WILLIE BRYAN AS AN ATTRACTION

He Becomes the Big Card at the Burlington Celebration.

STANDS UPON THREE PLATFORMS

They All Agree, He States, That the Gold Standard Ought to Be Driven Out of the United States and That Its Place Should Be Filled by Coinage of the 16 to I fintio.

Burlington, Iowa, Oct. 8.—In the concluding ceremonics today of Burlington's celebration of the semi-centennial of lowa's admission to the union. William J. Bryan was the principal attraction. The city was profusely decorated and great crowds of visitors filled the streets. Mr. Bryan arrived from Chicago at 6 a. m. on the special car which he will have at his disposal for the rest of the campaign, and took the rest of the campaign, and took breakfast at the house of John I. Seeley. At 9 o'clock Mr. Bryan was escorted to the court house, where he held a short reception. A parade, in which the brass bands, mounted and unmounted organizations, including a number of ladies on horseback, took part, escorted the candidate through the principal streets to the Collseum in Crapo Park. John J. Seeley, who presided, intro-duced him. Several other stands had been erected in the park, and from these Mr. Bryan and others made short speeches. Mr. Bryan said:

BRYAN'S REMARKS.

"Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen, fellow-citizens: We are passing through a campaign which means a great deal to the American people, aye great deal to the American people, aye, more than that, it means a great deal to the people of the world. There is a crisis in human affairs. While every day is of equal length with every other day, yet into some days vast importance is crowded and into the third of November vast importance will be crowded. Upon that day the American people choose a president who shall oc-cupy the White House (Cries of "Bryan. Bryan" and applause) for four years. On that day they select a house of representatives and on that day they

"Much depends upon the result of this election. For the first time in the history of the United States a party appears which declares that the gold standard must be maintained in this country until foreign nations join us or permit us to abandon it. Never before have the American people been asked to declare in favor of a gold standard. Every step that the gold standard has taken heretofore has been taken in the dark and without the con-sent of the American people, and now, for the first time, the advocates of gold ask the American people to support the gold standard at the ballot box. Is it right? (Cries of "no, no") If it is good for the American people, it ought to be endorsed. My friends, nothing is too good for the American people, and if the gold standard will be good for us. we ought to have it. If the gold standard will bring blessings to our people, we ought to manual in the instandard will bring blessings to our people we ought to maintain it. If it brings cursings we ought to abandon it. (Great applause.) This is the question submitted to the American people I stand upon a platform; yes, I stand upon three platforms, which agree on one thing and that which agree on one thing, and that is that the gold standard ought to be driven out of the United States. (Great applause.) and that in its place ought to be submitted the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the legal ratio of 16 to 1 (Applause) without waiting for the consent of any other nation. (Prolonged applause.)

"I come today to submit to your consideration some reasons why Republicans should join with us upon the platform which we have adopted. The Populists have already joined with us. I will say joined with us; they may say that we have joined with them, but I care not how you express it, so we are together now. (Great applause.) A voice: "Hurrah for McKinley" and

WELCOMES M'KINLEY MEN.

Mr. Bryan: My friends I beg you to refrain from any manifestations of displeasure. I am glad to have that man here who is in favor of my opponent. I only hope there are many such, because it is to such persons I desire to express my remarks. My friend has de clared his preference for McKinley. I want to ask him which McKinley he is for: The McKinley of 1890 or the Mc-Kinley of 1896. (Great applause and long cheering.) McKinley said: "But all agree that we must have a larger volume of money and that the added volume shall be silver or its equivalent, based on silver." At that time we were putting into circulation about $24,000,000 a year under the Bland act and Mr. McKinley advocated the Sherman act on the ground that it would increase the amount of money to be put in circulation among the people. "We propose to give to this country what the sextlement are the statement of the sextlement of try what the gentlemen upon the other side of the house could not do, what they did not dare do for four years. We propose to give to the country a silver bill that will take all of the silver, prac-tically, of the United States, and make it a valuable for the use of the people.

Again he said: 'So Mr. Speaker, this bill is just to the silver producers of the United States, for it does what the present law, as demonstrated by every administration for ten years has not done. It takes every dollar of silver bullion that is purchased in the United States and places it at the disposal of the people as money.'

"That was the McKinley of 1890. Let me read you the McKinley of 1836. 'It is not more money we want. What we want is to put all the money we have already at work.' In 1890, when he advocated more money, we already added $24,000,000 to the circulation each year. This year we have no such provision. We have repealed the Sherman law and

WHAT WAS SAID IN 1891. "Mr. McKinley said in 1891 that Mr. Cleveland has been discriminating against silver, had been trying to degrade it, had been trying to contract the currency, and that by lessening the currency he made money dearer by making it scarcer, and making money the master and all things else the servants. If it was wrong for Mr. Cleve-land to make money dear by making it scarce and money the master and all Mr. McKinley to try to make money the master and all things the servants? (Applause and cries of "No, no.") We can support every contention we make by quoting Republican authority and therefore Republicans who come to us in this campaign do not change their party name when their party has abandoned the position it used to have and now demands that you shall surrender the convictions of a life time." (Great applause and cheering.)

