Brief Mention of What Has Been Going on During the Week.

SOCIETY IS DEVOTED TO GOLF

Professional Instructors Will Arrive in the City Monday--Number of Marriages--Several Small House Parties--Mention of the Movements of Well-Known Persons During the Week Now Drawing to a Close.

Chief here, there, and everywhere, the social life of the city is so interesting that it is difficult to do more than to mention a few of the things that are going on. For several weeks the golf has occupied the time and attention of persons who would otherwise have been engaged in other pursuits. The season is not yet over and the result is that there is little or nothing to report in the way of formal events which have attracted attention. AMUSEMENTS.

This afternoon and evening at the Academy of Music another opportunity will be given to see that finest of all Irish farce comedies, the much-talked-of "Hogan's Alley," which has been adapted for the amusement of the laughing public and a picture taken from real life, the characters of Hogan and Hogan being portrayed by the great comedians, William C. Houston, right, fully known as Ireland's kins, supported by a company of reputable performers of real ability.

Ha! Ha! Ha! successful play, "Human Hearts," will be produced at the Frothingham, Monday night. It deals with life in Arkansas and one of its chief charms is its perfect simplicity. The story is laid in the hills of Arkansas, where a class of people live whose feelings are such one for the other, that whenever occasion requires they die in silence rather than betray a friend. There is a lovely air throughout this play that is quite a relief from the ordinary plays which have for a leading theme some woman with a smirched past.

A treat is in store for the patrons of Davis' theater in the grand production of "Excelsior," which plays three nights and matinees, commencing Monday, Oct. 12. The company consists of forty people, entirely new, and includes five big ballets. This production is one of the best spectacular travesties that ever played popular success. The latest New York hits are introduced. Lots of up-to-date comedy, pretty girls, latest music, songs and dances.
