WILLIAMS ENTERED A PLEA OF GUILTY

This Was Done on One Indictment and the Other Cases Were Continued.

WILL BE SENTENCED SATURDAY

Number of Indictments Against Him Reported by United States Grand Jury at Williamsport--One of Them Has Fifty-nine Counts--Scrantonians Who Went to Williamsport to Testify For and Against Him.

The case of A. B. Williams, late cashier of the Traders' National Bank, of this city, came on this week at the sitting of the United States court at Williamsport, Hon. W. W. Watson and Everett Warren representing the bank with the United States District Attorney, and C. Conroy, esq., George M. Watson, and David Cameron, of Tioga county representing the defendant.

Yesterday six additional indictments were returned against Mr. Williams for embezzling different sums of money from the bank at various times, and for making fraudulent reports of his financial dealings with the bank to the controller of the currency, and for falsely swearing that his indebtedness to the bank was only $12,000 for loans when in fact he had taken the money of the bank to the extent of upwards of $30,000. One indictment is for misappropriation of funds of the bank and the other five are for conspiracy.

Those for the government included John T. Porter, president of the bank; C. P. Matthews, J. M. Everhard, R. E. Finley, Joseph J. Emy, I. A. Finch, S. P. Hull, F. L. Phillips, George W. Finn, W. S. Diehl, J. Elliot Rose, Samuel Knapp, W. W. Dolbe, Fred J. Wildmayer, William McCullough and C. S. Williams.

AMUSEMENTS.

The names of Flynn and Sheridan form a very excellent endorsement of the "City Sports" Big Show, for no managers have brought better shows to Scranton than the "Big Sensation." The "City Sports" open a three-day engagement this afternoon. The house is sure to be packed every evening, so go afterwards if possible.

Manager Long has demanded a return date and will present to his patrons on Saturday next, Oct. 10, at the Academy the latest New York laughing case, "Frog and Alley," one of the funniest farces ever produced and made famous by the New York World, whose colored supplement has carried it to the end of the line.

BOTH HELD IN BAIL.

Mrs. Westpahl and McLaughlin Could Not Furnish Security and Were Sent to the County Jail.

Alderman C. C. Donovan gave Mrs. William Westpahl and William McLaughlin a hearing last night at the county jail, and they were held in bail for the sum of $500, which neither could furnish, and they were sent back to the county jail. Mrs. Westpahl is charged with bigamy and unlawful relations. McLaughlin is not married and was charged only with unlawful relations.

John Achter, of Hazleton, her first husband, was present and was sworn. He testified that they were married at Hazleton on December 20, 1877, by Rev. E. A. Bauer, of that place, and he produced his marriage certificate to prove it. He said they are not divorced yet, and proceedings are pending and he hopes to secure release from the tie that binds him to her before very long. She deserted him five or six years ago.

William Westpahl, husband No. 2, was sworn. He testified that he and Mountain Lake last summer and she was introduced as Miss Elizabeth Early to him. Her manner captivated him and he asked her hand in marriage. She gave him her two hands and he vowed to love her deeply. On August 12 last they were married by Rev. William A. Nordt, pastor of Hickory Street Presbyterian church.

In looking through her trunk he found papers showing that she had been married in Hazleton, and as she always led him to believe she was single, it occurred to him after he found out she was married to Achter that Achter might be living, and he investigated. In that way the Hazleton husband was brought here as a witness. Mrs. Sarah Kane, of New York street, was sworn as a witness. With her McLaughlin and the woman boarded at the latter left Westpahl. The witness testified that the defendants occupied the same room in her house and she took it for granted that they were man and wife.

A mighty useful Xmas present can be made out of the back numbers of the popular magazines that have accumulated during the year. Neatly bound, these volumes are not only instructive and entertaining as to contents, but also creditable additions to the appearance of a library or bookshelf. The Tribune bindery isn't saying much these days, but it is doing some very choice work, at prices worth inquiring into.

H. L. HALLSTEAD'S BARN BURNED.

Was Filled with Hay, Grain and Valuable Farm Implements. A large barn in Benton township owned by H. L. Hallstead was entirely destroyed by fire yesterday morning at 3 o'clock. The cause of the fire is unknown.

JOHN'S LEVEL HEAD.

We're not a great admirer of John Wanamaker as a candidate for Don Cameron's job; but as a merchant he certainly knows his business. He does his heaviest advertising as a rule when trade is dull; when it's lively he figures that people will come to trade anyhow. Result: the richest shopkeeper in America. There's no reason why John's plan shouldn't work as well in Scranton as in Dave Martin's town.

Rockwood, Teplitz, Crown, Pair-point and choice China for bric-a-brac, is unlike textile fabrics. Pottery is long-enduring, the hangings of a room may fade and fray, but the bric-a-brac suffers nothing from the ravages of time. Its colors maintain their brilliancy; the transparency of the glaze does not dull by age.
