THE SUBURBAN ELECTRIC LIGHT CO.

The man in the moon will be down pretty soon.
To see what's become of the night:
And he'll say with a sob, "It's out of a job,
Because of that SUBURBAN LIGHT."

The greatest luxury in modern home (next to a good bath room) is the Incandescent Electric Light. No dwelling is complete or up-to-date without both. No business place without the latter.
Our system, under the alternating current, is absolutely safe from fire.

MYSTERY OF ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS

Where Did It Come from and Who Paid It to Attorney Martin.

BOLAND DECLARES HE DID NOT

Vidaver Believes the Money Came from Some of the City Treasurer's Friends—Colonel Fitzsimmons' Scathing Denunciation of Vidaver in Alderman Howe's Court—A Rapidly Widening Feud in the Democratic Camp.

City Treasurer Boland was a very much surprised and, to all appearances, a very much disappointed man when, upon going to Alderman Howe's office yesterday morning with an attorney and four witnesses to respond to the summons in the suit for $100 brought by Nathan Vidaver, he found that the suit had been withdrawn and that the docket contained an entry to the effect that the plaintiff had received "full satisfaction in above case."
The entry had been made Saturday night at the direction of John T. Martin, attorney for Mr. Vidaver. He was at the alderman's office yesterday morning and made the following explanation:
"Mr. Vidaver came to me and asked me if I would be his counsel. I said I would if there was any money in it. He came to me again and I said I would serve him. It is very mysterious, but on Saturday a man came to me and paid me $100. I do not know who he was, but he could point him out if I should ever see him again. I took the $100, for I thought it would be a wise thing to do. I gave Mr. Vidaver $75 and kept $25 for my fees. Mr. Boland's name was not mentioned in the matter. Where it came from I do not know. I thought it might have been from some of the politicians. There is nothing before the alderman. There is no complaint against Mr. Boland. The case is discontinued by the counsel for the plaintiff."

SOME HARD WORDS.

Addressing the alderman, Colonel F. J. Fitzsimmons, attorney for Mr. Boland, said:
"I am here representing Mr. Boland. We came here for the purpose of having a full and complete hearing if we can. Mr. Boland feels that he has been unjustly summoned to appear here. He feels that Mr. Vidaver was actuated by nothing short of premeditated blackmail. Now, it is certainly unjust to Mr. Boland to have it spread broadcast by Vidaver and his friends that Mr. Boland caused this money to be paid to hush up the matter. I want to say for Mr. Boland that he is ready for trial. This case should not have been settled until we were notified in order to make this defense. The record should be made out so as to show that the costs were paid by the plaintiff and the case discontinued by him. It is made to appear that Mr. Boland handed this money over to some person to pay Mr. Vidaver. In fact, I know it was intended so to be.
"We are here this morning to expose Vidaver's methods, but in view of the fact that this case has been marked the record settled, we ask your honor to make the record show that the defendant in this case had no participation in his settlement. He repudiates it and denies that he owed this man Vidaver anything."

PLANS FOR THE WINTER.

Meeting of Baptist Pastors' Union at Penn Avenue Baptist Church.
Rev. W. J. Ford, Green Ridge; Rev. A. B. O'Neal, Dunmore; Rev. J. L. Williams, Forest City; Rev. J. R. Ellis, Hakeley and Deacon E. R. Griffiths, of the Jackson street Baptist church, attended the meeting of the Baptist Pastors' Union, in the Penn Avenue Baptist church, yesterday morning and discussed plans for work during the coming winter.
There were many good suggestions and speeches and altogether it was a very interesting meeting which promises fruitful results.

WELL WORTH HEARING.

Three better orators than Charles Emory Smith, James H. Hoyt and D. D. Woodmanson, who will speak next Thursday evening at the grand Republican mass meeting in the Frothingham theater, are not to be found. This meeting will be open to all and every voter will find it worth his while to be there.

Quit Match.

There will be a game of quots between Thomas Simon and William Hoy, both of Olyphant, at William McLaughlin's place, on Oct. 15. The game is for $25 and will consist of sixty-one points.

nition on the official ballot, without having its candidates put on the ticket through the medium of nomination papers. The party will not have any legislative candidates in the field this fall. About two weeks ago they met in convention in Judge Stanton's room on Washington avenue, and nominated a complete county ticket. Dr. John Salupus, of Penn avenue, was the standard-bearer for congress; Ross W. Davis, of Priceburg, and John R. Slicker, of Tompkinsville, were nominated for county commissioners; John A. Barron, of Priceburg, and Albert Blich, of Dunmore, were nominated for auditor; and George Gohler, A. W. Houch, John Layton, and John A. Leggon were nominated for judges of the First, Second, Third and Fourth Legislative districts respectively. They knew they did not poll two per cent.
