a gather.

our city, ourselves, and our God."

Mr. Bell likened the work of the '96 committee to an engineer who gradually opens the throttle of his engine and thus steadily gains in speed until the full power is in use. He said that the power which moves the convention the power which moves the convention and its preliminary work was a Divine force. We have utilized this power through prayer. The power is here for service, said Mr. Bell. The period of activity is not to be consumed in pleasure, but is to be absorbed in service. Service for whom?—for God. In closing, Mr. Bell*thought that Scranton would receive its blessing from the as-would receive its blessing from the assemblage of the week. It will be an opportunity for service for the Master. Will you let that opporunity go by?

Rev. J. T. Morris, pastor of the Bellevue Calvinistic Methodist church, offered prayer. Mr. Moffatt followed with a talk on the meaning of the gathering and the effort required in arranging for it. He said it was not a cause of humanity, but of God. The meeting closed with the Christian Endeavor benediction spoken by the assemblage and the general benediction by Mr. Griffiths. A collection was taken up in the forepart of the meeting: the amount obtained will be devoted to the convention expenses.

ing; the amount obtained will be devoted to the convention expenses.

The different societies of the Christian Endeavor in Dunmore held a special service in the Presbyterian church last night, which was presided over by the Rev. A. B. O'Neal, of the Baptist church, and Rev. F. Gibbons, of the Presbyterian church.

NORTH END RALLY. The North End rally or rather union service of the Christian Endeavor so-cieties of that part of the city was held in the Presbyterian church, on North Main avenue. The seating capacity of the church was taxed to its utmost and the attendance was the largest in the history of the church. The windows and chandellers were adorned with the convention banners. A showt praise service opened the exercises and this was followed by devotional exercises conducted by Rev. George E. Guild, After the devotional services the Rev.

The word evangelize pertains to something connected with religion, and means to bring under the power of religion. When I speak of religion, I do not mean any particular denomination. I am a believer in certain phases of de-nomination ism. I am a Baptist be-cause, to my knowledge, they have the largest amount of distinct truths em-bodied in their belief. Denomination, mechanically speaking, is a large word but religiously speaking Christianity is much larger. This meeting gives to us a glimpse of the vastness of the coming convention. Many will go to the convention simply for the purpose of having a grand and enjoyable time. This will not be the case with Endeav-orers; they will receive such inspiration as has never been experienced hereto-fore, and will go down into the valley of sin and strive to win souls for Christ SHOULD INSPIRE ALL. "The meetings to come should inspire all who attend to work more zealously. If the object of the convention is not for soul saving, it is nothing but a great waste of time. But the conventions of the past bear excellent records for soul saving and this will be, without doubt, no exception. When so many prayers and so much hard work has preceded a convention the Lord will surely remember His promise and send showers of blessing. The effect of this convention will not be local only, but will spread over the state." Concluding he said: "While this convention is in progress let us not sit and watch how it works, but let us be up and doing. Let us hold the ropes for the explorers in the vast field for labor presented to us in this state of Pennsylvania, and may we exclaim 'Penn-sylvania for Christ.'" After Rev. Mr. Watkins had concluded, the Rev. D. M. Kinter gave a short address in which he gave much sound advice in regard to the manner in which Endeavorers should conduct themselves during the convention. During the service the North End Chris-tian Endeavor choir, numbering 150, led the singing and rendered two anthems in excellent style. The Rev. George E. Guild pronounced the benediction. After the service a short re-hearsal was held by the choir,

Alf. McGee preached his larewell ser-mon last night from St. John xv: 27, "Peace I leave with you, my place I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. * * " " He thanked his parishioners for their earnestness and help, urged them to support as well their new pastor and argued to show the peace that comes with a Christian life and how his hearers might best succeed in their work for the church. The Howard Place church has been greatly strengthened during Mr. Mc-Gee's pastorate. There were 30 members when he came her in 1892 as against 110 now. At a cost of nearly $800 a chapel was recently built in the rear of the church and parsonage. On it there is a debt of about $400, the only incumbrance the church has. Tonight the congregation will hold its annual busi-ness meeting, when a secular report will be made by Mr. McGee and the church officers.

In conversation with a Tribune reporter yesterday Mr. McGee spoke very feelingly of the kindness that had been shown him and the congregation by Scranton people. He came here from Wheeling, W. Va., where he was pre-siding elder of a mission district.

Rev. W. H. Brown, of New Brighton the presiding elder of this district, is deeply interested in the Howard Place charge, one of the most important in the district. It is believed that on this account the congregation is assured of having sent to it one of the best ministers in the conference, but his identity s not known.

THERE IS NEED FOR MORE BIBLE STUDY

Plea Made by Rev. Dr. McLeod in His Morning Sermon.

THE EXAMPLE OF PAST EXPERIENCE

That Indifference to the Bible's Teachings Invites an Absence of Christianity, Civilization and Thrift--Comparison of Mexico and Massachusetts -- Secret of Queen Victoria's Distinction.

