WEST SIDE EVENTS.

Annual Ball of Father Mathew Society in Mear's Hall--Attended by Over One Hundred Couples.

The Father Mathew Benevolent society held its twenty-fourth annual ball last evening in Mear's hall. It was attended by over one hundred couples and in every respect the affair was a grand success. James Gallagher was master of ceremonies and J. J. Powers was assistant.

The committees in charge were: Floor committee, Joseph Canavan, Thomas Fleming, Harry C. Gallagher, Walter Rainey, Patrick Devers, Thomas Reiter, Joseph Durkin, John Burke, E. L. Dacy, Thomas Herriety; reception committee, M. T. Walsh, Thomas P. McHale, M. S. Lavelle, John Crowley, Sr., W. R. Burke, M. P. Moran, J. H. Brown, Edward Kenny; general committee, James C. Gallagher, chairman; M. Jennings, secretary; M. T. Walsh, treasurer; John Shanessy, John Donohoe, John P. Crowley, John McTierney, James Regan, Patrick Murphy.

WEDDING BELLS.

Miss Katie Dean was wedded Wednesday afternoon to James Sweeney at St. Patrick's church. The Rev. Father Dunne performed the ceremony. Mrs. Mary Duffy, of Pleasant street, was bridesmaid and Morgan Sweeney was best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Rose Conway. After the ceremony a reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney at the home of Miss Ella Dean, of Chestnut street. Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney will live on Chestnut street.

Samuel Conner, of Jackson street, and Miss Eva Roberts, of Theodore street, were quietly wedded at Mt. Pocono last Wednesday. They will reside on North Broomey avenue.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Kulp, of Jackson street, to Louis Smith, of Eynon street, is announced for Oct. 28 at the bride's home.

HIS FRIENDS ASSEMBLED.
J. C. Moyer was thirty-six years of age yesterday evening. The evening a number of his friends gathered at his home on North Broomey avenue and passed a few hours in sociability. One of the surprises of the evening was when Mr. Moyer was allowed to gaze at a handsome writing desk which was presented to him by the assembled guests. The presentation service was served by Mrs. Moyer.

TAKEN TO THE HOME.
Jacob Courtright, the man who wandered to this side Wednesday night, has been adjudged insane by Drs. Gunter and M. J. Williams. He was taken to the Hillside Home yesterday morning. Courtright seems to be friendly. Where he came from and who he really is, are mysteries to the police. He has never before been an inmate of the Home.

PLACE OF MEETING CHANGED.
The Sherman school mission will hold Sunday school tomorrow in the Plymouth Congregational church. The change is temporary and is due to the remodeling that is going on at the mission house. The mission school will begin at 2:15 o'clock p. m. The regular Sunday school meets at 12 o'clock.

NEWS NOTES AND PERSONALS.
Mrs. Stewart Besseker and children, of North Broomey avenue, have returned from a visit at Mt. Pocono.
Misses Mary and Virgie Courtright, of Milwaukee, returned yesterday after a visit to Miss Myrtle Peares, of Frink street.
Editor William Watkins, of the Fayetteville Tidings, was a West side visitor yesterday.
Mr. and Mrs. Roger Jones, of South Sumner avenue, are home after a trip to Europe.
Mr. and Mrs. Morrison Bells and A. C. Bells, of Frenchtown, have returned home after attending the funeral of the late John Fraumiller.
Miss Margaret Davies, of South Main avenue, left yesterday for a visit to friends at Lanesboro.

A. P. Kern is visiting at Newton.
John L. Jenkins, late prescription clerk of Morgan & Co., will open a new pharmacy today at Jackson street and Rebecca avenue. The new establishment will be called the West End pharmacy.
The latest and best styles, Roberts, 125 North Main.

The burial of a child of Mr. and Mrs. Ebenezer Williams, of 1620 Hampton street, will take place at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.
James E. Francis and family have removed from 123 North Main avenue

SOUTH SIDE NEWS.

"Bob" Davis' Victim Not a Resident of South Side--Meeting of Eleventh Ward Republican Club.

Nearly every paper of the city has stated that Elizabeth Schneider, who is now at the Hillside home nursing twins as the result of the perfidy of notorious "Bob" Davis, is a resident of the South Side. The unfortunate girl is not a resident here. A few years ago, when she came first to the city, she was employed here a few days, but left at the end of that time and did not return.

There are so many Schneider families on the South Side that this explanation will save the speculation of the gossips, who are trying now to trace the family she belongs to, so that they may not confound their research with any families here.

REPUBLICAN CLUB MEETING.
A meeting of the Eleventh Ward Republican club was held last evening and the members made encouraging reports of the sentiment among the voters on the issues of the campaign. The ward is strongly Democratic when party lines are tightly drawn, but this election the sentiment is in favor of the Republicans. The club will attend the rally at the Frothingham next Thursday evening.

SHORTER PARAGRAPHS.
General Manager Wehrum denied that an order had been passed up at the South works for a resumption of operations, when he was questioned over the wire by a Tribune reporter a few nights ago, but that will not occur on Monday.

A young child of Patrobian and Mrs. Peter Haggerty is seriously ill of diphtheria.

