CRYSTALS ARRIVE HOME.

Report a Glorious Time and the Best of Treatment.

The Crystals returned from their annual joint yesterday evening by Middletown, Newburg, Poughkeepsie and Passenger Agent Thomas Platteroff, of the Ontario and Western road. They say they had a glorious time and will never get tired of talking of the pleasant experiences of the past five days. They left here Monday morning last at 10:35 with about 60 members and guests and the Lawrence band, leaving a special train decorated by S. G. Kerr, Son & Co. They first stopped at Middletown for an hour, where the band gave a concert and then proceeded to Newburg, where they arrived at 5:30 p. m. Here they were entertained by the first department until Tuesday morning when they sailed down the Hudson to West Point. Tuesday night they were the guests of the Young America Home company of Poughkeepsie, where there was a grand banquet and in their honor. Wednesday they returned to Middletown and were entertained by the Monaghan Home company, participating in Middletown's big parade Thursday. They were accompanied Thursday night at the Madison house and started for home yesterday morning arriving here at 4:15 o'clock p. m. The Niagara and Poughkeepsie who were also participants in the Middletown demonstration returned on the same train with them. When this city was reached the "Crystals" took the Pittston people in hand and entertained them until 7:50 when they left for home.

LADIES' BOX CALF SHOES.

Our ladies' shoes for fall and winter wear are something new. They are made of a new lightweight material called "Box Calf," and we have them in lace and button, with good heavy soles, so they can be worn without rubbers if necessary. Box calf will not wet through and is besides, good and serviceable. These shoes are made with the new toe, which is very comfortable as well as stylish. We have these shoes in lace, extra high, for skating purposes. We also carry a full line of them for misses and children, made up with the same style or toe. They are the best shoes for school that can be had. We have them in all sizes.

THOUSANDS WILL PARADE TODAY

Monster Celebration of Father Mathew's Anniversary.

SIXTY-SEVEN SOCIETIES TO PARADE

Nearly Every Town of Any Size Between Forest City and Hazleton Will send Delegations of Paraders and Sightseers to Scranton Today, Picnic During the Afternoon and Evening at Laurel Hill Park.

Today is Father Mathew Day and all over this county wherever the influence of the great apostle of total abstinence has spread, celebrations are being held. The Scranton processions, which is one of the strongest in the Catholic Total Abstinence union, will celebrate the day with a union parade, only a few of which have been held since the Mad River accident in 1883, after which the custom of holding three parades in different parts of the diocese was adopted. There are sixty-seven societies in the Scranton union and each of them will participate in today's demonstration. It is safe to estimate that 5,000 men will be in line, and as the majority of the societies are uniformed and well drilled, it will be a parade well worth seeing. Thousands of visitors will come with the paraders from all the towns in the valleys between Forest City and Hazleton.

M. O'Malley, of this city, is grand marshal, and his chief of staff is Robert Crossland, M. S. Clark, of the Sixty-third. The aids are William Daniels, C. J. Boyle, T. J. Mahon, John Gilliland, James J. Mahon, M. J. McLaughlin, P. C. Mahon, M. J. McLaughlin, John J. Collins, John J. McElroy, and John J. McElroy.

There will be three divisions in the parade. Proceeding the first division will be the march and the band, followed by the parade of the various societies, the second division will be the march and the band, followed by the parade of the various societies, the third division will be the march and the band, followed by the parade of the various societies.

The parade will start promptly at 11 o'clock a. m. The traction company has not finished its repairing at the intersection of Washington avenue and Linden street at that time there may be a change in the line of march. If the work is finished an effort will be made to have at least half the parade in line at that time.

THE LEONARD-JUDGE MATCH.

They Will Box for Points Tonight in Music Hall.

The ten round boxing contest between Jimmy Judge the local champion and Michael Leonard, the "Bass Brumel" of New York, takes place at Music Hall tonight.

The men met before and the decision was a draw, which makes it all the more interesting. Both are in excellent condition. The local man, of course, is a decided favorite. He is four inches taller than the New Yorker, weighs more and has a longer reach. Leonard has a more explosive and is considered the best general.

The Christian Endeavor convention is a thing of the past. It ended with the three sessions of Thursday night and those who made that trip were Scrantonites and they did not number over seventy-five so the excursion can hardly be termed one of the features of the convention.

MARRIED IN JERSEY.

Miss Lizzie Ann Davis and Will Ferguson Braved Parental Displeasure and Married.