SENATOR HILL'S POSITION.

He Will Take Part in the State Campaign Only. New York, Oct. 8.—National Commit-teemen Frank Campbell, who had just returned from Albany, and a consulta-tion with Senator Hill, was asked as to tion with Senator Hill, was asked as to the position of Senator Hill generally in the canvass. Mr. Campbell said: "Senator Hill has been and will con-tinue to be of aid to those in charge of the state campaign because of his in-terest in the success of the Democratic party in the state and union. He is not in sympathy with those Democrats who would defeat the ticket because the would defeat the ticket because the platform is in some respects unsatis-factory to them. He reels that the position taken by him at Chicago makes it impossible for him to serve his party effectively in this campaign by any other course than that so far pursued by hlm." This Interview confirms Chairman Danforth's statement today that Sena-tor Hill will not take any active part in the campaign.

PENNSY WINS THE CASE. Excitement at Belvidere Over the Action Against the Pipe Line Co. Belvidere, N. J., Oct. 8.-The case of pany. It was a sult in ejectment and trespass to compel the oil company to remove two pipes placed under a rali-road culvert, a mile south of Belvidere, one night last August. The suit in-volved title to the public road at that point. The oil company bought of the township commissioner the right to lay its pipes under the road at that point and the railroad contended that no one had a right to sell the right to cross under their tracks.

There was considerable excitement over the outcome of the trial and Judge Gummer ordered the court room doors closed and the constables to bring before him any one who made any demonstration over the verdict.

WRITINGS FIND HER A HUSBAND.

Romantic Courtship of Indiana Girl and Rev. C. Johnson, of Oregon. Elkhart, Ind., Oct. 8.-Miss Addie Hunter, an estimable young lady and daughter of ex-Judge George T. Hunter, wrote an interesting article on "Christian Work" for the Merry Go Round, an Epworth league publication, several months ago.

Rev. C. Johnson, pastor of the First Methodist church of Echo, Oregon, read the article and was so impressed by it that he addressed the fair writer in a truly Christian spirit. After mature deliberation she replied, and the correspondence grew apace until it ripened into love.

Today the reverend gentlemen arrived here, met his bride-elect for the first time, and tomorrow they will be married at the home of her parents.

OBJECTS TO A SCHOOL TEXT-BOOK-Christian Scientist Says Her Son Is

Being Incorrectly Taught. Topeka, Kan., Oct. 8.—Mrs. M. J. Evans, a believer in Christian science. has protested to the school board against physiology, which is being taught her son, and will go into court and test the matter. She maintains that the laws of health as outlined in the text-books are in direct contradiction to the laws believed in by the tion to the laws believed in by the Christian scientists. For instance the book says: "The human body is the frame in which the soul of man dwells while it is on earth." Her belief is that the human body is the house in which God dwells and God is the soul.

DARKNESS COVERS AN OHIO TOWN. City Refuses to Contract for Lighting

Except on Its Own Terms. Hicksville, Ohio, Oct. 8.-A refusal on the part of the city council to contract with the Hicksville Electric Light company, unless the company will begin lighting the city on sun time and shut down on a standard time, has resulted in a regular row in municipal affairs a portion of the council has resigned. The local ministers have taken the matter into the pulpit on the ground that darkness is detrimental to the morality of the city. The excitement over this question has for the present

MARKETS AND STOCKS

Wall Street Review.

New York, Oct. 8.—Trading at the Stock Exchange was fairly active to-day, 240,502 shares changing hands, but the great bulk of business was in a few stocks indicating clearly the profes-sional character of the dealings. During the early part of the day the mar-ket was feverish and unsettled under-sales for both the long and short ac-counts. Continued liquidations in sugar-had an adverse influence on the whole the Pennsylvania railroad vs. the market and small holders realized free-United States Pipe Line company was decided today in favor of the oil com-er stocks. The decline was equal to 1/4 6 1% per cent, the latter in sugar. Sub-sequently under the influence of easier money and the news of further engagements of gold, in London for shipment to this side, speculation assumed a stronger tone and prices advanced all stronger tone and prices advanced an along the line. Manhattan rose rapidly from 88% to 91%. The general list improved % to 1% per cent and the rise was well maintained until just at the close when sugar suddenly fell from 197% to 197 under heavy sales. The market closed weak for sugar and steady for the general list. Net changes show gains of 14 G 114 per cent, tobacco and Manhattan leading. Sugar lost 18 per cent, on the day.