A special gospel meeting will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:45 in Young Women's Christian Endeavor rooms, 1021 Cedar avenue. Every young woman is invited to come. There will be special music. The M. T. club is making preparations for their fall opening to be held Thursday evening, October 13th.

New stock of elegant wall paper and paints at Horner's, 713 Cedar ave. Best work at the Crystal Laundry.

WILL BE SENTENCED TODAY.
A. B. Williams will hear his fate this morning.

A. B. Williams, the embelzling cashier of the Traders' bank, who on Monday pleaded guilty of the technical charge of forgery in the United States court at Williamsport, will this evening be given his sentence.

The maximum punishment for this count is five years. In any of the other seven counts on which he was arraigned five years is the minimum penalty.

READING REORGANIZATION.
The Big White Elephant is to Remain in Receivers' Hands.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—The final installment of the assessment on the first, second and third preference bonds, the deferred income bonds and the stock of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, was payable today.

The underwriting syndicate has also been asked to pay in twenty per cent of its subscription. These payments, it is estimated, will aggregate $1,000,000.

The stock of the company was for the first time quoted at $10 paid today and sold in the neighborhood of $12.

With this feature of the plan of reorganization accomplished, the field becomes clear for the putting out of new bonds and the settlement of obligations.

The road is now being operated by the receivers for the account of the purchasers at the recent foreclosure sale, and it is understood that no request will be made to the court to take the company out of the hands of the receivers for some time.

RAILROAD RUMOR NAILED.
The Lehigh Valley Not to Put on New Trains at Chicago.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9.—Charles S. Lee, general passenger agent of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, today denied the truth of the report circulated a few days ago that new trains to Chicago were to be put on Oct. 15, and that the Black Diamond express would run through from New York to Chicago.

As a matter of fact, he said, the Black Diamond express will not go beyond Buffalo.

The change of the time will be made on November 15, not October 15, and there will be no additional trains to Chicago. The Grand Trunk system will make connection with the Black Diamond express to Chicago.

THE BYSTANDER SHOT.
Watchman Injures a Man While Stopping a Fight in Yonkers.

Yonkers, Oct. 9.—The police were notified at an early hour today of a shooting that occurred outside of a saloon near the Yonkers crematory. The injured man is Frederick Kuster, a cigarmaker, 50 years of age, and the person who shot him is the watchman of the crematory, Peter Beard, a colored man.

Two young men, Frederick Ehrenspeck and Christopher Manley, were fighting. The watchman became involved in the quarrel and drew his revolver, shooting at the two men. Instead of hitting them, the bullet struck the cigarmaker, who was an onlooker.

GREATEST BETTING RACE.
Senator A Captures the Transylvanian Stake at Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 9.—Five thousand people saw the great Transylvanian stake decided here today. The rich prize went to Senator A, a bay horse by Tramp-Panic, who had won two heats yesterday. Governor Strong, who also had two heats, was second; Alcinda, third. Time, 2:11.

Senator A was favorite in the betting turt. There was $200,000 in the pool box when the races started for the final heat, making it the greatest betting race in the history of the trotting turf.

DEATH OF GEORGE F. COHEN.
Prominent Luzerne County Attorney Expires Very Suddenly.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 9.—George F. Cohen, a well known lawyer, died suddenly in the Luzerne county court house today from heart trouble. He was 25 years of age and won the Cobden prize at Yale, one of the greatest marks of distinction at that university. He leaves a widow and two children.

SPORTING NOTES.
The Scranton Turn Verein indoor base ball club challenged the Lehigh Valley and Chappel, Mulley's, Clarke's and the Combination indoor base ball teams to a series of games of indoor base ball to be played between them. Send all replies to Nelson G. Teets, manager-captain, of the Turn Verein base ball club.

The Scranton Turn Verein base ball team challenges the Wilkes-Barre, Pittston or Nanticoke teams to a series of games. First game will be first served. Nelson G. Teets, manager.

WERE TAKEN TO LUZERNE.

The Four Dead Liners Will Be Tried in Wilkes-Barre.

Frank Mangan, Michael Jones, John Miller and John Brown, the robbers captured in this city Thursday after raiding six Pittston stores, were yesterday turned over to the Luzerne county authorities.

Chief Loftus, of Pittston, with two of his officers, took them down on the 3:30 p. m. Delaware and Hudson train and after a preliminary hearing before Alderman Loftus, they were committed to the Luzerne county jail. The prisoners objected to going to Wilkes-Barre, preferring to be tried here.

Chief Loftus reports having found two bundles of clothing dropped by the robbers, near the junction, in their night.

NATURE THE MOST BEAUTIFUL.
Hotly Contested Debate by Members of Scranton Business College.

At a regular meeting of the Scranton Business College Lyceum last night in the college hall, after the business part of the meeting, a hotly contested debate on "Resolved, that Nature is More Beautiful than Art," took place. The debate was won by the affirmative which was upheld by Miss Clifford and Charles H. Constantine, and the negative by William F. L. Carpenter and William J. Pierce.

After the debate the following programme was rendered: Piano solo, Miss Susie Tierney; recitation, John Martin; vocal solo, Miss Anastasia Clifford; select reading, Miss Cora Halde-man.
