HURRICANE ON THE ATLANTIC COAST

The Schooner Luther A. Roby Wrecked Near Cape Henlopen.

THREE OF THE CREW PERISH

Fierce Northeast Gale Sweeping Along the Shores of New Jersey. Life Saving Stations in Danger of Being Swept Away--Bad Weather Ahead--Damage at Cape May.

Lewis, Del., Oct. 11.--The schooner Luther A. Roby, from Schriver, N. S., consigned to Philadelphia, with plaster, came ashore at Cape Henlopen, in a heavy northeast gale below the point of Cape Henlopen and almost immediately went to pieces.

The wind blew a gale and every vessel in the harbor sought refuge behind the breakwater. Not a pilot boat was out to sea. The Mark Alice, which was anchored a mile west of the breakwater, began to drag her anchor.

STORM AT ATLANTIC CITY.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 11.--The heaviest storm that has been traveling along the Atlantic coast struck this city this morning, and in connection with an extraordinary high tide, has caused the greatest damage so far.

The center of the pier at the foot of Texas avenue has partially given away. It is expected that the weakened part will go out to sea this morning.

THE GALE AT SEA ISLE.

Sea Isle City, N. J., Oct. 11.--The gale has raged with great fury here today and tonight the wind is blowing fifty miles an hour. The meadows in the rear of the city are flooded for miles and as far as the eye can reach there is only a foaming sea.

SCHOONER CAPSIZED.

Glocester, Mass., Oct. 11.--Schooner Abanah, sixty-nine tons off and from Bath, lumber laden for Boston, capsized off Baffin Island this afternoon and is a total loss.

Storm Reaches England.

London, Oct. 11.--A northeast gale is prevailing here today, and it is increasing in force to night. No shipping disasters are reported in this vicinity.

Storm Reaches England.

London, Oct. 11.--A northeast gale is prevailing here today, and it is increasing in force to night.

AS TO FILING NOMINATION PAPERS

Claims That Certificates of Candidates for the House of Representatives Should Be Filed with County Commissioners--A Point of Law That May Cause Chaos in Political Circles.

Pittsburg, Oct. 11.--E. J. Brennan, of this city, forwarded a letter last night to Chairman John M. Garman, of the Democratic state committee, in regard to the construction of the act of June 10, 1893, relative to the filing of nomination papers.

MCKINLEY'S QUIET DAY.

A Brief Season of Rest Is Enjoyed by the Overworked Candidate--Program for the Week.

Canton, O., Oct. 11.--Major McKinley spent a quiet Sunday. He was up bright and early, took his short morning ride, attended church in the morning.

BALM FOR BILLY BRYAN.

The Boy Orator Allows His Vocal Organs to Relax--Program for the Week.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 11.--The sweet balm of rest has been William Bryan's today, after his hard week throughout the north, middle west and northwest. He was up bright and early this morning to meet Mrs. Bryan on her arrival here from Lincoln.

CRUELTY CHARGED BY CADETS.

Complaints by Boys on the Massachusetts Training Ship Enterprise. Boston, Mass., Oct. 11.--At the hearing yesterday in the matter of charges against certain officers of the Massachusetts training ship Enterprise, a wrangle occurred over the charges, insisting that charges should be presented in writing.
