DUNMORE.

Mrs. H. Pinkney, of Brook street, has returned from England, after spending a few months in that country.

John Webb and family of Scranton have removed into their new house on Blakey street.

Mrs. William Youngs, of New York, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Webber, of Drinker street.

On Friday night a pocket book containing a sum of money was lost on Brook street between Webster avenue and Blakey street, by George Krause, of Blakey street, who offers a handsome reward to the finder.

Victor Pinkney, one of the Dunmore Legion boys, delivered an address in Boyle's hall last Saturday evening before a large audience and held them spellbound. He reviewed the whole temperance question and severely criticized the present methods adopted by the different agencies at work in the cause of temperance.

The Dunmore Electric Light, Heat and Power company has been formed, the following gentlemen being installed as officers: President, J. J. Murray; vice president, H. H. Winters; secretary, A. T. Irwin; treasurer, P. D. Manley. The shares will be sold to the Dunmore taxpayers only thus giving them the benefits derived therefrom instead of outsiders.

Miss Alice Gilligan, of Pittston, is the guest of Miss Kate Gallins, of Butler street.

Mrs. Annie Stuart, of Mead street, is recovering from the effects of a severely sprained ankle, which she sustained a few weeks ago while stepping from a street car.

Harold, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Swift, is recovering from a severe illness.

Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald have returned from their honeymoon and have gone to housekeeping on Spencer street.

To celebrate the anniversary of the entry into their new and handsome church, the congregation of St. Mark's will give a supper on Thursday evening, October 13, in the parish house. The charge for the supper will be 25 cents.

MARKETS AND STOCKS.

New York, Oct. 5.—The reaction in the stock market met with some success during the early trading at the Stock Exchange today. This was partly due to further reduction in certain grades of refined sugar and statements that the condition of trade was such that prices would have to be further reduced in the near future.

FATHER MELLEY HOME.

Returned from Europe Unexpectedly. Trip Has Benefitted Him Greatly. His Travels on the Continent.

Rev. E. J. Melley, pastor of St. John's church, South Side, returned Saturday morning from Europe after an absence of four months. His appearance was excellent and that his journey greatly benefited his health. He left home on May 27th.

His congregation was not expecting him for a week or two yet, and arrangements were in progress for a suitable reception of his home coming, but Father Melley was not anxious for any display and he came unannounced. He was busy last evening, however, at his residence on Pittston avenue, receiving his parishioners as they came to greet him and convey to him their assurances of being very glad to see him back again. They do not propose to be deprived of testifying their esteem and during the week a reception will be held.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Wynn, of Elm street, took place yesterday in Hyde Park cemetery.

Miss Nellie Lowry, secretary of the Central Y. W. C. A., led the gospel meeting at the rooms of Cedar avenue yesterday afternoon. She also spoke on Bible study.
