WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Receptions in Washburn and Plymouth Congregational Church for Delegates to C. E. State Convention.

The receptions last evening to the Christian Endeavor delegates in the Washburn Street Presbyterian and Plymouth Congregational churches were pleasureable affairs. The inter-lors of both edifices had been decorated in a way suitable to the occasion. At the Washburn street church the enter-taining was done in the lecture room. Bunting, American flags and "C. E." flags covered the walls and about the floor were placed banks of green and flowers with numerous shaded parlor lamps shedding a varied-colored light over the scene. On the right of the m were arranged several tables. At were the secretaries and over each table was a card as a means of directing the visitors as to registry,

At 9.45 o'clock the delegates arrived from the Central City and the entergan. Will Burrill was chairman over the entertainment. Afterward the vis-itors were served with a dainty lunch in the dining rooms of the church. The Chi Upsilon society's room contained the banqueting tables which were neatly arranged. The delegates who regis-tered and the entertainers during their

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

Body of Conrad Steinhof, Father-in-Law of Dr. J. B. Amanu, Taken to Philadelphia for Cremation.

THE LIGHTS WENT OUT EARLY A year ago last night the South Scranton Wheelmen's club was organized. Arrangements were made to cele brate the first anniversary in appropriate style. At 7.15 the club members were to meet at Germania hall to take were to meet at Germania hall to take a run over the principal streets of the city, and they were to return to the hall at 8 o'clock, where a literary and musical programme was to be carried out, one of the features of it to be an address on good roads by ex-County Surveyor A. B. Dunning. The efforts of the wheelmen did not meet with the success that they deserve, and as there was only a very small audience present the programme was cut as short as possible and the lights were turned out early.

FATHER BALOUGH HERE AGAIN. Rev. Valentine Balough, the first pas-tor of the Greek Catholic church on Irving avenue, but now in charge of a parish out near Pittsburg, is the guest of John Kramer, of Irving avenue. Father Balough was here a few months ago before and at that time his presence was coupled with rumors that there was an effort under way to have the man now in charge, Rev. N. Chan-ath, removed. His visit at this time revives those stories.

SHORTER PARAGRAPHS OF NEWS. A meeting of Roaring Brook Conclave of Heptasophs was held last night at Storr's hall and two members were in-itiated.

The first work on the bridge across the Stafford Meadow Brook on Reming-ton avenue was commenced yesterday. The Casey & Kelley Brewing company is having the bridge built. The funeral of Mrs. W. D. Williams, of 416 Breck street, who died Sunday evening after an illness of three years, will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon. will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

A brief service will be conducted at the house, and the services proper will be conducted at the Tabernacle Congregational church on South Hyde Park avenue. Interment will be made in Wash-burn street cemetery. Mrs. Williams was 47 years old and was a faithful worker in church circles before the de-cline of her health. W. S. Potter of the Neptune and A. H. Van Camp, of the Independent Fire-companies are delegates to the Fireen's convention at Johnstown. A reception was tendered the visit-ing delegates of the Christian Endeavor in the Presbyterian church last night, which was very prettily decorated for he occasion. A meeting of the council was held last night in the borough building, and a large amount of business was trans-acted. All the members were present with the exception of McAllister and Walsh. The Scranton and Winton Traction company, not having erected e cluster of thirty incandescent lights promised, were given fifteen days' as promised, were given fifteen days' notice, after which action will be taken against them by the borough attorney. The Suburban Electric Light company agreed to light the borough with arc lights for the sum of $90 a year per light and the Dunmore Electric Light, Heat and Power company agreed to keep the borough supplied with light for the space of five years at the rate of $85 a year per light, also to light the borough building free of charge, should the borough exempt them from the pole tax. Should their them from the pole tax. Should their bid meet with their approval they would allow the borough to use their poles for the hanging of the wires, etc., connected with the fire alarm sys-tem, providing they did not interfere or come in contact with the electric light wires. The bid was referred to the committee on electric lighting. George Siebert complained of the water from both sides of the road running over his property on William street, corner of Prescott avenue, and forming a stagnant pool of water, which was detrimental to the public health. Coun-cil decided to visit his property on Sunday morning, to decide what course to take in the matter.

MINOOKA.

A large and enthusiastic Republican rally was held at Fasshold's hall last evening. A large crowd was present. Frank Toole was elected chairman pro-tem. Mr. Toole introduced Colonel F. tem. Mr. Toole introduced to an elo-L. Hitchcock, who responded in an elo-quent and forceful argument stating that the paramount issue was the tariff and not the prency humbug, as the Democrats allege. Mr. Hitchock characterized Bryan as a "Jonah," and urked the audience to vote for the pro-tective tariff and an increase in wages, Hon. C. P. O'Malley was the next speaker, and during his remarks he was frequently applauded. He injected ginger in his address and held the as-semblage spellbound with his eloquence and fearlessness. Alex. Kessler, a Polish miner employed in the Greenwood No. 2 colliery was seriously injured yesterday after-noon by a fall of rock. He was conveyed to the hospital in the mine am-bulance. ## MARKETS AND STOCKS

Wall Street Review.

New York, Oct. 6.-Speculation at the Stock Exchange today was unusually quiet, the sales of the stocks aggregat-ing only 113,160 shares. The share list at the opening was inclined to sag on weaker quotations from London and the reports from that center of a rather disturbed condition of affairs because of political conditions. As a result prices here yielded about \( \mathcal{U} \) \( \mathcal{U} \) per cent, the Industrials, Internationals and Manhattan being prominent in the reactionary movement. Following this there was a sharp rise in sugar, Manhattan, tobacco and leather preferred, but the usually active stocks continued to sag. Sugar moved up a little over a point to 1!1. Tobacco gained 2 per cent to 67½ on covering of short con-tracts. In the afternoon money sud-denly advanced to 12 per cent and this started moderate liquidations all along the line. Near the close, however, the quotations dropped back to 3 G 4 per cent. In the late decline in stocks sugar, Chicago gas, the Grangers, Louisville and Nashville, Reading and Manhattan were conspicuous. The decline from the highest point of the day was equal to ¼ 6 1% per cent. Manhattan leading. Rumors of further gold imports from Europe at an early day were revived. Speculation left off weak, net changes showing losses of 1/4 @ 14 per cent. Tobacco gained 1 per