The Thursday morning mail bore a letter directed to Owen Davis, of Price street, and when the contents had been fully digested Mr. Davis knew for the first time that he had a son-in-law in the person of Will Ferguson, a young man who on Wednesday morning eloped with Miss Lizzie Ann Davis.

The marriage took place at Belvidere, N. J., where the two young people were able to escape the stringent parental objections. The bride was accompanied by an obliging Protestant minister, the bride, Lizzie Ann, told her parents Wednesday morning that she was about to visit a relative in Green Ridge, N. J. The bridegroom, Will Ferguson, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Lizzie Ann dressed in her best clothes and about 9 a. m. she departed. The next day she was seen when the letter arrived. Wednesday night when her child had not returned home—she was usually punctual—Mr. and Mrs. Davis became alarmed. Then for the first time, having two and two together, they suspected the truth. Ferguson had been a regular visitor at the Davis home. Mr. Davis did not approve of the elopement and one evening he plainly told Ferguson so. Mr. Davis was very much disturbed. She gave the facts reported here and hinted that the letter from Miss Lizzie, who is her step-daughter, begged forgiveness and expressed regret that she had so deceived her parents.

The young people left the city on a morning train and in the evening they were seen in Jersey. Mr. Ferguson is now in Jersey. Mr. Ferguson is now in Jersey. Mr. Ferguson is now in Jersey.

THE WISE MERCHANT

Seeks the public through the means of a live morning journal, and does not wait for some chance or fortuitous incident to inform the people of the new bargains he has for the buyers. Shelf-worn goods never inventory their market value. If you advertise in the Scranton Tribune you will have more to inventory, at least your cash drawer will reveal something that is more tangible.

DEPARTURE OF THE C. E. DELEGATES

Not Many of Them Remained to Enjoy the Excursion to Farview.

SOME INSPECTED THE MINES

Perhaps Not Over One Hundred and Fifty of the Great Army of Delegates Spent Last Night in the City. Statement Issued by Rev. George E. Guild, President of the City Endeavor Union.

The Christian Endeavor convention is a thing of the past. It ended with the three sessions of Thursday night and those who made that trip were Scrantonites and they did not number over seventy-five so the excursion can hardly be termed one of the features of the convention.

During Thursday night and yesterday morning nearly all the visiting delegates began their journeys homeward and there were few who went on the excursion to Farview. Most of those who made that trip were Scrantonites and they did not number over seventy-five so the excursion can hardly be termed one of the features of the convention.

No matter who might be said of the success of the convention in its various departments, the good showing of the financial side of the big gathering was highly gratifying. The financial committee, of which Attorney J. W. Browning is chairman, has enough funds to meet all expenses and that is distributed through the state conventions this year during the last few years. The success in the money line is one which causes the convention management a great deal of satisfaction.

INSPECTED THE MINES.

There remained in the city yesterday perhaps 150 night-seeing delegates. A number of them were sent to inspect the mines and many of them were given the opportunity through the efforts of members of the committee of 50, but at midnight the city did not contain more than a handful of strangers and delegates.

The following was issued yesterday by Rev. Geo. E. Guild, president of the Scranton City Endeavor Union: To Pastors and Presidents of Endeavor Societies of Scranton City: The State Endeavor convention of '96 is now an event of the past.

There remained in the city yesterday perhaps 150 night-seeing delegates. A number of them were sent to inspect the mines and many of them were given the opportunity through the efforts of members of the committee of 50, but at midnight the city did not contain more than a handful of strangers and delegates.

SO MANY INSPIRATIONS.

The devotional exercises, addresses, conference, rallies, singing, fellowships, were just so many inspirations. Now for action. The kindness of the city. I send this after-convention committee of 50, consisting of all Endeavor societies in the city, to inspect the mines and many of them were given the opportunity through the efforts of members of the committee of 50, but at midnight the city did not contain more than a handful of strangers and delegates.

About 20,000 documents are now in the possession of the committee and will be distributed throughout the county.

AND HOME DECORATIONS.

Rockwood, Teplitz, Crown, Pair-point and choice China for bric-a-brac, is unlike textile fabrics. Pottery is long-enduring, the hangings of a room may fade and fray, but the bric-a-brac suffers nothing from the ravages of time. Its colors maintain their brilliancy; the transparency of the glaze does not dull by age.

WELL WORTH HEARING.

These better orators than Charles Emory Smith, James H. Hoyt and D. D. Woodmansee, who will speak next Thursday evening at the grand Republican mass meeting in the Frothingham theater, are not to be found. This meeting will be open to all and every voter will find it worth his while to be there.
