appointed a committee on permanent organization.

The following were reported for permanent officers: President, R. V. Vaughn; first vice-president, Z. T. Keller; second v ci-president, George Morgan; third vice-president, Will am Bryden; second s den; secretary, R. B. Hubbell; treas-urer, William Somers.

It is the intention to uniform the club and a committee was appointed to purchase the uniforms. The club is composed of many former Democrats, whose patriotism makes them hold country above party. The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening at 7.30 in the conductors' room over the freight house. There are but few free sliver men among the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western employes.

Wednesday the West End Wheeleren purchased a lot on which their new and handsome home will be erected. The lot is located on the westerly side of Franklin street, between Academy and Sullivan streets, and adjoins the Frank-lin street school. It is in size $4x175 fect. Morgan B. Williams, from whom the purchase was made, generously made its cost low enough to equal a donation of $1,000 to the club. As to when the building, which will cost no less than $10,000, will be erected, that is another question, but Frank Deitrick says it will be before 1900. No doubt it will be much sooner than that.