A plea for Bible study in the full sense of the word "study" was made by Rev. Dr. James McLeod in his sermon yesterday morning in the First Presby-terian church. His text was from John terian church. His text was from John v. 33, "Search the Scriptures." He said: Thousands of young people will be in our city this week, who have pledged themselves to read the Bible everyday. This is a good resolution. But what does it mean. If by reading the Bible they only mean a surface glance at a verse or a chapter, such reading is of little use. The Bible is the commonest book in the world and the most widely distributed, and yet there are millions, even outed, and yet there are millions, even in Christendom, who are ignorant of its contents. This is a great shame but it G. Watkins, pastor of the North Main avenue Baptist church, and chair-man of the evanegilstic committee of '96, delivered a short address on evan-gelistic work. During his remarks he s the exact truth.

"It ought to stimulate us to Bible study to recall the debt we owe the Bible. Literature, philosophy, science, poetry, painting, music, civil and religious liberty owe far more to the Bible than many are willing to acknowledge. Christianity is the organized embodi-Christianity is the organized embodi-ment of Bible truth, and he would be a bold man who would say that Christ-ianity has not blessed the world. When the Bible was a sealed book the ancient church became degenerate and wor-shipped idols. When the Bible was found and searched the Israelites put way idelative and worshipped the Lord. away idolatry and worshipped the Lord. It was the preaching and the prac-tice of Bible truth that drove every god out of the Roman Pantheon. During the long dark night of the Middle Ages it was a rare thing to find a copy of the was a rare thing to find a copy of the Bible, and the people had no access to it. We know the condition of Christendom just prior to the great Reformation in the sixteenth century, and we know what caused the Revolution that resulted in the Reformation. We know that the Bible emancipated the human intellect from the thraldom of ignorance and the human soul from the thraldom of priestcraft. thraldom of priestcraft.

FOUNDATION OF GREATNESS. We know what it is that lies at the foundation of our own nation's greatness. It is the Bible. And it is the Bible, more than anything else, that has made England and Germany mighty empires. "The brightest jewel in the crown of Victoria is the fact that she has not forgotten the words addressed on the day of her coronation. She has searched the Scriptures and she has found in them eternal life. In all her relations as a queen, as a wife, as a mother, and as a Christian she has been true to the truth, and she has a godly example to the nation over which she reigns. It is no secret that England, Germany and these United States owe their greatness to a free and open Bible. "Contrast England with Spain! Con-trast Germany with Italy! Contrast the United States with the South Amerthe United States with the South American Republic! What a contrast! Why this great difference? Or do what has been done, contrast Massachusetts with Mexico. Mexico was colonized a whole century before Massachusetts. Its first settlers were the noblest spirits of Spain in her Augustine age—the epoch Spain in her Augustine age—the epoch of Certes, and Cervantes, and Columbus and the great Isabella. Mexico a garden, Massachusetts a wilderness. But in respect of a hath that gave to make a people happy and useful Massachusetts stands at the highest point and Mexico at the lowest. Why is this? The answer is easy. The Bible has always been a free and open book in Massachusetts, while in Mexico it has always been practically a sealed book to which the people were forbidden access.

ERRORS OF THE AGE. "The errors of the age are manifold and if we are to meet them successful-ly we must search the Scriptures. The only way to keep out error is to pour in truth. A wrong interpretation of Scripture must be met by a right in-Scripture must be met by a right in-terpretation. It is here that many pro-fessing Christians are weak, they are not able to give a good reason for their faith. They do not search the Scrip-tures. They do not dig beneath the surface or for hidden treasures. Young people do not study the Bible now as they did in formed years. They do not memorize it as they used to do. Some professing Christians are far more familiar with the daily papers than they are with their Bible.

"This is cause for regret, because the sound of the spirit is the word of God, and we cannot handle that sound skillfully unless we have familiarized ourselves with it. Infidelity is not dead, and the best weapon with which to meet it is the Bible. At times into meet it is the Bible. At times in-idelity has used the Bible in order to propogate its error—which. I take leave to say, is neither science nor Christian—and while it carries the Bible under its arm it tramples its dectrine under its feect. Thus far the Bible has withstood all the attacks of infidelity, in all its forms, and it is as strong, yes, stronger, to meet the foe of truth than ever it was. Gospel of Christ—for that is only other name for the Bible-is still the mighty power of God, and God has not lost any of His power. Let the cham-pions of error come forth morning and evening armed with sword and spear and shield and let them "defy the armies of Israel. We fear them not."

SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES. SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES.

"Search the Scriptures? But, after all, we should bear in mind that the main object of our search should be to find Christ in them. They festify of Him. He is their sum and substance. The Bible is God's best book, and it is His gift to man. It tells sinners the way to attain God's pardon, God's peace, and God's salvation. It is the only safe chart by which to sail over the sea of time. Here is truth without any mixture of error. It has blessed men in every relation in life, from the king in his throne to the beggar at his gate. A great multitude whom no man can number have found it precious, for they have found Christ it precious, for they have found Christ in it, and its exceedingly great and precious promises have filled their souls with the hope of a blessed immortal-
