Nine states were repre-sented, one delegation coming from St. Louis, a distance of over 700 miles. Kentucky sent a uniformed club led by one hundred men, everyone of them six-footers and each of them uniformed la their raid of Wednesday night. Where the rifle came from is not known. It is footers, and each of them uniformed in I terday morning and worked up the case blue and white and wearing tall bear skin hats. Wheeling, West Virginia, sent a similar organization. "Major McKinley, as is supposed in major McKinley, as is supposed in these parts, does not speak from the front porch, at least he doesn't any more. A platform has been erected in the lawn and here all the speechmakthe lawn and here all the speechmak-ing, both presentations and responses, are made. And thatlawn! Judging from the pictures I have seen of McKinley's home and from the character of the neighboring lawns, it was once a thing of beauty. Now it is as bare of grass and shrubbery as a billiard ball, as level as a billiard table and as hard as asphalt. Even the trees are fast disappearing. The relic hunters have broken off the branches up to the very trunks and have even stripped many of them of their bark. Even the house has been attacked and everything that can be torn from its fastenings seems Millar. has been attacked and everything that can be torn from its fastenings seems to have disappeared. They are now be-ginning to tear off strips of the siding from the back of the house. The place looks 28 if it had been struck by a cyclone. I wanted to get some me-mento of the visit and after looking vainly around for as much as a blade of grass, forced my way up to where McKinley was shaking hands and ask-ed if I could have a picket from the fence. He laughed heartily at the re-quest and bade me help myself, say-ing he would have to build a new one, anyhow. Howard Payne and I each got a picket. Why the fence hasn't disapepared before this is more than I can understand."

Pursuant to an order from Mayor Bailey, excluding local tramps from the privileges of the lodgers' chamber, Desk Sergeant Deiter had to refuse him Desk Sergeant Delter had to refuse him accommodations. Dennis was at first nonplussed. Then he became angry. He could not understand why he had bee nturned away from home, and when Sergeant Delter refused to give him a diagram of the reason he went outside and commenced to heap curses on the mayor, the sergeant and the city hall. Delter got sorry, called Dennis back and arranged so that he should have lodging for a whole month without a break. Dennis is still swearing up at the county jail.

morning service and heard a sermon pertaining to the young and in the af-ternoon participated in special exer-cises and a mingling of the primary and senior departments. In the morning Rev. Dr. Joseph K. Dixon, the pastor, preached from Eze-kial x:2, "Fill thine hands with coals of for from between the cherubims and scatter them over the city." The theme of the discourse was "The Church for the Times."

The blg lecture room was none too large to contain the gathering in the afteration. Dr. Dixon made an ad-dress, and Luther Keller, the superin-tendent, conducted the exercises. Those present included the primary and ad-vanced departments. Each class made a report.

JUST WANTED TO STEAL.

An Italian Kleptomaniac Make Off with Two Combs and Pair of Socks. Savina Lorenzo, an Italian from Providence, while pricing goods in the notion store at 115 Penn avenue, Satur-day morning, suddenly grabbed up two combs and a pair of socks and bolted

out of the store. He was however, overtaken by one of the clerks and turned over to an officer. In police court yesterday morn-ing he plead that he was drunk at the time and as he appeared to be a pretty decent sort of a fellow Mayor Bailey allowed him to go with a $5 fine.
