NARROW ESCAPE.

The Family of David McMyune Nearly Killed by Coal Gas.

The family of David McMynne, of Dun-daff street, had a narrow escape from death Friday evening. The family sleep in rooms adjoining the sitting room and the gas is supposed to have come from a range used to heat the room. Coal from a fresh load had been put in it shortly before retiring and the cover left partly off. One of the family the average of the family was awakened in the morning by a sense of sufficiention and severe pains in the stomach. They were not able to account for their feelings until the neighbors who came to their assistance discovered the cause. Dr. Bailey was summoned and did all he could to relieve them and after the house had been thoroughly venti-iated the father and sons began to recover. Two of the sons were able to go to work in the morning, but the mother and three children are still very ill.
